

Daniel 11 & 12 the King of the North

Prelude to Daniel 11 and 12

- It is important to use the time periods of chapter 12 to help establish the words of the angel or the explanation given in Chapter 11
- Our guide post is also the image given at the very first in Nebuchadnezzar's dream
- Understand Rome is the abomination of desolation but has two phases, the little horn is established after the taking away of paganism. This is also given by several time periods found in Daniel and relates to the taking away of the 'daily'.
- The prince of the covenant being cut off- Christ, also affirms the length and time of the vision; the length of time therefore is not literal days but a day representing a year.
- The cleansing of the sanctuary is important to our understanding and the restoration of truth. 'The Word' being Christ makes us clean through His words of truth. The restoration of the truth and cleansing of the sanctuary come together, go hand in hand and have a particular place in history, that is the 2300 years coincided with the unravelling of the prophecies of Daniel- the little book was unsealed, the prophecies meaning were discovered at a time of religious liberty in US. This occurred at the same period of the Papacy receiving a deadly wound.
- Who would constitute God's people? Well you say that's easy- we'll consider this they keep all the commandments of God, the 4th being a distinguishing mark and have love for the brethren. They will make an end of sin and reconciliation for iniquity (Daniel 9). Therefore, to really have the Holy Spirit guiding us we must obey the commandments and be committed to a balanced gospel that recognizes grace, faith and that faith being a faith that works by love and purifies the soul. The contrast is made between the little horn otherwise known as the abomination of desolation or the King of the North and God's people. The little horn thinks to change times and law- that is God's law and is a persecuting power. God's people keep God's law and are distinguished by time and are persecuted for so doing what God has commanded. Following each conflict with the King of the South Rome (there are three periods referred to in Daniel 11) the King of the North overcomes the king of the South, establishing itself and persecution follows.
- Day of judgement- blessed is he who comes to that day and the opening of the book of Daniel for the wise shall understand. All candidates for heaven are judged before they can enter heaven. The little horn is judged also because it takes the name of Christ.

- Do not study chapters 11 & 12 separately, and consider the interpretation in light of the figures and timeline already given in preceding chapters of Daniel.
- Daniel is not a full running commentary on history but has pinpointed certain major events that establish truth and error and major events that affect the people of God.
- Beware of double application of prophecies (using times and events more than once) that leaves the reader in confusion having not thoroughly established the 'first application.'

This is like a train and the indicator says it only makes certain stops. Here are the main stops given by the indicator:

1. how the abomination of desolation was formed that is pagan Rome. 2. How the abomination of desolation becomes church & state power 3. the events surrounding the day of judgement and probation's close in the latter day. Where does the train stop? This is indicated by the time lines given in Daniel 8,9,12.

The conclusion of Daniel should be seen in expansion of that which has preceded and in this wise the king of the North being Turkey or Islam as has been suggested by many, does not fit that which shall continue to dominate till Christ comes but the little horn a power that was nothing like that preceded before, (as described in Daniel 11 and the preceding chapters) works with flatteries, desires not women, fits well the work of the Papacy. Daniel says he shall think to change times and laws Daniel 7:25, magnifying himself above God. The power of atheism from the bottomless pit I would suggest is not introduced in Daniel but in Revelation 11 and is identified with its own time period.

When we come to Daniel 11 there are many ideas and thoughts but are, they consistent with the time lines and the flow of thought in the book of Daniel? The king of the north being Turkey or Islam has been a popular idea, however Rome is the great subject in the last half of the book of Daniel, as Babylon is the great subject in the first half of the book. {May 29, 1900 AT Jones, ARSH 338.9}

While listening to presentations of Daniel 11 there appears to be inconsistency in the interpretations. The adding of the King of the South Egypt in Daniel 11 to the prophetic equation seems to come up with all sorts of interpretations. I understand complexity as the language at times may appear vague or perhaps it is better to say that one is looking for context. If we continue expanding on that which we began with the last universal kingdom which would turn to become a church state power this gives a good guide.

Egypt's importance is its relevance to Rome and how that leads to it becoming a universal power. Again, Egypt's relevance to this passage is how Rome became the Roman church and then the re-emergence of the Roman Church's power after the 1260-year reign. The King of the South was that which was opposed to the king of the North and must be dealt with militarily before the Roman state or church could assume power. Once it has assumed its power it is a persecuting power against the people of God. The King of the South has three phases but more importantly the King of the North has three phases as denoted by the times the King of the South is referred to. How so? Rome must militarily deal with Egypt before coming to its own on the world stage. The Roman Empire would not last and so the Church of Rome ascended to the world stage but not before having to deal with the situation in Egypt. The Church of Rome after 1260 years went in receivership but was not destroyed because of its worldwide influence. At this time the Vatican is again ascending to the position of its former glory but its time of former 'greatness' is yet to be realised. Apostate Christianity that which presents itself with the name of Christ is that which is most troubling and has shed the blood of martyrs and that's why the focus on the King of the North in the prophecy. 'Rome' (that is the Church of Rome) again must deal with a threat and it does so by its coalition of associated Christian countries of the West as it did in the past (Rome initially gained its power through France & the emperors of Rome), using the strength of nations for its own power. The end result is the return of Christ of course but just before this 'they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast.' And Revelation 12 clearly tells us the dragon is Lucifer. But this does not occur without the God's intervention and that being His people, His church whom He is guiding through prophetic time to the very last day.

Elsewhere on this website I talk about understanding the book of Revelation from three powers that ascend from the bottomless pit. The 1. Muslims, in particular extremists, 2. Atheism- despot communism and 3. Apostate Christianity. The most prominent of the three is apostate Christianity and it is this one that particularly attacks God's truth and His people more than the other two. It is referenced 8 times by a prophetic time periods and identified by a lot of description. This is the one than forms from paganism and then calls itself Christian. This is the one that attacks God's people specially with reference to those that obey the law of God. This is the one that brings in the antichrist. Daniel concentrates on how this power of false Christianity grew and become established and here in Daniel 11 how the Roman empire was formed and from the Roman empire the church was formed and from the demise of the church to its reestablishment to bringing in the false messiah how that was also established. This is all done in reference to the people of God. So here in Daniel the theme is the establishment of a false Christianity taking to itself the name of Christ and bringing in ultimately who is the King of the North- the Antichrist. As in Revelation the contrast is given between this despotic power and God's people with the restoration of the temple, judgement and the coming of the Messiah.

Note that unless otherwise specified numerical references refer to Daniel 11 and highlighted in blue.

Daniel 11 is answering what was spoken of in Daniel 8:12 And an host was given [him] against the daily [sacrifice] by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered.

8:13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain [saint] which spake, How long [shall be] the vision [concerning] the daily [sacrifice], and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

In revelation we find three beasts that ascend from the bottomless pit. Of those three beasts the greatest was a beast that would counterfeit Christianity. The forming of that beast is its progression from Paganism to having a Christian name, this is what is described in Daniel 11 & 12.

The building of human history in prophecy is the image of a man. The 10 toes in its simplicity has great relevance to our time and Revelation 13-18 which parallels the story of Daniel 3. However, we shall expand on this at a later time.

The head of the nations is the head of the statue in Nebuchadnezzar's dream- Babylon and as we build the body the body parts becomes larger taking in more territory than the kingdom before it. The image of a man is built which is against Christ; that is the antichrist and a stone made without hands smashes the image to pieces see Daniel 2. This image is Babylon named according to its head and that which the reformers also names as the papacy, antichrist which makes way for the false Christ.

Why would the Bible be worried about Babylon and Egypt here in Daniel 11? Babylon was prophesied to no longer be inhabited but by doleful creatures and Egypt to be a weak nation. Jeremiah 50:39 and Isaiah 13:19-20 prophesied Babylon would never again be inhabited and so the boasts and work of Saddam Hussein to stamp his names on the bricks of Babylon and to be inhabited again were all in vain.

‘Saddam’s Babylonian palace is a monstrous hill-top fortress surrounded by miniature palm trees and rose gardens. The four-storey palace extends across an area as large as five football fields. Villagers told news media that a thousand people were evacuated to make way for this emblem of Saddam Hussein’s power.’ As predicted his dreams came to nought. American troops entered the new place of Saddam in April 2003 and it was found to be unused and unoccupied. Ps 127:1 Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh [but] in vain.

Says the angel to Daniel the Prophet in Chapter 11 ‘I will show you the truth..to establish the vision.’ This emphasizes, the truth that appears in the two preceding chapters concerning the little horn and God’s people.

Daniel 11:2 There shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than them all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. The angel gives us the name of the kingdom to rise Grecia.

Xerxes was the last king (a very wealthy king) of Medo-Persia to be defeated by Greece and 9 minor rulers would follow before Alexander the Great would make it a world empire.

Daniel 11:3,4 (included word here for meaning of the text) And a mighty king Alexander Great shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven amongst Alexander’s generals; and not to his children, nor according to his dominion which he ruled but shall become the Roman empire: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others to rule. Now the angel details how this happened.

