

Daniel 11 & 12 the King of the North

Prelude to Daniel 11 and 12

- The purpose of Daniel 11 is found in Daniel 10:14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days for the book of Daniel was sealed to the time of the end Daniel 12:4. So it is a book for God's end time church climaxing in Daniel 11&12. Daniel 11 brings righteousness by faith through the sanctuary's 'Daily' to its final conflict with antichrist.
- Daniel 11 is a detailed expansion of Nebuchadnezzar's dream which is self-evident by the visions that follows in chapters 7,8 & 9 and the explanations given by the angel seen in vision. The image of a man given at the very first in Nebuchadnezzar's dream is our guide post to Daniel 11. For any sort of sure reference, we need to take the preceding visions as a guide to the structure of the angel's explanation. The angel is explaining the meaning of the visions particularly the Daniel 8.
- To where in history will we go for the answers? To the history of Islam or to the crusades? Or the countless barbarian invasions of Rome? We follow the outline of Daniel 8 which is an expansion on Daniel 2 and 7.
- Rome is the abomination of desolation which has two phases. Jesus confirms who the abomination of desolation as pagan Rome in Matthew 24 and continues to exist in its Papal form as the little horn- the smallest power or country in the world today.
- The prince of the covenant being cut off- Christ, also affirms the length and time of the vision and is central to Daniel 11; the length of time therefore is not literal days but a day representing a year.
- The 'Daily' is central to the prophecies of Daniel and to understand the true gospel that is righteousness by faith. The continual work of heaven on human hearts by Christ our high priest is represented by His ministration in the first apartment. When the repentant sinner comes to Christ there a relationship formed that changes the heart and that work is God's work in behalf of men and women. Heart work begins by faith in the first apartment and by beholding we become changed. Human priests and their false teachings obscured the gospel which is the means of salvation.
- The sanctuary associated with the 'daily' represents the true gospel message in contrast with the false.
- The cleansing of the sanctuary is important to our understanding and the restoration of truth, a true understanding of the gospel and the sealing of God's people. Every person whether by death or translation must be sealed for eternity which start as 'daily' experience.

- The restoration of the truth and cleansing of the sanctuary, go hand in hand and have a particular place in history, that is the end of the 2300 years coincided with the unravelling of the prophecies of Daniel- the little book was unsealed.
- In 1844 -that is the end of the 2300-year period saw a Biblical prophetic revolution particularly in the United States.
- Who would constitute God's people? Well, you say that's easy- we'll consider this they keep all the commandments of God, the 4th being a distinguishing mark and have love for the brethren. They will make an end of sin and reconciliation for iniquity (Daniel 9). To really have the Holy Spirit guiding us we must obey the commandments and be committed to a balanced gospel that recognizes grace, faith and that faith being a faith that works by love and purifies the soul. The contrast is made between the little horn otherwise known as the abomination of desolation or the King of the North and God's people. The little horn thinks to change times and law- that is God's law and is a persecuting power. God's people keep God's law and are distinguished by prophetic time and are persecuted for doing what God has commanded. Following each conflict with the King of the South Rome (there are three periods referred to in Daniel 11) the King of the North overcomes the king of the South, establishing itself and persecution follows.
- Day of judgement- blessed is he who comes to that day and the opening of the book of Daniel for the wise shall understand. All candidates for heaven are judged before they can enter heaven. The little horn is judged also because it takes the name of Christ.
- Do not study chapters 11 & 12 separately, and consider the interpretation in light of the figures and timeline already given in preceding chapters of Daniel.
- Daniel is a running commentary that stops to pinpoint certain major events that establish truth and error and major events that affect the people of God. As seen in the Daniel's visions prior to Daniel 11 history starts in Daniel's time and proceeds down to the end of time.
- Daniel 11 concerns as the previous chapters the establishment of the abomination of desolation in 3 different periods- as Pagan Rome, as Papal Rome and revived Papal Rome at the latter day to finally bring in the antichrist. It is not about so much the enemies of the Papacy rather it is about conquests necessary to establish it's authority.
- There is a strong connection between Daniel and Revelation that is particularly useful in decoding the prophecy and will leave those with an open mind without doubt as to the surety of the last verses of Daniel 11 which are yet to be fulfilled. The correct interpretation can be cemented in place by the plain language of Revelation.

This is like a train and the indicator says it only makes certain stops. Here are the main stops given by the indicator:

1. How the abomination of desolation was formed that is pagan Rome. 2. How the abomination of desolation becomes church & state power 3. the events surrounding the day of judgement and probation's close in the latter day. Where does the train stop? This is indicated by the time lines given in Daniel 8,9,12.

The conclusion of Daniel should be seen in expansion of that which has preceded and in this wise the king of the North being Turkey or Islam as has been suggested by many, does not fit that which shall continue to dominate till Christ comes but the little horn a power that was nothing like that preceded before, (as described in Daniel 11 and the preceding chapters) works with flatteries, by peace destroys many, desires not women, fits well the work of the Papacy. Daniel says he shall think to change times and laws Daniel 7:25, magnifying himself above God. The power of atheism from the bottomless pit I would suggest is not introduced in Daniel but in Revelation 11 and is identified with its own time period.

When we come to Daniel 11 there are many ideas and thoughts but are, they consistent with the time lines and the flow of thought in the book of Daniel? The king of the north being Turkey or Islam has been a popular idea, however Rome is the great subject in the last half of the book of Daniel, as Babylon is the great subject in the first half of the book. {May 29, 1900 AT Jones, ARSH 338.9}

While listening to presentations of Daniel 11 there is an inconsistency in the interpretations. While minor errors of interpretation may occur, in unravelling the text the overall results should be consistent.