To the right is pictured the division of the Greek empire to Alexander's 4 generals and not to his posterity or given to his children as predicted -> 'The history of Rome is that of a city that originally had only a few miles of territory, and gradually extended its dominions first over Italy and then over the civilised world.' To the North is Babylon and what overtakes that Kingdom physically and spiritually is Rome. To the south what overtakes that kingdom of Egypt is Pagan Rome but then apostate Christianity and then Mohammedanism.

The following is the making of the kingdom of Rome. Conflict between Syria and Egypt and their powers and territory lead to Rome empire over taking all. 'The Roman general Pompey defeats the Seleucid Antiochus XIII and incorporates Syria as a province of the Roman empire.' The division of the north consolidates into Roman empire. Pompey also invades Jerusalem.

Directly between King of the North and the King of the South is Palestine -God's children. The North would be overtaken by Rome after the battles between Seleucus and Ptolemy. Cleopatra would make her alliance with Rome and the powers of the Greek kingdom of the North would become that of Rome and also the power of Egypt would become that of Rome.

A general history from Greek division to Roman empire is contained in the following verses:

Daniel 11:5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and [one] of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion [shall be] a great dominion. 11:6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in [these] times. 11:7 But out of a branch of her root shall [one] stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: 11:8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, [and] with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue [more] years than the king of the north. 11:9 So the king of the south shall come into [his] kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

Egypt at this point in history (that is after the division of Grecian empire) was strong and annexed many places including Cyprus, Phoenicia, Caria, Cyrene and many islands and cities to itself and Macedonia and Thrace were annexed to Syria and war ensued. An agreement was made between Egypt and Syria by the marriage of Ptolemy Philadelphus' daughter the second king of Egypt to Theos the third king of Syria. An agreement was made by marriage that did not last. War broke out to avenge the death of his sister Bernice by her brother Ptolemy Euergetes. This is what happened; the wife of Antiochus of Syria and his children were taken from the king's court because of the arranged marriage but later his former wife and children were brought back to the king's court and Antiochus was poisoned by his former wife Laodice and she also arranged for the murder of Bernice and her children.

11:10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and [one] shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, [even] to his fortress. 11:11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, [even] with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. 11:12 [And] when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down [many] ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened [by it]. 11:13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. 11:14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

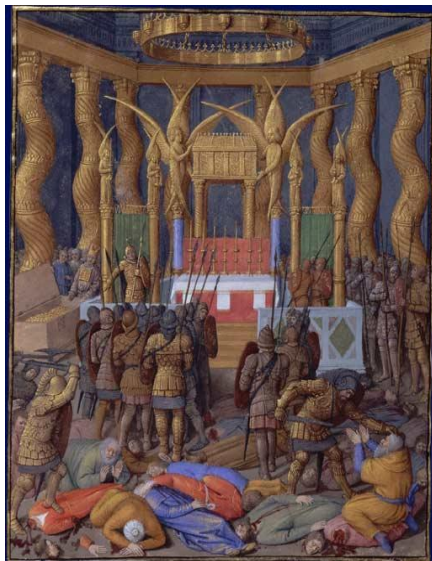

The setting up of the daily desolation and his temple.

The robbers of thy people clearly refer to Rome to establish the vision but they shall fall. Paganism was established in each universal kingdom and God intervened in the first two. He called Nebuchadnezzar his servant- the beast was given the heart of man (see Daniel 7:4) and Cyrus was called in the book of Isaiah (44:28,45:1) before his birth. Clearly the threat to the people of God was Paganism and many instances could be cited, that is why these beasts are thus presented as beasts. These are kingdoms that threatened God's work and people. Daniel 10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. The most fearful of the beasts, dreadful and terrible is the fourth with the 10 horns and is about to be established by its kings or emperors who proclaim themselves as gods, after taking over the Roman senate.

11:15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither [shall there be any] strength to withstand.

11:16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

The invasion is from the North and as stated prior in Daniel 8:9 – “toward the pleasant or glorious land” and Rome is the power which none shall stand before him. ‘Pompey enters the Jerusalem Temple. Painting by Jean Fouquet, after an event recorded by Flavius Josephus in The Antiquities of the Jews.’

11:17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand [on his side], neither be for him.

To enter the strength of his whole kingdom he must deal with Egypt and God’s children will also be involved with this invasion.

The story of Cleopatra culminates in the Roman empire. From senate to dictator empire and from Egyptian independence to incorporation. Time map of Roman empire 30 BC with the note ‘Egyptian independence has come to an end with the death of its famous queen, Cleopatra.’

Note this quote: ‘By this time, internal tensions led to a series of civil wars, climaxing with the assassination of Julius Caesar, which ended with the establishment of the Roman Empire. The exact date of the transition to the Roman Empire can be a matter of interpretation. Historians have variously proposed Julius Caesar’s crossing of the Rubicon

River in 49 BC, Caesar's appointment as dictator for life in 44 BC, and the defeat of Mark Antony and Cleopatra at the Battle of Actium in 31 BC.'

"Cleopatra originally ruled jointly with her father, Ptolemy XII Auletes, and later with her brothers, Ptolemy XIII and Ptolemy XIV, whom she married as per Egyptian custom, but eventually she became sole ruler. As pharaoh, she consummated a liaison with Julius Caesar that solidified her grip on the throne. She later elevated her son with Caesar, Caesarion, to co-ruler in name....Eager to take advantage of Julius Caesar's anger toward Ptolemy, Cleopatra had herself smuggled secretly into the palace to meet with Caesar. Plutarch in his "Life of Julius Caesar" gives a vivid description of how she entered past Ptolemy's guards rolled up in a carpet that Apollodorus the Sicilian was carrying.^[14] She became Caesar's mistress, and nine months after their first meeting, in 47 BC, Cleopatra gave birth to their son, Ptolemy Caesar, nicknamed Caesarion, which means "little Caesar".

11:18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause [it] to turn upon him. 11:19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

"After this conquest, Caesar defeated the last remaining fragments of Pompey's party, Cato and Scipio in Africa and Labienus and Varus in Spain. Returning to Rome, the "fort of his own land," he was made perpetual dictator;"

Rome becomes a hegemony – it now joins the group of universal desolating world empires. The Forum in Rome is the seat of power. The political hub of the pagan Roman empire ->

1st emperor of the Roman Empire. Julius Caesar was a great warrior and it was through the general's victories that one came to political power in Rome. The story of the empire of Rome hinges on Julius Caesar who was made dictator for life, emperor and it was this move that cost him his life by those in favour of the republic. ('and not be found') The reproach on Israel by Pompey and his party would cease by Julius Caesar victories over him. Rome became an empire by this first king as predicted. Picture to the left.

'Julius Caesar was the first historical Roman to be officially deified. He was posthumously granted the title Divus Iulius or Divus Julius (the divine Julius or the deified Julius) by decree of the Roman Senate on 1 January 42 BC.' Around 60 or more men participated in his assassination, he was stabbed 23 times. He was the pontiff maximus that would establish itself in 'Christianity.' The Pope later taking to himself that very title of the emperors of old, which is stamped everywhere on the buildings, even to the roof tops in the Vatican.

11:20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes [in] the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

Emperor 2 Caesar Augustus was called the son of god (he assumed deity for himself before the people of Rome). Luke 2:1 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. This event marks the birth of Christ in which Mary and Joseph had to journey to Bethlehem and Christ found lying in a manger.

11:21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person (Tiberius), to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

11:22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

Emperor 3 Tiberius was not Augustus' son but connected through his second marriage. Tiberius rose to the throne was with suspicion as history portrays yet at the time, he came to power peaceably with his acceptance by the senate. He was known as a broodish fellow who was busy dispatching conspirators. Tyranny and debauchery were characteristic of his reign. He was not a loved emperor but had obtained the kingdom by the persistence of his mother Livia and by the death of Agrippa. Augustus had said to Livia 'your son is too vile to wear the purple of Rome.

Jesus was baptized or anointed by the Father and the Holy Spirit ascended upon Him and Christ also died under the reign of Tiberius fulfilling the covenant made in Eden See Luke 3:1

Jerusalem's temple was destroyed as with a flood shall they be overthrown from before him v22. It was the death of Christ and the impact on the disciples with the world wide commission that would see the Roman empire fall.

Jesus foretold plainly the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. Matthew 24:1 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to [him] for to show him the buildings of the temple. 24:2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

He (Jesus) saw Jerusalem encompassed with armies, the besieged inhabitants driven to starvation and death, mothers feeding upon the dead bodies of their own children, and both parents and children snatching the last morsel of food from one another, natural affection being destroyed by the gnawing pangs of hunger. He saw that the stubbornness of the Jews, as evinced in their rejection of His salvation, would also lead them to refuse submission to the invading armies. He beheld Calvary, on which He was to be lifted up, set with crosses as thickly as forest trees. He saw the wretched inhabitants suffering torture on the rack and by crucifixion, the beautiful palaces destroyed, the temple in ruins, and of its massive walls not one stone left upon another, while the city was plowed like a field. Well might the Saviour weep in agony in view of that fearful scene. {DA 577.2}

The setting up of the abomination of desolation as church & state with the taking away of the 'daily.'