I understand the complexity as the language at times may appear vague or perhaps it is better to say that one is looking for context. If we continue expanding on that which we began with the last universal kingdom -that is Rome which would turn into a church state power, this gives a good guide and is consistent with the messages found in the preceding chapters.

Egypt's importance is its relevance to Rome and how that leads to it becoming a universal power. Again, Egypt's relevance to this passage is how Rome became the Roman church and then the re-emergence of the Roman Church's power after the 1260-year reign. The King of the South was that which was opposed to the king of the North and must be dealt with militarily before the Roman state or church could assume power. Once it has assumed its power it is a persecuting power against the people of God. The King of the South has three phases but more importantly the King of the North has three phases as denoted by the times the King of the South is referred to. How so? Rome must militarily deal with Egypt before coming to its own on the world stage. The Pagan Roman Empire would not last and so the Church of Rome ascended to the world stage but not before having to deal with the situation in Egypt. The Church of Rome after 1260 years went in receivership but was not destroyed because of its worldwide influence. At this time the Vatican is again ascending to the position of its former glory but its time of former 'greatness' is yet to be realised. Apostate Christianity that which presents itself with the name of Christ is that which is most troubling and has shed the blood of martyrs and that's why the focus on the King of the North in the prophecy. 'Rome' (that is the Church of Rome) again must deal with a threat and it does so by its coalition of associated Christian countries of the West as it did in the past (Rome initially gained its power through France & the emperors of Rome today through the USA), using the strength of nations for its own power. The end result is the return of Christ of course but just before this 'they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast.' And Revelation 12 clearly tells us the dragon is Lucifer. But this does not occur without the God's intervention and with a clear proclamation of the gospel, as God guides His people through prophetic time to the very last day.

Elsewhere on this website I talk about understanding the book of Revelation in respect of a world view of the conflicts that have occurred through history from three powers that ascend from the bottomless pit. The 1. Muslims, in particular extremists, 2. Atheism-despot communism and 3. Apostate Christianity. The most prominent of the three is apostate Christianity and it is this one that particularly attacks God's truth and His people more than the other two. It is referenced 8 times by a prophetic time periods and identified by a lot of description. This is the one that forms from paganism and then calls itself Christian. This is the one that attacks God's people specially with reference to those that obey the law of God. This is the one that brings in the antichrist. Daniel concentrates on how this power of false Christianity grew and become established and here in Daniel 11 how the Roman empire was formed and from the Roman empire the church was formed and from the demise of the church to its reestablishment, to bringing in the false messiah. This is all done in reference to the people of God. So here in Daniel the theme is the establishment of a false Christianity taking to itself the name of Christ and bringing in ultimately who is the King of the North- the Antichrist. As in Revelation the contrast is given between this despotic power and God's people with the restoration of the temple, judgement and the coming of the Messiah.

Note that unless otherwise specified numerical references refer to Daniel 11 and highlighted in blue.

The head of the nations is the head of the statue in Nebuchadnezzar's dream- Babylon and as we build the body the body parts become larger taking in more territory than the kingdom before it. The image of a man (described in Daniel 2) is built by the preceding universal kingdoms wars against Christ; that is the antichrist and a stone made without hands smashes the image to pieces see Daniel 2. This image is Babylon named according to its head and that which the reformers also names as the papacy, antichrist which makes way for the false Christ.

Why would the Bible be worried about Babylon and Egypt here in Daniel 11? Babylon was prophesied to no longer be inhabited but by doleful creatures and Egypt to be a weak nation. Jeremiah 50:39 and Isaiah 13:19-20 prophesied Babylon would never again be inhabited and so the boasts and work of Saddam Hussein to stamp his names on the bricks of Babylon and to be inhabited again were all in vain.

'Saddam's Babylonian palace is a monstrous hill-top fortress surrounded by miniature palm trees and rose gardens. The four-storey palace extends across an area as large as five football fields. Villagers told news media that a thousand people were evacuated to make way for this emblem of Saddam Hussein's power.' As predicted his dreams came to nought. American troops entered the new place of Saddam in April 2003 and it was found to be unused and unoccupied. Ps 127:1 Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh [but] in vain.

Says the angel to Daniel the Prophet in Chapter 11 'I will show you the truth...to establish the vision.' This emphasizes, the truth that appears in the two preceding chapters concerning the little horn and God's people.

Building the image of Daniel 2 by nation building

Daniel 11:2 There shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than them all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. The angel gives us the name of the kingdom to rise Grecia.

Xerxes was the last king (a very wealthy king) of Medo-Persia to be defeated by Greece and 9 minor rulers would follow before Alexander the Great would make it a world empire.

Daniel 11:3,4 (included word here for meaning of the text) And a mighty king Alexander Great shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven amongst Alexander's generals; and not to his children, nor according to his dominion which he ruled but shall become the Roman empire: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others to rule. Now the angel details how this happened.

Correlating verses: Daniel 8:8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. 8:21 And the rough goat [is] the king of Grecia: and the great horn that [is] between his eyes [is] the first king.

To the right is pictured the division of the Greek empire to Alexander's 4 generals and not to his posterity or given to his children as predicted -> 'The history of Rome is that of a city that originally had only a few miles of territory, and gradually extended its dominions first over Italy and then over the civilised world.' To the North is Babylon and what overtakes that Kingdom physically and spiritually is Rome. To the south what overtakes that kingdom of Egypt is Pagan Rome but then apostate Christianity and then Mohammedanism.

The following is the making of the kingdom of Rome. Conflict between Syria and Egypt and their powers and territory lead to Rome empire over taking all. 'The Roman general Pompey defeats the Seleucid Antiochus XIII and incorporates Syria as a province of the Roman empire.' The division of the north consolidates into Roman empire. Pompey also invades Jerusalem.