Daniel 11:23-31 is between the time of the Messiah and the taking away of the daily desolation and the setting up of the abomination of desolation as a church & state power. The abomination of desolation in its second phase makes a direct attack on the law of God the standard of righteousness by which man is saved!

'The future history must deal with church and state, not with kingdoms such as Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. History has changed.'

The prophet Daniel is referred to by Jesus. Mark 13:14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains: The words of Jesus clarifies who the Abomination of desolation is. We have the lion, the bear, the leopard and abomination of desolation (Rev 13) and in Revelation 12 this same figure is the dragon. Rome is that abominating desolating power but is in two phases. Roman Empire and Church of Rome. When the daily was taken away that phase of the abomination of desolation was taken away as the desolating power of Pagan Rome to become church and state as a persecuting power. The legs of the image in Daniel 2 represent the two phases of Rome. Remember what was said of Rome in Daniel 7:7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it [was] diverse from all the beasts that [were] before it; and it had ten horns. Keep that image in mind so it becomes simple to understand. Later in Revelation we find a woman riding this scarlet coloured beast- church & state- a woman representing the church but this woman is a prostitute see Revelation 17. Or perhaps there is greater meaning there as the dragon of Revelation 12 is now seen carrying the harlot woman.

The following verse is like a title or summary of that which is about to be explained

Daniel 11:23 And after the league [made] with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. (The little horn power is forming as Paul had said it was already at work in his day. An example of this is the council of Nicaea which was a small gathering of bishops 280-320 in number. Christianity – church and state was to shape the Papacy to come.)

11:24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; (by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes, the peace that this Christian power presents is ecumenical peace treaties but the result is destruction. Exactly the way the papacy is coming to power today. We see a repeat of its past ascension to power; how it grew to be a despot power was not by displaying what it grew to become) and he shall do [that] which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; (establish a Christian political system such as the world has never seen before) he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: [yea], and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

<- To the left St Lateran's church and palace; the palace thought to have been given to the church by Constantine.

(properties, power and wealth, military might were given to the church such 1. St John Lateran palace, 2. St Paul's outside the wall and this continued through to the time of Justinian at which time Justinian established the Papacy by legislative power to persecute heretics and adding wealth and properties as Constantine had also done.)

11:25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. (The Arian powers are defeated through the councils and alliance of the church and emperors)

11:26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

11:27 And both these kings' hearts [shall be] to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end [shall be] at the time appointed.

11:28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart [shall be] against the holy covenant; and he shall do [exploits], and return to his own land.

3 horns plucked up or three kingdoms.

Although these are physical battle to retain the Roman empire. Rome is fighting Arian kingdoms while Rome places its interests with the trinitarian bishop of Rome.

451 "Battle of the Catalaunian Plains was one of the last major military operations of the Western Roman Empire though Visigothic soldiers formed the core of the allied Roman army. The battle was a strategic victory for the Romans, stopping the Huns' attempt to conquer Roman Gaul. The numbers of the dead were vast.

‘Attila returned in 452 to claim his marriage to Honoria a new, invading and ravaging Italy along the way. His army sacked numerous cities and razed Aquileia so completely that it was afterwards hard to recognize its original site.’ I wondered how Venice started and why other cities had not followed but as you can see it was a strategic move to the small islands in the Venetian Lagoon to protect themselves from the invading Huns.

‘Legend has it he had his soldiers carry dirt in their helmets to build a hill north of Aquileia from which he could watch the destruction of the city, thus founding the town of Udine, where a castle now stands on the legendary hill. Aëtius, who lacked the strength to offer battle, managed to harass and slow Attila’s advance with only a shadow force. Attila finally halted at the River Po.

Emperor Valentinian III sent three envoys, the high civilian officers Gennadius Avienus and Trigetius, as well as the Bishop of Rome Leo I, who met Attila at Mincio in the vicinity of Mantua, and obtained from him the promise that he would withdraw from Italy and negotiate peace with the Emperor.^[34]

The account is given of a meeting between Pope Leo 1 and Attila in which Leo is given credit by those favourable to the Catholic faith in persuading Attila not to destroy Rome. Babcock concludes that the account of natural death, given by Priscus, was an ecclesiastical “cover story” and that Emperor Marcian (who ruled the Eastern Roman Empire from 450 to 457) was the political force behind Attila’s death.’

Ships of Chittim

One of the horns that was plucked up

Daniel 11:29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter. Rome’s position is at a turning point into something totally different- the Roman church.

11:30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

‘Kittim, or Chittim, the third of the sons of Javan, inhabited the islands of the Grecian archipelago, Cyprus, and even others of the Mediterranean Sea, and Corea at the southeast corner of Asia Minor. Isa. 23:1, 12 shows that Chittim was a resting-place for the ships of Tarshish; Jer. 2:10 and Eze. 27:6 speak of “the isles of Chittim;” and Dan. 11:30 speaks of “the ships of Chittim;” all showing that Chittim was in the isles of the Mediterranean Sea.’

Vandal activity in the Mediterranean was so substantial that the sea's name in Old English was Wendelsæ (i. e. Sea of the Vandals). The Vandals were Germanic Vandal people under Genseric, and ruled in North Africa and the Mediterranean from 435 AD to 534 AD. Rome would use the Vandals for their own purposes in war but when Rome failed to pay the Vandals. The vandals captured a huge fleet of unmanned Rome's ships in Carthage.

Against incredible odds the Vandal Arian king, Genseric (who believed he was ordained of God to defeat Rome) defeats the naval armies of Rome by fire ships at the Battle of Cape Bon 468 AD.

Battle of Cape Bon (468 AD): The East Roman empire puts all its might into rebuilding the shattered West Roman Empire by trying to recapture the wealthy North African provinces but is defeated by the Vandal king Geiseric. This is a very important and decisive battle. Genseric is initially defeated and Geiseric asks Basiliscus to allow him five days to draw up conditions for peace. During the negotiations, Geiseric gathered his ships and suddenly attacked the Roman fleet with fire ships. The vandals were outnumbered by men and number of ships, 110,000, men 1,113 ships on the side of Rome with the loss of 70,000 men and 700 ships and the Vandals win and hold the wealthy areas of North Africa secure. Victory at the battle of Cape Bon lead to further victories with the sacking of Rome. Here you see the candlesticks taken by Tiberius in the hands of the vandals. By all accounts the vandals were more civilized than those they defeated in Rome.

He shall have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant

There were two emperors who particularly had intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

That covenant is enjoined with the Sabbath commandment—>

Isaiah 56:2 Blessed [is] the man [that] doeth this, and the son of man [that] layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

56:6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

The emperor Justinian in considering war against the vandal empire but has doubts about the conquest of Africa. It was the first of Justinian I's wars of reconquest of the lost Western Roman Empire. We read "If Africa should be reduced, it cannot be preserved without the additional conquest of Sicily and Italy. Success will impose the obligations of new labours'; a single misfortune will attract the Barbarians into the heart of your exhausted empire." Justinian felt the weight of this salutary advice; he was confounded by the unwonted freedom of an obsequious servant; and the design of the war would perhaps have been relinquished, if his courage had not been revived by a voice which silenced the doubts of profane reason. "I have seen a vision," cried an artful or fanatic bishop of the East. "It is the will of Heaven, O emperor! that you should not abandon your holy enterprise for the deliverance of the African church. The God of battles will march before your standard, and disperse your enemies, who are the enemies of his Son."

Our predecessors did not deserve this favor of God, as they were not only not permitted to liberate Africa, but even saw Rome itself captured by the Vandals, and all the Imperial insignia taken from thence to Africa. Now, however, God, in his mercy, has not only delivered Africa and all her provinces into Our hands, but the Imperial insignia as well, which, having been removed at the capture of Rome, He has restored to us. —Codex Iustinianus, I.XXVII ."

Just as a sign from heaven Constantine had defeated an army against all odds so Justinian hears the call to battle and to win.

France the Papal backbone-the taking away of 'the daily'

And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away 508 AD the daily [sacrifice], and they shall place the 538 AD abomination that maketh desolate.

'Paganism as paganism was laid low, and the "mystery of iniquity" was enthroned.'

"The daily shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up: We arrived at a period, and an event, when paganism in the empire received its deathblow, by the conversion of those pagan kings. Some vestiges of paganism did, of course, exist in the empire after this, but I know of no account of pagan sacrifices being offered, after that, in the city of Rome, "the place of his (paganism) sanctuary."

Nor did it ever recover much strength or infl [Grab your reader's attention with a great quote from the document or use this space to emphasize a key point. To place this text box anywhere on the page, just drag it.]

uence anywhere in the bounds of the western Roman empire. Thus, in A.D. 508, paganism, or the daily abomination of paganism ceased in the Roman empire. And it was taken away too, by those pagan kings who conquered Rome. But the time had not yet fully come for the "man of sin" to be revealed. Those kings, although they had embraced Christianity, and gave their support to the pompous ceremonies of the Roman religion, yet they were most of them Arians in sentiment, and bitter opposers to the orthodox faith. Thoughts by Josiah Litch In relation to the "daily" (Daniel 8:12) the word "sacrifice" was supplied by man's wisdom. The Forum in Rome is a rubble that represents the old pagan structures or the 'Daily' which was replaced by an apostate Christian church as we see the church in the back ground. This new structure that overtook the old was to meet the challenge of the church which Christ had place his name and blessing on and so it was to take that name for itself and in the name of Christ became a persecuting power that changed the commandments of God.

"Clovis —observing the power and influence of the Papacy, and anxious to avail himself of papal support, he professed conversion in 496, and his entire following united with him in adherence to Catholicism, three thousand of whom were baptized along with himself soon after his conversion. Newman, A Manual of Church History, vol. 1, p. 404. Truth Triumphant Clovis being a pagan married a catholic Clotilda whose influence was toward her faith. Like many families there is a division of belief. "Clotilda's uncle (the new king of Burgundy) was an Aryan Christian; one of Clovis' sisters was an Arian Christian and married to the Arian king Theodoric; a second sister was also Arian; and a third was pagan. Clovis, the story goes, consulted those closest to him: his warriors. Then, on Christmas day – more than two years after his purported victory near Bonn – Clovis and several of his warriors were baptized Catholics." The time of his confession of faith comes as story strikingly familiar to that of Constantine when victory in the battlefield is waning and a pledge to God is given if he should come out victorious and he does. Like Constantine his new faith has a binding resolve between him and his soldiers. Clovis not only put down the arian powers, the Bible says three stood in the way but pagan kings also, establishing the Papacy so the vision is true.

The nature of a war lord not a converted man-‘Sigobert the lame who had fought alongside Clovis in battle was murdered at the suggestions of Clovis, so Sigobert's son Chlodoric, sent assassins as he took a journeyed from his kingdom to a nearby forest. Chlodoric then told Clovis of the murder and offered him the finest treasures of his newly inherited kingdom as a symbol of their new alliance. Clovis sent messengers to assess the treasure, who then asked Chlodoric to plunge his hand as deeply into his gold coins as possible. With his arm submerged, the envoys of Clovis then killed the new king in betrayal. Clovis then stood before the people of Chlodoric and told them that the son had sent assassins to murder his father, but that Chlodoric had subsequently met his own end as well. Clovis then offered his protection to the former subjects of Sigobert and Chlodoric, and thus became their king.' So in 509 AD a year after his baptism into the 'Christian faith' the heart of the man who is the mercenary for Rome intentions and wickedness are exposed. The army of the Visigoths was routed by the Franks in the encounter of 507. It was necessary for Clovis to destroy the sources of further supply. He struck while the iron was hot, and in 508 pursued the Visigoths to their southern strongholds and overcame them. Clovis was named consul by the emperor" Truth Triumphant 11:32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do [exploits]. 11:33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, [many] days.

11:34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

11:35 And [some] of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make [them] white, [even] to the time of the end: because [it is] yet for a time appointed.

As part of the holy covenant we accepted God's badge of loyalty and service at the time of our baptism. The papacy corrupt by flatteries or by politics those that keep not the covenant. The people of God who do exploits are men such as Lucius and those who fled into the wilderness preserving the word of God.

Revelation 12 tell us the true church fled into the wilderness yet was active, And they that had understanding of the Word of God and instructed many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, [many] days- the 1260 years of Papal persecution. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

Pagan church & state system in Rome

Papal churches lie on the foundation of pagan temples

The forum in Rome captures the meaning of the 'daily' in Daniel. 'The daily was taken away.'

In order for a Christian church to control the state, the pagan churches had to be dethroned. The taking away of the 'daily' is exactly that. Paganism is replaced by the Papal system.

The meaning of 'daily' is made difficult as the word sacrifice was added to the text & distracts the meaning.

Some historical teachings of 'the daily' referred to the taking away of paganism. To say paganism = 'the daily' is not adequate. The church moved its structures onto pagan grounds and replaced pagan temples with Christian churches yes, to then counterfeit the daily work or the continual work of the High Priest in the heavenly sanctuary.

'THE DAILY' REFERRED TO GOD'S WORK IN CONNECTION WITH MEN & WOMAN FOR THEIR SALVATION TO RESTORE HUMANITY TO THE IMAGE OF GOD BY THE SPIRIT & THE WORD.

THE LAMP, THE BREAD OF LIFE, THE CLOUD OR SPIRIT OF GOD, THE PRAYERS WITH THE INCENSE WERE TO BE CONTINUAL AS INSTRUCTED FOR THE EARTHLY SANCTUARY REPRESENTING CHRIST'S PRIESTLY WORK IN THE HEAVENLY. AS CHRIST SENT AID TO MANKIND FOR THEIR INSTRUCTION, PROTECTION & SANCTIFICATION ALL WERE REFLECTED BY THE PRECIOUS GOLD OF THE SANCTUARY REPRESENTING THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF CHRIST WHICH WAS TO BE OURS.

'THE DAILY'

DANIEL 8:12 AND AN HOST WAS GIVEN HIM AGAINST THE DAILY SACRIFICE BY REASON OF TRANSGRESSION, AND IT CAST DOWN THE TRUTH TO THE GROUND; AND IT PRACTISED, AND PROSPERED.

THE LAMP WAS HELD BY AN EARTH PRIEST, THE BREAD OF LIFE WAS PLACED IN THE MASS TO REPRESENT THE CHANGE OF CHRIST'S BODY TO TRANSUBSTANTIATE INTO HIS REAL FLESH AND BE EATEN. PRAYERS WERE DIRECTED TO THE DEAD MYSTICAL MARY, AND INCENSE IS HELD BY AN EARTHLY PRIEST. THE TRUTH WAS SO OBLITERATED DURING THE DARK AGES AND DISTORTED BY EVERY MEANS POSSIBLE TO BLOCK BY SATAN THE INTERCESSORY WORK OF CHRIST BY THREAT, VIOLENCE & DEATH

Daniel 11:35-36 words added to text for meaning: The papacy again at this very time as in days gone by is strengthened its hold by flatteries, bridge building and compromise. And [some] of them of understanding shall fall to their death, to try them and throw them in prison, but persecution shall purge, and make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed- 1798. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

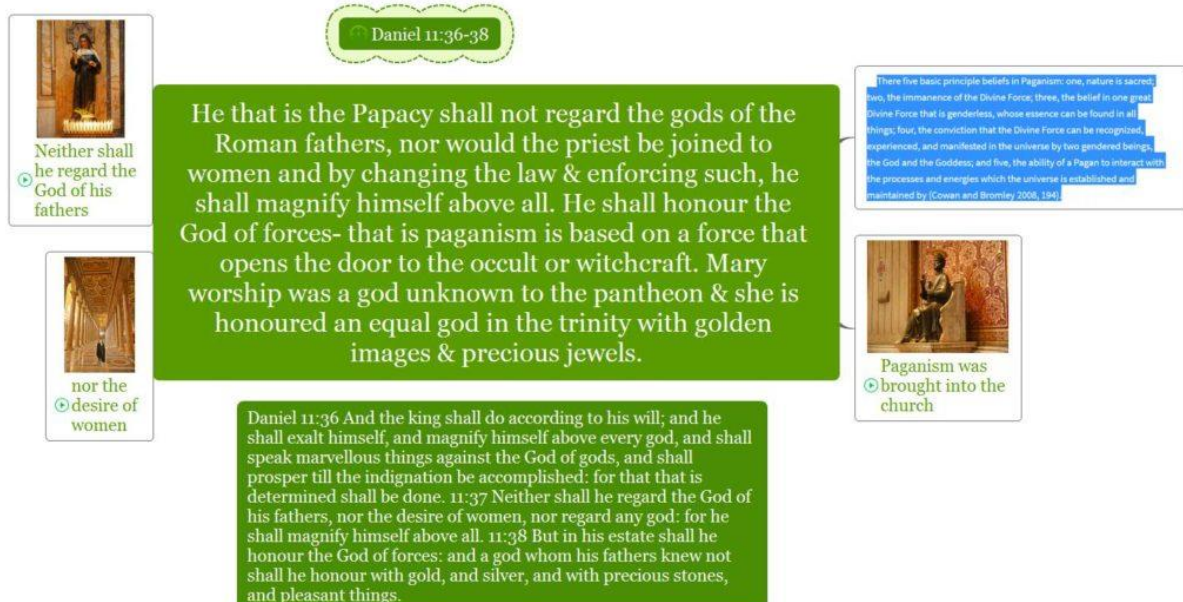

The accomplishment of the indignation is the 1260 days of papal rule in which the papacy prospered and persecuted God's people. The man of sin shall speak great words against the Most High. Daniel 11:37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. Does the Papacy regard the god of his Roman fathers? Or the result was the birth of a new religion with Mary and a Jesus and Father that is really unknown to Pagan Rome.