Directly between King of the North and the King of the South is Palestine -God's children. The North would be overtaken by Rome after the battles between Seleucus and Ptolemy. Cleopatra would make her alliance with Rome and the powers of the Greek kingdom of the North would become that of Rome and also the power of Egypt would become that of Rome.

A general history from Greek division to Roman empire is contained in the following verses:

Daniel 11:5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and [one] of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion [shall be] a great dominion. 11:6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in [these] times. 11:7 But out of a branch of her root shall [one] stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: 11:8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, [and] with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue [more] years than the king of the north. 11:9 So the king of the south shall come into [his] kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

Egypt at this point in history (that is after the division of Grecian empire) was strong and annexed many places including Cyprus, Phoenicia, Caria, Cyrene and many islands and cities to itself and Macedonia and Thrace were annexed to Syria and war ensued. An agreement was made between Egypt and Syria by the marriage of Ptolemy Philadelphus' daughter the second king of Egypt to Theos the third king of Syria. An agreement was made by marriage that did not last. War broke out to avenge the death of his sister Bernice by her brother Ptolemy Euergetes. This is what happened; the wife of Antiochus of Syria and his children were taken from the king's court because of the arranged marriage but later his former wife and children were brought back to the king's court and Antiochus was poisoned by his former wife Laodice and she also arranged for the murder of Bernice and her children.

11:10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and [one] shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, [even] to his fortress. 11:11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, [even] with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. 11:12 [And] when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down [many] ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened [by it]. 11:13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

11:14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

The setting up of the abomination of desolation -pagan Rome

The robbers of thy people clearly refer to Rome to establish the vision and the nations would fall. Paganism was established in each universal kingdom and God intervened in the first two kingdoms. He called Nebuchadnezzar his servant- the beast was given the heart of man (see Daniel 7:4) and Cyrus was called in the book of Isaiah (44:28,45:1) before his birth. Clearly the threat to the people of God was Paganism and many instances could be cited, that is why these kingdoms are thus presented as beasts. These are kingdoms that threatened God's work and people. Daniel 10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. The most fearful of the beasts, dreadful and terrible is the fourth with the 10 horns and is about to be established by its kings or emperors who proclaim themselves as gods, after taking over the Roman senate.

11:15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither [shall there be any] strength to withstand.

11:16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

The invasion is from the North and as stated prior in Daniel 8:9 – “toward the pleasant or glorious land” and Rome is the power which none shall stand before him. ‘Pompey enters the Jerusalem Temple. Painting by Jean Fouquet, after an event recorded by Flavius Josephus in The Antiquities of the Jews.’

11:17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand [on his side], neither be for him.

To enter the strength of his whole kingdom he must deal with Egypt and God's children will also be involved with this invasion.

The story of Cleopatra culminates in the Roman empire. From senate to dictator empire and from Egyptian independence to incorporation. Time map of Roman empire 30 BC with the note 'Egyptian independence has come to an end with the death of its famous queen,

Cleopatra.'

Note this quote:

'By this time, internal tensions led to a series of civil wars, climaxing with the assassination of Julius Caesar, which ended with the establishment of the Roman Empire. The exact date of the transition to the Roman Empire can be a matter of interpretation. Historians have variously proposed Julius Caesar's crossing of the Rubicon River in 49 BC, Caesar's appointment as dictator for life in 44 BC, and the defeat of Mark Antony and Cleopatra at the Battle of Actium in 31 BC.'

"Cleopatra originally ruled jointly with her father, Ptolemy XII Auletes, and later with her brothers, Ptolemy XIII and Ptolemy XIV, whom she married as per Egyptian custom, but eventually she became sole ruler. As pharaoh, she consummated a liaison with Julius Caesar that solidified her grip on the throne. She later elevated her son with Caesar, Caesarion, to co-ruler in name....Eager to take advantage of Julius Caesar's anger toward Ptolemy, Cleopatra had herself smuggled secretly into the palace to meet with Caesar. Plutarch in his "Life of Julius Caesar" gives a vivid description of how she entered past Ptolemy's guards rolled up in a carpet that Apollodorus the Sicilian was carrying. She became Caesar's mistress, and nine months after their first meeting, in 47 BC, Cleopatra gave birth to their son, Ptolemy Caesar, nicknamed Caesarion, which means "little Caesar".'

11:18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause [it] to turn upon him. 11:19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

"After this conquest, Caesar defeated the last remaining fragments of Pompey's party, Cato and Scipio in Africa and Labienus and Varus in Spain. Returning to Rome, the "fort of his own land," he was made perpetual dictator;"

Rome becomes a hegemony – it now joins the group of universal desolating world empires. The Forum in Rome is the seat of power. The political hub of the pagan Roman empire ->

1st emperor of the Roman Empire. Julius Caesar was a great warrior and it was through the general's victories that one came to political power in Rome. The story of the empire of Rome hinges on Julius Caesar who was made dictator for life, emperor and it was this move that cost him his life by those in favour of the republic. ('and not be found' Daniel 11:19) The reproach on Israel by Pompey and his party would cease by Julius Caesar victories over him. Rome became an empire by this first king as predicted. Picture to the left.

'Julius Caesar was the first historical Roman to be officially deified. He was posthumously granted the title Divus Iulius or Divus Julius (the divine Julius or the deified Julius) by decree of the Roman Senate on 1 January 42 BC.' Around 60 or more men participated in his assassination, he was stabbed 23 times. He was the pontiff maximus that would establish itself in 'Christianity.' The Pope later taking to himself that very title of the emperors of old, which is stamped everywhere on the buildings, even to the roof tops in the Vatican.

11:20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes [in] the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

Emperor 2 Caesar Augustus was called the son of god (he assumed deity for himself before the people of Rome). Luke 2:1 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. This event marks the birth of Christ in which Mary and Joseph had to journey to Bethlehem and Christ found lying in a manger.