Daniel 11:38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces or God's protestors- the monks and priests: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

The papists have honored gods, such as their heathen ancestors never knew; such as the Virgin Mary and the whole calendar of saints. He has honored those images with ornaments of gold and silver, precious stones and pleasant things. {1838 JoL, PSC 95.3} Josiah Litch,

Even the ceilings are lined with gold, the floors of marble and 'every pleasant thing'.

Daniel 11:38-39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge [and] increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god— Mary the Queen of heaven, whom he shall acknowledge [and] increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

The god of the Romans were no longer regarded and their altars were replaced by Christians ones so to speak but they were not according to the words of Christ and the priesthood He officiates only and they took to themselves their own perverted Levitical priesthood. 1 Timothy 2:5 For [there is] one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; thus they take to themselves in the confession and hearing of sins the role of God which is a blasphemous act. The god of forces fits well the exaltation of the mortal mother of Jesus who is dead and buried until the time the second coming and her resurrection:

“The Second Vatican Council in 1964 referred to Mary as Queen of the Universe. Section 59 of Lumen Gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church from Vatican II, stated: “Finally, the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all guilt of original sin, on the completion of her earthly sojourn, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen of the universe,” and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge [and] increase with glory. Mary of whom little is spoken or written has been increased with glory just look at her exaltation around the world and by the mouth of the popes. If they are invoking Mary who is not a god at all on whom are they in fact calling and exalting? In his fortress the Pope honour the queen of heaven with gold and silvers and many precious things.

More notes on Daniel 11:23-31

Here you will find in this section relevant issues to this time in history-

- Changing of law
- Trinity debate in the early church
- Egypt in three phases
- 10 toes

With the emergence of the new church of Rome came an attack within the church and a counterfeit to true Christianity but assuming a Christian name.

The plucking up of the three horns establishes the little horn or today known as the smallest of the nations- the Vatican. Constantine re-established Rome under the ever growing and increasingly popular religion of Christianity. This was a political/religious and military adultery of pure Christianity. Paganism entered the church by Constantine's introductions. Also a religious political war came from Alexandria over the godhead, Arian vs the trinity. Egypt was the centre of a corrupt theology of Greek philosophy intertwined in from which also corrupt versions of the Bible would arise. And of course, the popular festival day of paganism, Sunday is adopted into the church but it is not the day ordained nor the day recognizing Christ as sovereign creator. The fourth commandment was removed and the 1st day of the week enforced as a Christian worship day.

Constantine indeed performed that which neither his father nor his father's fathers had performed. (v24) He left to his heirs "a new capital, a new policy, and a new religion. The league with a small people (little horn) or the little horn or little power or the smallest state on earth.

The rise to power by Constantine is a very interesting one. The Roman empire was divided and he was not brought up in the house of his father but his first victories were on the battlefield with his father's final years and he was first declared emperor in Britain when his father died. The victory arch of Constantine from Battle of the Milvian Bridge in 312 does not even on closest examination display signs of the cross but rather pagan symbols.

Top left The Arch of Constantine celebrating his battle victory and a turning point for Christianity.

Left the battle location at the Milvian bridge where Constantine defeated Maxentius October 28, 312. Right The defeat of Maxentius where he was drowned was a picture in the Vatican Museum.

A new day, a new religion whose foundation was on a pagan festival day-
First Sunday Law enacted by Emperor
Constantine –
March, 321 A.D.

On the venerable Day of the Sun let the magistrates and people residing in cities rest, and let all workshops be closed. In the country, however, persons engaged in agriculture may freely and lawfully continue their pursuits; because it often happens that another day is not so suitable for grain-sowing or for vine-planting; lest by neglecting the proper moment for such operations the bounty of heaven should be lost. (Given the 7th day of March, Crispus and Constantine being consuls each of them for the second time [A.D. 321].) Source: Codex Justinianus, lib. 3, tit. 12, 3; trans. in Philip Schaff, History of the Christian Church, Vol. 3 (5th ed.; New York: Scribner, 1902), p. 380, note 1.

No statement asserting the change of the Sabbath can be produced from the writings of the fathers of the first three hundred yearsOne of three things is indispensable to those who would prove the change of the Sabbath. 1. One plain statement that God has changed the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week. 2. Or a single statement that God has blessed, hallowed and sanctified the first day of the week. 3. Or a single commandment to keep the first day holy as a Sabbath unto the Lord. J N Andrews

The Jesuits today plainly say for whom the inquisition was founded and behind judaizing you can see a determined assault against Sabbath keepers because it is at odds with their authority and the law of God: “The inquisition was founded to prosecute judaizing conversos, namely individuals of Jewish ancestry who were baptized as Christians but continued to practice aspects of Mosaic law such as dietary rules and rituals associated with the Sabbath. To Christian religious authorities, conversos who followed Jewish ceremonies were heretics because they appeared to be practicing two religions simultaneously and hence betraying their baptismal vows. The Inquisition was supposed to find these judaizing heretics and, if possible, enclose them again in the Christian community after eliciting from them an expression of repentance. If the suspected heretic refuse to confess her error and sufficient eyewitness testimony against her, she would be relaxed to the secular arm, a phrase meant released to the secular authorities and burn at the stake. The Cambridge Companion to The Jesuits Edited by Thomas Worcester p23,24. Right head Jesuit church in Rome with Mary damming Huss and Luther to hell.

The tomb of Constantine was the 13th tomb erected for himself amongst the 12 disciples at Constantinople, some say as a god, which was what emperors do. Later to be followed by the venerated Popes of St Peters and elsewhere. Below left-hand side thought to be the tomb of Constantine in Istanbul. If it were found it the west it would attract millions of visitors but in this Muslim county it is not even marked to indicate its relevance.

Trinity debate

The theology of Arianism that Christ was a created son of God and the Christ was a co-equal with the Father caused a division that split the fast growing Christianity. Socrates of Constantinople believed that Arius was influenced in his thinking by the teachings of Lucian of Antioch, a celebrated Christian teacher and martyr. In a letter to Patriarch Alexander of Constantinople Arius' bishop, Alexander of Alexandria, wrote that Arius derived his theology from Lucian.

To some it may well pose a puzzle that Christians cannot understand the plain teaching of the Old and New Testament concerning who the Son was in relation to the Father- this is the nature of man embroiled in controversy and bad behaviour and truth versus error. Because humans have a small man mentality, man cannot figure how Christ is from eternity and yet be God and also be the Son. Simply put we cannot understand eternity and God except we take Him at His word in matters concerning Himself that He has revealed. But so, all the theology and doctorates that surround that which Christ has plainly illustrated and stated and yet they still get it wrong!

This is an interesting overview on the Trinity

‘The first council of Nicaea was held in the Bithynian city of Nicaea and convened by the Roman Emperor Constantine I in AD 325.‘The council of Nicaea dealt primarily with the issue of the deity of Christ. Over a century earlier the use of the term “Trinity” (Τριάς in Greek; trinitas in Latin) could be found in the writings of Origen (185–254) and Tertullian (160–220), and a general notion of a “divine three”, in some sense, was expressed in the second century writings of Polycarp, Ignatius, and Justin Martyr. In Nicaea, questions regarding the Holy Spirit were left largely unaddressed until after the relationship between the Father and the Son was settled around the year 362.^[69] So the doctrine in a more full-fledged form was not formulated until the Council of Constantinople in 360 AD.’

‘It should be observed, however, that the earliest mention of Sunday as the Lord’s day, is in the writings of Tertullian.’ ‘The first instance of a sacred title being applied to this festival, and the earliest trace of abstinence from labor on that day, are found in the writings of Tertullian at the close of the second century.’ J N Andrews.

The trinity and Sunday and Easter had an important role in forming the apostate church. I do not dispute there are three that bear witness but we are stating the facts of the controversy. It had, however such profound effect upon other doctrines relating to the plan of salvation and upon outward acts of worship that a gulf was created between the Papacy and the institutions of the real church.

Egypt

Egypt had many different influences on the setting up of the Roman empire and changes to Christian teachings. The King of the South Egypt has three phases Phase 1. The pagan phase. As an empire of pagan deities and its war with Rome resulted in the final establishment of the Roman empire- this we have already noted in the previous verses.

Phase 2 the Christian phase. The centre of Christian and Greek philosophy was in Alexandria which resulted in war between Arian and the trinitarian teachings. ‘Lucius of Alexandria was an Arian who was twice installed as Patriarch of Alexandria, first in 363, during the reign of Athanasius, and the second between 373 and 380, competing with Peter II of Alexandria.'

Arian teachings were first attributed to Arius, a Christian presbyter in Alexandria, Egypt.

It was Arian kings that invaded the Roman empire following Arian beliefs while the Papacy endorsed trinitarian beliefs. It was the removal of Arianism that established the Little horn or the abomination of desolation as a church & state power and the taking away of paganism, that had continued to war against the church since before the flood.

The Franks or French king Clovis became a son of the Roman Church and was instrumental in removing the Arian kings. Three horns were plucked up. The French would see the repercussions of this choice year later in the bloodshed that led to their revolt against the church of Rome that is the French revolution.

Phase 3 – Egypt became a Muslim power- some spend a lot of time fitting the prophecy here to the Muslim period but is this consistent with the timeline given and the events pinpointed in prophecy concerning the daily?

After the death of Christ that is A.D. Egypt polluted the teachings of Christianity. Rome and the school of Alexandria were bastions of Sunday worship, replacing the commandments of God which He had said to remember.

That which Clement of Alexandria and others began to introduce into the church as the eighth day by 350 AD comes in direct conflict with the commandments of God. Council of Laodicea, about A.D. 350, passed a decree, saying, "It is not proper for Christians to Judaize, and to cease from labor on the Sabbath, but they ought to work on that day, and put especial honor upon the Lord's day, as Christians. If any be found Judaizing, let him be anathematized." though this had little effect on the day of worship in general except in Rome and Egypt but the quote already holds the sentiments of things that are about to transpire during Papal rule. {1858 JNA, RCSK 25.4} This account of the manner of celebrating the Sabbath in the fifth century, is corroborated by Sozomen, in his Ecclesiastical History, b. 7, c. 9. He says, "At Constantinople, and almost among all, the Christians assembled upon the Sabbath, and also upon the first day of the week, except at Rome and Alexandria; the ecclesiastical assemblies at Rome were not upon the Sabbath, as in almost all other churches of the rest of the world; and in many cities and villages in Egypt, they used to commune in the evening of the Sabbath, on which day there were public assemblies." {1858 JNA, RCSK 26.2}

To enforce the law of the Popes came the war lord Clovis and blessing of the emperor Constantine and then Justinian and the authority of the emperor was given to the Pope to prosecute heretics- judaizers. The Popes became so strong that they would seat and unthroned emperors and place themselves equal with god by the corruption of sacred truths.

There was a dispute between Arian and trinitarian theology, that is over the Godhead and the nature of Christ. 'Socrates of Constantinople believed that Arius was influenced in his thinking by the teachings of Lucian of Antioch, a celebrated Christian teacher martyr.' Lucian of Antioch preserved the scriptures in his day from the contamination of Greek philosophy which being mixed with God's word in Alexandria and Erasmus used the works of Lucian to establish a pure Bible translation instrumental for at the birth of the reformation.

Lucian of Antioch preserved the writings of scripture handed down from the apostles from the contamination of the school of Alexander which mixed human philosophy with scripture. Lucas paid with his life as a martyr for God's cause. Erasmus translated from scripture Lucas preserved and Tyndale made from Erasmus work what is today the King James Bible, based on the majority text.

and was

To clarify what altered from the apostolic period at this time to establish an apostate church-

- State was joined by church and incorporated in law the shackles of which would not be fully unleashed until the setting up of the constitution of the United States and the imprisonment of the Pope.
- The law of God was altered and enforced, that is a different day of worship and different mediators thus preventing many to access the Word from the tree of life. Revelation 22:14 Blessed [are] they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
- Who God is and the detail of such is made a political/military vehicle and an obstacle to the true gospel

- The church became a weapon of enforcement of its teachings, and false gods representing God by cruelty and false teachings.

The ten toe or the ten horns & its relevance to us today.

Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn [were] eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

The plucking up of three horns to establish the little horn in fulfillment of the 1290 years. This occurred in 508 AD

1. Germany is the main spokesman in the united nations today formerly known as the alemanni. Brought back from Lutheranism to Catholicism through the Jesuits. (Saint Petrus Canisius)
2. French or Franks the sons of Rome that made way for little horn and fought her battles and was the centre of persecution during dark ages – for example St Bartholomew massacre.
3. Anglo-Saxons are today in league with the US and since WW II has helped been the eyes and intelligence on war that are increasingly in the interests of Rome via the US and is dragged in with some discomfort because of its Protestant heritage to the UN
4. Burgundians- Switzerland are a people that should have been culpable for war crimes as they dealt in blood money during the WWII & being the Papal guards.
5. Spain or Visigoths is undoubtedly a son of Rome from its long history as it carried the inquisition to the British shores and fought many Papal wars
6. Suevi- Portugal is not a strong partner but a willing one and has a strong Papal history
7. Italy at one time known as Lombards

And these kingdoms, with the papacy, are the elements that compose the Beast and his power, against whose work, with that of the Image of the Beast, the Third Angel's Message utters its solemn warning. {August 28, 1900 ATJ, ARSH 552.18}

The three (horns) which were plucked up, were the Heruli, who occupied Italy; the Vandals, who occupied North Africa; and the Ostrogoths, who had been instrumental in rooting up the Heruli, and who occupied Italy in their place. That “other one,” before whom these three were rooted up, is described as having “eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things;” and was, and is, the papacy. {August 28, 1900 ATJ, ARSH 552.15}

Three arian powers or Kings were plucked up that made way for the little horn-Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn [were] eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

1. Heruli
2. The Vandals
3. Ostrogoths

A 10-nation military alliance appeared in Europe in 1995, called the Western Europe Union. Though three were plucked up to make way for the Papal state at the end of time Revelation gives us further insight that the beast or antichrist shall stand on 10 toes. Revelation 17:12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

In the healing of the deadly wound after 1929 a 10-nation alliance would arise in western Europe that would rule with the beast for one hour.

“The issue of European religious union is one that has been concealed even deeper than the plans for political union, but the ratchet towards a Catholic Europe is just as real. The Pope’s recent demand that ‘God’ be featured in the emerging European constitution has been echoed by many leading Catholic politicians and bishops. While on the surface such a reference may offend only Europe’s atheist and humanist contingent, it must be observed that when the Vatican refers to God, she sees herself as God’s infallible vice-regent upon earth, the leading organ of divine expression; indeed, according to its publication Dominus Iesus (5 September 2000), as the only mediator in the salvation of God’s elect, insisting that all other Churches, including the Church of England, ‘are not Churches in the proper sense’.” Adrian Hilton 30 August 2003

- Germany
- France
- United Kingdom
- Spain (1990)

- Portugal (1990)
- Belgium
- Italy
- Greece (1995)
- Luxembourg
- Netherlands

That the Papacy is a member of the European union and the only religious group to have a say at its tables is an injustice to humanity to say the least.

And at the time of the end Daniel 11:30-45

The time of the end is after 1798 this is given from the time period of Daniel 12- 1260 and 1290 years terminate in 1798 when after this time knowledge shall be increased see Daniel 12:4

For the Vatican to assume its former power without interference as in ages past it must deal with the Muslims by diplomacy and force. The USA has the firepower and the Vatican loads its bullets so to speak. The king of the north and south are religious-political military powers that are fighting for domination. Revelation 13 also describes the outcome. Daniel 11:40-43 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many [countries] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, [even] Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [shall be] at his steps. Now what of Libya and Egypt today? U.S General Wesley Clark, words went viral 'shortly after the attacks of 9/11, the Pentagon adopted a plan to topple the governments of seven countries; Iraq, Libya, Lebanon, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, and Iran.'

Think about this carefully. Clovis is to the church of Rome what the USA is predicted to be to the Vatican when it shall make an image to the beast and give power to the Bishop of Rome. This has almost reached fulfillment but not yet.

“Why was that sketch of the Roman Republic written, and then closed up and sealed until a time two thousand years after that republic had failed as a republic, and had become imperial?—It was because at this time, “the time of the end,” there would be another republic that would go over the same course as did that republic,—would apostatize from republicanism into imperialism, and then would become the tool of an apostate church in a union in the very image of the papacy, which was made by such a union with that apostate republic.” A.T. Jones

History will be repeated with the rebuilding of the Roman Empire. Where is the fight today? In the middle east. Who is the King of the North? Well Revelation 13 and the book ‘Keys of this blood’ by Jesuit insider Malachi Martin point to the first dual hegemony in the history of nations. Who is the king of the south? The power of Muhammadanism.

The war that wages is around the temple in Jerusalem and it has always involved a Christian Muslim conflict, not Russian, not communism. The stronger power obviously more dominant is from the North.

The time for God’s people

Two time periods are used in relation to the desolating power- the King of the North times, times and half a time when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people that is the 1260 years of Papal rule and the taking away of the continuance or the daily, from a pagan to a pseudo-Christian kingdom the 1290 year period.

(using the day for a year scale)

The people of God are also denoted as those who come to the 1335 years. This time taken from the time 508 the taking away of the daily to 1843 brings us to a time when the church of God had opened the book of Daniel and with joy awaited the return of their saviour in the great advent movement.

In the year 1840, another remarkable fulfilment of prophecy excited widespread interest. Two years before, Josiah Litch, one of the leading ministers preaching the Second Advent, published an exposition of Revelation 9, predicting the fall of the Ottoman Empire, and specifying not only the year but the very day on which this would take place. According to this exposition, which was purely a matter of calculation on the prophetic periods of Scripture, the Turkish government would surrender its independence on the eleventh day of August, 1840. The prediction was widely published, and thousands watched the course of events with eager interest.