11:21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person (Tiberius), to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

11:22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

Correlating verses: Daniel 9:26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof [shall be] with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

9:27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make [it] desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

Emperor 3 Tiberius was not Augustus' son but connected through his second marriage. Tiberius rose to the throne was with suspicion as history portrays yet at the time, he came to power peaceably with his acceptance by the senate. He was known as a broodish fellow who was busy dispatching conspirators. Tyranny and debauchery were characteristic of his reign. He was not a loved emperor but had obtained the kingdom by the persistence of his mother Livia and by the death of Agrippa. Augustus had said to Livia 'your son is too vile to wear the purple of Rome.'

Jesus was baptized or anointed by the Father and the Holy Spirit ascended upon Him and Christ also died under the reign of Tiberius fulfilling the covenant made in Eden See

Jerusalem's temple was destroyed as with a flood shall they be overthrown from before him v22. It was the death of Christ and the impact on the disciples with the world-wide commission that would see the Roman empire fall. Jesus' simple words of truth and His death would cause the fall of the pagan Roman empire and the destruction of the earthly sanctuary.

Jesus foretold plainly the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. Matthew 24:1 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to [him] for to show him the buildings of the temple. 24:2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

He (Jesus) saw Jerusalem encompassed with armies, the besieged inhabitants driven to starvation and death, mothers feeding upon the dead bodies of their own children, and both parents and children snatching the last morsel of food from one another, natural affection being destroyed by the gnawing pangs of hunger. He saw that the stubbornness of the Jews, as evinced in their rejection of His salvation, would also lead them to refuse submission to the invading armies. He beheld Calvary, on which He was to be lifted up, set with crosses as thickly as forest trees. He saw the wretched inhabitants suffering torture on the rack and by crucifixion, the beautiful palaces destroyed, the temple in ruins, and of its massive walls not one stone left upon another, while the city was plowed like a field. Well might the Saviour weep in agony in view of that fearful scene. {DA 577.2}

'The future history must deal with church and state, not with kingdoms such as Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. History has changed.'

The prophet Daniel is referred to by Jesus. Mark 13:14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains:..Jesus lived during the time of Rome and history records the fulfilments of His prophecy.

Rome is that abominating desolating power but is in two phases. Roman Empire and Church of Rome. The gospel message found in the 'daily' opposed paganism with great success causing the destruction of the Rome empire. Arian powers allowed liberties that Romanism would never afford and so the enemy of souls would dress a veneer of Christianity that would enforce his authority by emerging church and state as a persecuting power. The legs of the image in Daniel 2 represent the two phases of Rome. Remember what was said of Rome in Daniel 7:7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it [was] diverse from all the beasts that [were] before it; and it had ten horns. Keep that image in mind so it becomes simple to understand. Later in Revelation we find a woman riding this scarlet coloured beast- church & state- a woman representing the church but this woman is a prostitute see Revelation 17. Or perhaps there is greater meaning there as the dragon of Revelation 12 is now seen carrying the harlot woman.

The following verse is like a title or summary of that which is about to be explained Daniel 11:23 And after the league [made] with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. Correlating verses: Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, 8:9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant [land].

So, who is the league between church and state?

Through the 'conversion' of Constantine, Paganism, while appearing to be vanquished, became the conqueror. Her spirit controlled the church. Her doctrines, ceremonies, and superstitions were incorporated into the faith and worship of the professed followers of Christ. {GC 49.2}

11:24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes. The peace that this Christian power is seen in its ecumenical peace treaties but the result is destruction. While the Bishop of Rome is making liaisons between nations and religious leaders his agents are causing war between the nations as evident in the way the papacy is coming to power today. For example, Catholic intelligence CIA undermines the sovereignty of other nations, priests are involved in political solidarity movements working both sides of the political spectrum while the Pope builds bridges between nation leaders and church leaders. and he shall do [that] which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; (establish a Christian political system such as the world has never seen before) he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: [yea], and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time. If you want to see the spoils of Rome visit the Vatican Museum or St John Lateran treasury or consider the value of one gold monstrance. Nations would fall and emperors would bow at his knees and kiss his hand. Correlating verses: Daniel 8:25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify [himself] in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

1. St John Lateran palace given to the church by Constantine. (properties, power and wealth, military might were given to the church.

2 Inscribed on the wall of St John of Lateran: "Omnium urbis et orbis Ecclesiarum Mater et Caput.

The Mother of all churches of Rome and the world. It's a big claim. He has a mouth speaking great things.

3. A glimpse inside St John Lateran treasury. Wealth is the reason for her success and thirst for absolute power.

How much would just one article of gold be worth? A priest carrying a cup or a smaller monstrance could easily transfer wealth from one place to another

3. St Paul's outside the wall. It's built by Constantine on a massive scale. The emperors embellished the church and handed them the reins of power.

The amount of wealth given by the state into the hand of small number of priests in Rome is inestimable.

Justinian established the Papacy by legislative power to persecute heretics and adding wealth and properties as Constantine had also done.)

he shall scatter among them the prey The Arian powers (such as the vandals and Ostrogoths etc) were brought under subjugation. There are two churches referred to in Revelation- one is dressed in the sun and has the moon under her feet who gives birth to a child that was caught up to heaven. This church fled into the wilderness (Rev 12) and the other is a whore riding the dragon or lucifer Rev 17).. The Arian people and the church in the wilderness were the prey that were scattered- the Waldenses and Albigenses. Millions were killed.

Verses 26-28 are the difficult verses in the text. While I believe the explanation follows as the explanation of Daniel 8 in the succession of time and nations and is tied to forming the papal abomination of desolation. A king represents a kingdom. The Arian nations that destroyed the western empire had to be defeated in order for the Papacy to become a reality.