At the very time specified, Turkey, through her ambassadors, accepted the protection of the allied powers of Europe, and thus placed herself under the control of Christian nations. The event exactly fulfilled the prediction. When it became known, multitudes were convinced of the correctness of the principles of prophetic interpretation adopted by Miller and his associates, and a wonderful impetus was given to the Advent movement. Men of learning and position united with Miller, both in preaching and publishing his views, and from 1840 to 1844 the work rapidly extended. Great Controversy p334

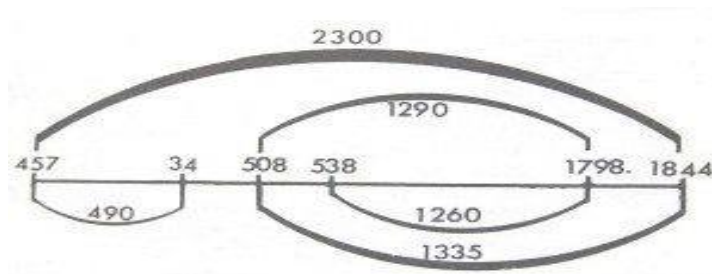

The time of the church of Philadelphia was the time of awakening for the church. The book sealed of Daniel was opened. Revelation 3:7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; 3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. 3:9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

I believe that the angel of Revelation 18 coming down with great power to the earth and giving power to the three angel's messages of Revelation 14 will not only involve an expanded view of the law of God but the fulfillment and clearer vision of these prophecies in which the latter rain will fill the people and the earth with the glory of God, with light shining from His Word to His people and to the world empowered by the Spirit of God.

The judgement scene in heaven takes place amongst the angels of God or God's ministers. Remember the figure of the earthy sanctuary representing the heavenly sanctuary and the figures of angels on the curtains representing thousands of unfallen beings who worship Him and minister to us. Not one person who does not profess to be a commandment keeper shall enter heaven's gates (God made it simple by writing in the Bible this one thing only- the law on the tables of stone found in Exodus 20). Not until the little horn's power was stayed and liberty allowed with the separation of church and state, was the sealed book of Daniel then opened and in heaven, the judgment was set and the books of record also opened with every believer's name written therein examined for candidacy. The restoration of truth given in 1844 and the teachings that surrounded a complete gospel means that now you are made clean through the word or teachings of Jesus. I appeal to you that the restoration of truth would be found in a commandment keeping worldwide movement that rose in 1844- Seventh Day Adventist church.

Daniel 8:14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. The little horn also claims to be a believer but it says in Daniel 7:11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld [even] till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. (That does not mean that every one who is not a Sabbath keeper or a Catholic will not be saved, God forbid but He is drawing His people to a knowledge of Himself and He perfectly expresses Himself here Exodus 20:8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. 20:9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: 20:10 But the seventh day [is] the sabbath of the LORD thy God: [in it] thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that [is] within thy gates: 20:11 For [in] six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them [is], and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.)

Is the date 1844 in the middle of nowhere?

The date 1844 is that which ends the 2300 days so what happened? Where is the grand finale? As I stated in the beginning God would manifest Himself to a commandment keeping people. A building or a platform had to be well established and well supported. Worship Him- the commission given to the Jews of old was rejected, Here it is-Daniel 9:24 "Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy". Therefore, the time specific to the Jews was given to the church of God- the very same message. Revelation 14:6-12 gives us the 7th day Sabbath command again to worship Him that made heaven and earth, that is Step 1 in reference to the platform see the illustration. In worshipping God it is not only a day specific, it is the whole person. 1

Thessalonians 5:23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and [I pray God] your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

When students of prophecy begin to understand the role of prophecy in relation to the judgement and the 144,000, then the time of restoration beginning in 1844, its

The true gospel is a very unique message of restoration of the thoughts and feelings to be in perfect harmony with God's thoughts and feelings through 'the daily' experience.

consequences and meaning becomes very clear. The US was a safe haven for a worldwide restoration of truth movement that proclaimed the hour of judgment and the second coming of Christ. The judgment is set and the record of those who say that are Christ's come up for review to see if there are suitable candidates for heaven. Daniel 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment [was] white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne [was like] the fiery flame, [and] his wheels [as] burning fire.

7:10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. Angels that fought for righteous in heaven and serve God look on the judgment, record scene as Christ represents those that are His- If you love me keep my commandments. They are aware of the consequences of sin and that sin should not return and will not be found in the lives of those that are candidates for heaven. Paul said in Philippians 3:12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after,Hebrews 2:1 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset [us], and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 12:2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of [our] faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. There is loyalty to God in all who find salvation and they are given the freedom and gift of eternal life.

The health laws, the Sabbath the very things for which the Jesuits and inquisition was established to annihilate such teachings and heretics; these truths of God were to be revived in a worldwide movement- this is found in the historical teachings of the Seventh Day Adventist Movement. The true gospel involves your 'whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ'. A movement grew out of 1844. A new order of things was to be established in this movement. No kingly power ye are all brethren, the ministry was to help the layman in his outreach, all were to minister, the health laws were to be established for the healing of God's people so that they could carry a healing message to the world, love for the brethren, with the putting aside of differences was to be evident as those that had the mind of Christ- this is the platform from which a people of God will be translated and those living upon the earth when He comes shall not see death. The steps leading up to the platform- 1. Worship Him that made heaven and earth, 2. Come out of Babylon and 3. Receive not the mark of Babylon, there is no neutral position. And those that are His; Revelation 14:12 Here is the patience of the saints: here [are] they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. Now the faith of Jesus is a mental state that makes one mind one with the other, that is the mind of God seen in His followers and seen in situations and seen in family and home.

The Jews professed to believe the prophets, and to acknowledged the authority of God's law but the far greater part of the nation had a merely nominal faith and rejected the Messiah. Therefore, not only is the law of God to be kept but with it the heart and affections. The heart is not wholly God's if you keep not the law of His character – particularly the one with the stamp of His name (the 7th day Sabbath) and if the law is kept do, we really by word and deed show we have the faith of Jesus.

'You decide. Was this really God's movement?' Was it significant enough that God was pointing to a last day movement which would prepare a people for translation and the heavenly sanctuary and the time of judgement in heaven and earth might shake and wake the nations to the significance of their eternal destiny? How could such be made possible without the true gospel- a faith that works by love and is manifest in a commandment keeping people that have an eye on His movements in heaven and its significance to earthly events. The truth of the heavenly sanctuary and its significance was revealed by the study of the 2300-year prophecy. One teaching seemed to lead to another- God's people were studying and coming into line. The Seventh-Day Adventist movement was established as a commandment keeping people, the teachings of the health laws and the state of the dead and the living's obligations to follow His instructions to prevent and heal diseases was central to this movement and of course this was to prepare a special people for translation at the second coming of Christ. Pillars 1-4 the Sanctuary, the Sabbath, the Second Coming and the State of the Living and the Dead according to the teachings of Christ and the Bible was to establish that platform; a gospel of Perfection which Paul spoke of in Hebrew 6:1. This was a very unique package of teachings that lead to a totally different concept of the world and after life and who and what we shall be and the standard that God requires of His people. God directed His people by the word, by visions and dreams, but most of all by a

The steps up to the immoveable platform is understanding the gospel as proclaimed in Revelation 14:6 in relation to God's law which are the keys to the kingdom. Then understanding the right gospel, we can begin to understand the warning messages given Babylon. The pillars of this platform are the Sabbath, the state of the dead, the seconding coming of Jesus and the sanctuary message. What I have just stated gives us a firm platform of truth. This platform was established after 1844 through the Seventh Day Adventist church. At the end of 1844 just following the Great Disappointment, E G White was given her first vision which was to direct the church in the health movement, prophecy, education and the gospel. God's Spirit was given with power to what would become a world-wide movement. Throughout the ages the Spirit of God has brought message for the time in which people live to give salvation, direction, comfort and hope. During the dark ages this was to the church in the wilderness.

solid platform of truth and the opening of prophecies to predict events long before they eventuated. Many to their peril teach a wrong gospel and disassociate themselves from Christ for they refuse to believe that God has the power to give them healing, a new and balanced mind and forgiveness. The gospel that a person cannot perfectly keep the commandments of God has been so ingrained into them that they have little understanding of the power of God available to them to overcome. They do not decide to take up their bed and walk, to take God at His Word and having made that decision they miss out on the life and happiness God wishes to bestow on them.

True teachings on very important subjects were realized when the book of Daniel was unsealed. God would declare the day of His judgment and how one was to stand in that day before the second coming. The day of Judgement was preached and a movement born in 1844 out of which the Seventh-day Adventist church was formed. Notice I said out of which. (Even the name Seventh-day Adventist is telling you which church is waiting the appearing of our Lord and keeps His commandments.) Revelation expands into much greater detail than what I have said here.