3 main leaders stand out as opposing the Roman emperor and the Bishop of Rome

Alaric I king of the Visigoths 395 to 410 A.D. – defeats Roman army with fireships and first sacking of Rome

Genseric of the Vandals- 389 – 477 A.D.

Attila the Hun- 434 – 453 A.D.

3 pro Roman leaders stand out in history that gave power to the Papacy

Constantine the Great

Clovis the first king of France

Justinian I

Here how a software game neatly sums up the Visigoths. 'The reluctant arbiters of barbarian (note barbarian contains the word Arian) vengeance, the Visigoths have sworn to repay the Romans in full for decades of abuse at their hands.

Initially seeking nothing but refuge, the ravages of the Huns forced them to petition the Roman Emperor Valens for sanctuary. He accepted, seeing the Visigoths potential as mercenaries and, more importantly, as a buffer against the coming Hunnic storm. However, local generals brutally extorted the refugees, driving them to open rebellion. Whilst attempting to deal with the Visigoths at Adrianople the impetuous Valens was slain on the battlefield. A period of peace followed until the Visigoths, under Alaric, fought against the Franks in support of the Emperor Theodosius I.'

Although the Visigoths played a vital part in Rome's victory, they were denied their reward. Therefore Alaric, now king, has embarked on a punitive expedition throughout Greece, and, flushed with success, has set his sights on the ultimate prize, the city of Rome itself...

11:25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. Three horns were plucked up meaning the Arian powers are defeated through war and the councils and alliance of the church with emperors and their armies.

3 horns plucked up or three kingdoms.

"Although the Goths refused to believe as the church of Rome did, and as a consequence have been branded as Arians, Romanism actually meant little to them. In fact, it meant little to Ulfilas, their great leader. The Goths refused to go along with the mounting innovations being introduced into the church of the Caesars, which church quickly branded any competitor as Arian." Benjamin Wilkinson, Truth Triumphant, p. 141.

'Ulfilas was a missionary who converted many among the Goths and preached Arianism, which, when they reached the western Mediterranean, set them apart from their orthodox neighbours and subjects.' Ulfilas was ordained a bishop by Eusebius of Nicomedia.

I would not suggest that everything Arian was correct theology but rather in these empires' liberties similar to the United States foundation allowed the dissemination of truth. That's all opponent to the church of Caesars were labelled Arians and a similar labelling and opposition to light and free expression naturally exists in human nature.

11:26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

451 "Battle of the Catalaunian Plains was one of the last major military operations of the Western Roman Empire though Visigothic soldiers formed the core of the allied Roman army. The battle was a strategic victory for the Romans, stopping the Huns' attempt to conquer Roman Gaul. The numbers of the dead were vast.

'Attila returned in 452 to claim his marriage to Honoria a new, invading and ravaging Italy along the way. His army sacked numerous cities and razed Aquileia so completely that it was afterwards hard to recognize its original site.'

I wondered how Venice started and why other cities had not followed but as you can see it was a strategic move to the small islands in the Venetian Lagoon to protect themselves from the invading Huns.

'Legend has it he had his soldiers carry dirt in their helmets to build a hill north of Aquileia from which he could watch the destruction of the city, thus founding the town of Udine, where a castle now stands on the legendary hill. Aëtius, who lacked the strength to offer battle, managed to harass and slow Attila's advance with only a shadow force. Attila finally halted at the River Po.

Venice became the unique place it is today as the people of Italy fled from the Huns to this swampy marsh land for protection.

11:27 And both these kings' hearts [shall be] to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end [shall be] at the time appointed.

Emperor Valentinian III sent three envoys, the high civilian officers Gennadius Avienus and Trigetius, as well as the Bishop of Rome Leo I, who met Attila at Mincio in the vicinity of Mantua, and obtained from him the promise that he would withdraw from Italy and negotiate peace with the emperor.

The account is given of a meeting between Pope Leo 1 and Attila in which Leo is given credit by those favourable to the Catholic faith in persuading Attila not to destroy Rome. they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him Attila died on his wedding night and it is possible that Attila was assassinated by his new bride a young woman named Ildico.

11:28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart [shall be] against the holy covenant; and he shall do [exploits], and return to his own land.

Which King or kingdom returned with great riches with his heart set against the holy covenant? The king of the North. Who is the king of the North? Rome. At what time was his heart particularly set against the holy covenant? In what became Christian political wars of the Arian kings against Rome and her church.

'for yet the end [shall be] at the time appointed.' At the time determined by the divine providence. Time appointed is repeated three times v27,29,35 and has seen in Daniel 8 where 'time appointed' is also mentioned Daniel 8:19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end [shall be]. The prophecies are tied in with prophetic time which the end of Daniel 9 goes into with great detail. So which time? Daniel 12:11 And from the time [that] the daily shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, [there shall be] a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Ships of Chittim

The ships of Chittim is another anchor point in the prophecy

"Thus the ships of Carthage or Chittim ruined Rome."

One of the horns that was plucked up

Daniel 11:29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

Rome's position is at a turning point into something totally different- the Roman church.

11:30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

The scripture elsewhere gives us the location of Chittim. 'Kittim, or Chittim, the third of the sons of Javan, inhabited the islands of the Grecian archipelago, Cyprus, and even others of the Mediterranean Sea, and Corea at the southeast corner of Asia Minor. Isa. 23:1, 12 shows that Chittim was a resting-place for the ships of Tarshish; Jer. 2:10 and Eze. 27:6 speak of "the isles of Chittim;"

and Dan. 11:30 speaks of "the ships of Chittim;" all showing that Chittim was in the isles of the Mediterranean Sea.' A.T. Jones

Vandal activity in the Mediterranean was so substantial that the sea's name in Old English was Wendelsæ (i. e. Sea of the Vandals). The Vandals were Germanic Vandal people under Genseric, and ruled in North Africa and the Mediterranean from 435 AD to 534 AD. Rome would use the Vandals for their own purposes in war but when Rome failed to pay the Vandals war ensued. The vandals captured a huge fleet of unmanned Rome's ships in Carthage.

Against incredible odds the Vandal Arian king, Genseric (who believed he was ordained of God to defeat Rome) defeats the navel armies of Rome by fire ships at the Battle of Cap Bon 468 AD.

Battle of Cape Bon (468 AD): The East Roman empire puts all it's might into rebuilding the shattered West Roman Empire by trying to recapture the wealthy North African provinces but is defeated by the Vandal king Geiseric. This is a very important and decisive battle. Genseric is initially defeated and Gaiseric asks Basiliscus to allow him five days to draw up conditions for peace. During the negotiations, Gaiseric gathered his ships and suddenly attacked the Roman fleet with fire ships. The vandals were outnumbered by men and number of ships, 110,000, men 1,113 ships on the side of Rome with the loss of 70,000 men and 700 ships and the Vandals win and hold the wealthy areas of North Africa secure. Revelation describes this as a mountain burning in the sea. Victory at the battle of Cap of Bon lead to further victories with the sacking of Rome. Here you see the lampstand with seven lamps taken by Tiberius in the hands of the vandals. By all accounts the vandals were more civilized than those they defeated in Rome.

1. Tiberius arch image of the lampstand with seven lamps taken initially by the Romans.

2. The second sacking of Rome when the 7-arm oil lamp of pure gold by the Jerusalem sanctuary was taken by the Vandals.

therefore the King of the North shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant. To eradicate the heresy of Arianism held by three powers that overran the "Eternal City" namely the Heruli, Goths and Vandals, Emperor Justinian decreed in 533 AD that the Bishop of Rome was the head of the entire Church and the corrector of heresies.

That covenant is enjoined with the Sabbath commandment-->

Isaiah 56:2 Blessed [is] the man [that] doeth this, and the son of man [that] layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. 56:6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

The emperor Justinian in considering war against the vandal empire but has doubts about the conquest of Africa. It was the first of Justinian I's wars of reconquest of the lost Western Roman Empire. We read "If Africa should be reduced, it cannot be preserved without the additional conquest of Sicily and Italy. Success will impose the obligations of new labours'; a single misfortune will attract the Barbarians into the heart of your exhausted empire." Justinian felt the weight of this salutary advice; he was confounded by the unwonted freedom of an obsequious servant; and the design of the war would perhaps have been relinquished, if his courage had not been revived by a voice which silenced the doubts of profane reason. "I have seen a vision," cried an artful or fanatic bishop of the East. "It is the will of Heaven, O emperor! that you should not abandon your holy enterprise for the deliverance of the African church. The God of battles will march before your standard, and disperse your enemies, who are the enemies of his Son."

Our predecessors did not deserve this favor of God, as they were not only not permitted to liberate Africa, but even saw Rome itself captured by the Vandals, and all the Imperial insignia taken from thence to Africa. Now, however, God, in his mercy, has not only delivered Africa and all her provinces into Our hands, but the Imperial insignia as well, which, having been removed at the capture of Rome, He has restored to us. —Codex Iustinianus, I.XXVII ."

Just as a sign from heaven Constantine had defeated an army against all odds so Justinian hears the call to battle and to win.

France the Papal backbone-the taking away of 'the daily'

False worship

11:31 And arms shall stand on his part (Clovis King of the Franks), and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away 508 AD the daily [sacrifice], and they shall place the 538 AD abomination that maketh desolate.

Daniel 8:11 Yea, he magnified [himself] even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

8:12 And an host was given [him] against the daily by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered.

8:13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain [saint] which spake, How long [shall be] the vision [concerning] the daily, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

In relation to the "daily" the word "sacrifice" was supplied by man's wisdom which I have deleted in the above texts

Pollute the sanctuary of strength or in other words the daily is taken away and the place of the sanctuary is cast down. There are two action that result in the daily being taken away.

One is the military action of clovis at his conversion to Catholicism and the plucking up of the three horns and the other is the Bishop of Rome being given the authority for self-autonomy and the persecution of heretics. Without these two events, history would have taken an altogether different route.

Clovis complained: "It grieves me to see that the Arians still possess the fairest portion of Gaul. Let us march against them with the aid of God; and, having vanquished the heretics, we will possess and divide their fertile province." Clotilda added her pious exhortation to the effect "that doubtless the Lord would more readily lend his aid if some gift were made;" and in response, Clovis seized his battle-ax and threw it as far as he could, and as it went whirling through the air, he exclaimed, "There, on that spot where my Francesca shall fall, will I erect a church in honor of the holy apostles." Edward Gibbons The decline and fall of the Roman Empire.

"Pagans, Arians, and Catholics shared the Gaul of Clovis and the Franks. Clovis personally illustrates the juxtaposition of these three belief systems. He was born into paganism, two of his sisters were Arians (one married the Arian Ostrogothic king Theodoric the Great), and his wife, Clotilda, like her sister, was Catholic but from a Burgundian royal family that included Arians. His conversion to Catholicism was that of one man and not of his kingdom, but it can be seen as pivotal in Frankish history... For Catholics, he was the first major Germanic Catholic king" Britannica encyclopedia.

The actions of Clovis and Justinian I was to obliterate all other opponents who held the Christian faith and lead them to Catholicism in the religious political wars. Arianism vs Catholicism. The conversion of Clovis and his army is similar to Constantine the Great.

'The priesthood of Christ was laid low, and the "mystery of iniquity" was enthroned.'

"The daily shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up: We arrived at a period, when paganism in the empire was replaced by false Christianity, by the conversion of those pagan kings. Any religious freedoms enjoyed under the Vandals or the Arian kingdoms was about to be obliterated. Now paganism was no longer a threat but a false Christianity was which was enforced by the state. The issue was church and state to enforce a false Christianity.