The end of the 1260-year rule of the little horn established by the emperors giving the church power over state, was the papacy's demise. The USA rose at this same time, as a bastion of freedom through separation of church and state and thereby flourished. Rome's tyranny had abated for a while. The USA was blessed as this was the country of birth for a commandment keeping people? Why here? Look at its constitution one that Papists hated and wanted to destroy. And the movement of God went worldwide. From this movement its creation and also its destruction seemly shall arise those who shall like Elijah of old be taken to heaven without ever experiencing death but they come through severe trial- the last great day of the battle of God almighty against whom the kings of the earth have gathered to fight.

2 gospels

1- tree of knowledge of good and evil
– leaves man in his natural state while believing and there is some good and some imperfections, a presumption that leads to no deep change of the mind.

2. tree of life

-perfect mind of Christ. Works at the root of the problem and gives peace of mind.

The two gospels were illustrated in the garden from the beginning
2 are preached in our churches the true gospel to the world of course is a translation message from the tree of life and the mind is healed and a new body will be sustained from a healed mind

A false gospel says we can't keep the God's laws perfectly, this is not the gospel of a born-again experience. To make this point clearer to the reader Jesus calls on us to have a relationship with Him as He has with the Father, a faith that works by love. The striving for perfection which Paul spoke of is relational.

Predictions about to be fulfilled

The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment as we are told it shall be in the latter days; that time is described in Daniel 12:4 as many shall run to and fro and knowledge shall be increased.

The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that "shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant." [Verses 31-36, quoted.] {13MR 394.1}

Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place. We see evidence that Satan is fast obtaining the control of human minds who have not the fear of God before them. Let all read and understand the prophecies of this book, for we are now entering upon the time of trouble spoken of: [Daniel 12:1-4, quoted.] {13MR 394.2}

Soon strife among the nations will break out with an intensity that we do not now anticipate. The present is a time of overwhelming interest to all living. Rulers and statesmen, men who occupy positions of trust and authority, thinking men and women of all classes, have their attention fixed upon the events taking place about us. They are watching the strained, restless relations that exist among the nations. They observe the intensity that is taking possession of every earthly element, and they realize that something great and decisive is about to take place, that the world is on the verge of a stupendous crisis. {Mar 174.4}

The little horn will by flatteries and stealth re-establish itself to its former power (the deadly wound was healed) and will persecute the people of God. It cannot work on its own but relies on the power and allegiance of others.

11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

11:41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many [countries] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, [even] Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

11:42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

11:43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [shall be] at his steps.

11:44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. From the sides of the North and from the east come the Son of man to deliver His people. Daniel 12 continues this message. A small company who refuse to homage the Papacy and continue to expose the man of sin will be persecuted; this is the nature of the beast. Tidings from the east and the north speak of the coming of Jesus, the second time and a people ready for Him but if they be not ready...? for this reason with great fury he (the King of the North) goes to destroy and make away with many.

I have heard that the Muslim power cannot be the King of the North or the King of the south because it is in league with Catholicism and is a tight knit community really working together at the highest levels of the organisation. This does not ring true with the location and ideology of who is located in Egypt today. The coming of the King of North, that is the Antichrist will secure all of those 'engines' that is those beasts that he has used to wage war and confusion upon the earth, that ascend from the bottomless pit. The king of the south or Egypt shall not escape from the war inflicted upon it from the King of the north, look at the final verses. The removal of the King of the south makes way for the domination from the North and reaching across into Revelation we see 3 frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon who the Bible tells us in Revelation 12 is the devil – the false prophet apostate Protestantism which makes an image to the beast, the beast (or the King of the North) and that which binds both of them together is spiritism which lays the foundation for the coming false messiah whose wages war by his false teachings and a direct physical assault against God almighty. The war in heaven Satan again hopes to continue on earth but is cut short by the power and majesty of God. Revelation 16:13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs [come] out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 16:14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, [which] go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. These religious ideologies draw the kings of the earth to battle in Armageddon.

Daniel 11:45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong [is] the Lord God who judgeth her. yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. Daniel 11:45 Revelation 18:8

Last verse of 11 and 1st of 12

He shall plant his tabernacle between the mountain and the Holy sea and he shall come to his end and none shall help him and at that time shall Michael stand up .. and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation and at that time shall Michael stand up.

Who is the King of the North and who is the King of the South? Is this a physical representation of country when borders and powers change? Or is it the development of religio/ political military power? I hope I have helped to answer some of these questions in this section. Rome from which the church of Rome came, has its seat in the North, sitting in the place of God as one equal to God and above God (thinking to change times and laws) as 'His representative' and remains till the end of the time. Daniel 11 would logically follow as an explanation of that which was before. Prophetic time was given and pinpointed the coming of the Messiah and would extend down to the end of time as depicted from an ever expanding detailed message from Daniel chapters 2,7,8,9. The main character that has been developed as the nemesis I would suggest is the King of the North (who aspires to Him whose throne is on the sides of the North) following the development of the beast from Babylon to the Roman power that absorbed all nations (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece) that went before it. The body becomes larger as the kingdoms develop. That which is seemingly complex comes down to our simple model and guide we have for Daniel 11 and 12 in Daniel 2 the image of a man- world history made simple and predicted ahead of time.

Zion the throne of God in the sides of the North

The throne of God is on the North (Psalms 48:2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, [is] mount Zion, [on] the sides of the north, the city of the great King. Isaiah 14:13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. and here is a power that begins in the North and invades from the North and remains North in the split of the Grecian empire. Daniel 8 describes the little horn that was different from all that had been before this way 8:8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. 8:9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant [land].)If we are to follow on with Revelation the expansion continues in Chapters 8 & 9.

In the end there are only two religions as the beast makes way for the coming of a false messiah which the world hails as Lord and the scene is that which faced those faithful men in Babylon at Mount Dura found in Daniel 3.

America has formally sighted Jerusalem as the capital of Israel to the joy of the evangelicals. 'He' that is the King of the North- clearly the King of the North is apostate Christianity – the little horn and powers it uses underneath it's influence. Daniel 11:44 He shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain.

Daniel 7,8 focuses on the little horn. Daniel 11 spends a lot of time concentrating on the circumstances of how pagan Rome clothed itself with 'Christianity' and follows its path down to the end of time. The little horn of course is the smallest power in the world today a church and state power. Who has been the intermediary between Jews, Christians and Muslims the bridge builder himself. The pope has been furious courting big business, the media, state officials and religious groups.

December 2017 'Early on Wednesday, Francis then met with a delegation of Palestinian intellectual and religious leaders who were at the Vatican for a previously scheduled meeting with the Vatican's interreligious dialogue office. The Vatican and the Palestinians plan to create a permanent working group on interfaith issues. Speaking to the group, Francis expressed his hope for 'peace and prosperity' for the Palestinian people, and called for dialogue that respects the rights of everyone in the Holy Land.'

Vatican II promoted ecumenism and the Jesuits were the main contributors to the ideas put forward and so American evangelicals and others around the world have embraced its theology. Trump declaring Jerusalem the capital of Israel is fulfilling Trump's election promises to the evangelicals and of course the Jews. Next step a temple. Pontifex Maximus the title meaning the greatest bridge builder creates the situation and comes in as the negotiator. What can the Pope do? He shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain ->

In the movements now in progress in the United States to secure for the institutions and usages of the church the support of the state, Protestants are following in the steps of papists.

Nay, more, they are opening the door for the papacy to regain in Protestant America the supremacy which she has lost in the Old World.—GC 573 (1911).

Pope Francis shakes hands with Palestinian Minister Of Religious Affairs Mahmoud Al-Habbash during a private meeting at the Vatican December 6, 2017.

‘Francis expressed his hope for ‘peace and prosperity’ for the Palestinian people, and called for dialogue that respects the rights of everyone in the Holy Land.’ The Papacy negotiables and tolerates where she is helpless. “Every cardinal, archbishop, and bishop in the Catholic Church takes an oath of allegiance to the pope, in which occur the following words: ‘Heretics, schismatics, and rebels to our said lord (the pope), or his aforesaid successors, I will to my utmost persecute and oppose.’”—Josiah Strong, Our Country, ch. 5, pars. 2-4.

Then negotiating peace in the world between Muslims and Christians and those of another faith is to the point of when she becomes supreme and then dictates what is truly in her heart. This is how she established her power at the beginning and how it is established again.

Revelation 13 gives further detail here- the lamblike beast gives power to the little horn or the beast from the sea who had received the deadly wound. The two make way for the return of the false messiah. A temple prepared for a false messiah in which Jews, Muslims and Christian see the fulfilment of their Christ on earth and the world accepts this antichrist as the genuine. Daniel 11:45 yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. Daniel 11:45 has its match in Revelation 18:9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, 18:10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

Daniel 12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation [even] to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

Just as the millennium of peace is declared and the world worships and enforces the worship of a false messiah; at that time the judgements of the 7 last plagues fall.