'THE DAILY' REFERRED TO GOD'S WORK IN CONNECTION WITH MEN & WOMAN FOR THEIR SALVATION TO RESTORE HUMANITY TO THE IMAGE OF GOD BY THE SPIRIT & THE WORD.

THE LAMP, THE BREAD OF LIFE, THE CLOUD OR SPIRIT OF GOD, THE PRAYERS WITH THE INCENSE WERE TO BE CONTINUAL AS INSTRUCTED FOR THE EARTHLY SANCTUARY REPRESENTING CHRIST'S PRIESTLY WORK IN THE HEAVENLY. AS CHRIST SENT AID TO MANKIND FOR THEIR INSTRUCTION, PROTECTION & SANCTIFICATION ALL WERE REFLECTED BY THE PRECIOUS GOLD OF THE SANCTUARY REPRESENTING THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF CHRIST WHICH WAS TO BE OURS.

'THE DAILY'

DANIEL 8:12 AND AN HOST WAS GIVEN HIM AGAINST THE DAILY SACRIFICE BY REASON OF TRANSGRESSION, AND IT CAST DOWN THE TRUTH TO THE GROUND; AND IT PRACTISED, AND PROSPERED.

THE LAMP WAS HELD BY AN EARTH PRIEST, THE BREAD OF LIFE WAS PLACED IN THE MASS TO REPRESENT THE CHANGE OF CHRIST'S BODY TO TRANSUBSTANTIATE INTO HIS REAL FLESH AND BE EATEN. PRAYERS WERE DIRECTED TO THE DEAD MYSTICAL MARY, AND INCENSE IS HELD BY AN EARTHLY PRIEST. THE TRUTH WAS SO OBLITERATED DURING THE DARK AGES AND DISTORTED BY EVERY MEANS POSSIBLE TO BLOCK BY SATAN THE INTERCESSORY WORK OF CHRIST BY THREAT, VIOLENCE & DEATH

Pagan church & state system in Rome

The meaning of 'daily' is made difficult as the word sacrifice was added to the text & distracts the meaning.

The forum in Rome captures the meaning of the 'daily' in Daniel. 'The daily was taken away.'

In order for a Christian church to control the state, the pagan churches had to be dethroned. The taking away of the 'daily' is exactly that. Paganism is replaced by the Papal system.

Papal churches lie on the foundation of pagan temples

Thus, in A.D. 508, paganism, ceased in the Roman empire as the French King Clovis converted to Christianity. And it was taken away too, by those pagan kings who conquered Rome. But the time had not yet fully come for the “man of sin” to be revealed. Those kings, although they had embraced Christianity, and gave their support to the pompous ceremonies of the Roman religion, yet they were most of them Arians in sentiment, and bitter opposers to the orthodox faith. Thoughts by Josiah Litch.

The Forum in Rome is a rubble that represents the old pagan structures which was replaced by an apostate Christian church as we see the church in the back ground. This new structure that overtook the old was to meet the challenge of the church which Christ had place his name and blessing on and so it was to take that name for itself and in the name of Christ became a persecuting power that changed the commandments of God. The daily was taken away as the new structures of an apostate Christianity was built on top of pagan temples.

“Clovis –observing the power and influence of the Papacy, and anxious to avail himself of papal support, he professed conversion in 496, and his entire following united with him in adherence to Catholicism, three thousand of whom were baptized along with himself soon after his conversion. Newman, A Manual of Church History, vol. 1, p. 404. Truth Triumphant Clovis being a pagan married a catholic Clotilda whose influence was toward her faith. Like many families there is a division of belief. “Clotilda’s uncle (the new king of Burgundy) was an Aryan Christian; one of Clovis’ sisters was an Arian Christian and married to the Arian king Theodoric; a second sister was also Arian; and a third was pagan. Clovis, the story goes, consulted those closest to him: his warriors. Then, on Christmas day – more than two years after his purported victory near Bonn – Clovis and several of his warriors were baptized Catholics.” The time of his confession of faith comes as story strikingly familiar to that of Constantine when victory in the battlefield is waning and a pledge to God is given if he should come out victorious and he does. Like Constantine his new faith has a binding resolve between him and his soldiers. Clovis not only put down the arian powers, the Bible says three stood in the way but pagan kings also, establishing the Papacy so the vision is true.

The nature of a war lord not a converted man-'Sigobert the Lame who had fought alongside Clovis in battle was murdered at the suggestions of Clovis, so Sigobert' son Chlodorich, sent assassins as he took a journeyed from his kingdom to a nearby forest. Chlodorich then told Clovis of the murder and offered him the finest treasures of his newly inherited kingdom as a symbol of their new alliance. Clovis sent messengers to assess the treasure, who then asked Chlodorich to plunge his hand as deeply into his gold coins as possible. With his arm submerged, the envoys of Clovis then killed the new king in betrayal. Clovis then stood before the people of Chlodoric and told them that the son had sent assassins to murder his father, but that Chlodoric had subsequently met his own end as well. Clovis then offered his protection to the former subjects of Sigobert and Chlodoric, and thus became their king.' So in 509 AD a year after his baptism into the 'Christian faith' the heart of the man who is the mercenary for Rome intentions and wickedness are exposed. The army of the Visigoths was routed by the Franks in the encounter of 507. It was necessary for Clovis to destroy the sources of further supply. He struck while the iron was hot, and in 508 pursued the Visigoths to their southern strongholds and overcame them. Clovis was named consul by the emperor" Truth Triumphant 11:32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do [exploits]. 11:33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, [many] days.

11:34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

11:35 And [some] of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make [them] white, [even] to the time of the end: because [it is] yet for a time appointed.

The popes corrupted themselves by flatteries as they interacted with the monarchs which led to the dark ages. As part of the holy covenant, we accepted God's badge of loyalty and service at the time of our baptism. The papacy corrupts by flatteries or by politics those that keep not the covenant. The people of God who do exploits are men such as Lucius of Antioch and those who fled into the wilderness preserving the word of God.

Revelation 12 tell us the true church fled into the wilderness yet was active, And they that had understanding of the Word of God and instructed many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, [many] days- the 1260 years of Papal persecution. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

work or the continual work in the heavenly sanctuary.

Daniel 11:35-36 words added to text for meaning: The papacy again at this very time as in days gone by is strengthened its hold by flatteries, bridge building and compromise. And [some] of them of understanding shall fall to their death, to try them and throw them in prison, but persecution shall purge, and make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed- 1798. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

The accomplishment of the indignation is the 1260 days of papal rule in which the papacy prospered and persecuted God's people. The man of sin shall speak great words against the Most High. Daniel 11:37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. Does the Papacy regard the god of his Roman fathers? Or the result was the birth of a new religion with Mary and a Jesus and Father that is really unknown to Pagan Rome.

Daniel 11:38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces or God's protestors- the monks and priests: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

The papists have honored gods, such as their heathen ancestors never knew; such as the Virgin Mary and the whole calendar of saints. He has honored those images with ornaments of gold and silver, precious stones and pleasant things. {1838 JoL, PSC 95.3} Josiah Litch, The God of forces is pantheistic occultism. Today if we look behind world movements particularly at the United Nations, there the union of the free masons, occult (Lucis Trust) and Vatican tied in with evolutionary science. Lucifer is the God of forces.

Even the ceilings are lined with gold, the floors of marble and 'every pleasant thing'. Daniel 11:38-39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge [and] increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god— Mary the Queen of heaven, whom he shall acknowledge [and] increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

Daniel 11:36-38

Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers

He that is the Papacy shall not regard the gods of the Roman fathers, nor would the priest be joined to women and by changing the law & enforcing such, he shall magnify himself above all. He shall honour the God of forces- that is paganism is based on a force that opens the door to the occult or witchcraft. Mary worship was a god unknown to the pantheon & she is honoured an equal god in the trinity with golden images & precious jewels.

There are three principles behind Paganism: one, nature is sacred; two, the incarnation of the Divine Force; three, the belief in one great Divine Force that is genderless, whose essence can be found in all things; four, the conviction that the Divine Force can be recognized, experienced, and manifested in the universe by best gendered beings: the just and the righteous; and five, the ability of a Pagan to interact with the processes and energies which the universe is experienced and maintained by. (Cowan and Scriver 2000, 106)

nor the desire of women

Daniel 11:36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods; and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done. 11:37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. 11:38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

Paganism was brought into the church

The god of the Romans were no longer regarded and their altars were replaced by Christians ones so to speak but they were not according to the words of Christ and the priesthood He officiates and they took to themselves their own perverted Levitical priesthood. 1 Timothy 2:5

For [there is] one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; thus they take to themselves in the confession and hearing of sins the role of God which is a blasphemous act. The god of forces fits well the exaltation of the mortal mother of Jesus who is dead and buried until the time the second coming and her resurrection:

"The Second Vatican Council in 1964 referred to Mary as Queen of the Universe. Section 59 of Lumen Gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church from Vatican II, stated: "Finally, the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all guilt of original sin, on the completion of her earthly sojourn, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen of the universe," and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge [and] increase with glory. Mary of whom little is spoken or written has been increased with glory just look at her exaltation around the world and by the mouth of the popes. If they are invoking Mary who is not a god at all on whom are they in fact calling and exalting? In his fortress the Pope honour the queen of heaven with gold and silvers and many precious things.

With the emergence of the new church of Rome came an attack within the church and a counterfeit to true Christianity but assuming a Christian name.

The plucking up of the three horns establishes the little horn or today known as the smallest of the nations- the Vatican. Constantine re-established Rome under the ever growing and increasingly popular religion of Christianity. This was a political/religious and military adultery of pure Christianity. Paganism entered the church by Constantine's introductions. Also a religious political war came from Alexandria over the godhead, Arian vs the trinity. Egypt was the centre of a corrupt theology of Greek philosophy intertwined in from which also corrupt versions of the Bible would arise. And of course, the popular festival day of paganism, Sunday is adopted into the church but it is not the day ordained nor the day recognizing Christ as sovereign creator. The fourth commandment was removed and the 1st day of the week enforced as a Christian worship day. Constantine indeed performed that which neither his father nor his father's fathers had performed. (v24) He left to his heirs "a new capital, a new policy, and a new religion. The league with a small people (little horn) or the little horn or little power or the smallest state on earth.

The rise to power by Constantine is a very interesting one. The Roman empire was divided and he was not brought up in the house of his father but his first victories were on the battlefield with his father in his father's final years and he was first declared emperor in Britain when his father died. The victory arch of Constantine from Battle of the Milvian Bridge in 312 does not even on closest examination display signs of the cross but rather pagan symbols. Top left The Arch of Constantine celebrating his battle victory and a turning point for Christianity.

First Sunday Law enacted by Emperor Constantine – March, 321 A.D.

On the venerable Day of the Sun let the magistrates and people residing in cities rest, and let all workshops be closed. In the country, however, persons engaged in agriculture may freely and lawfully continue their pursuits; because it often happens that another day is not so suitable for grain-sowing or for vineplanting; lest by neglecting the proper moment for such operations the bounty of heaven should be lost. (Given the 7th day of March, Crispus and Constantine being consuls each of them for the second time [A.D. 321].) No statement asserting the change of the Sabbath can be produced from the writings of the fathers of the first three hundred yearsOne of three things is indispensable to those who would prove the change of the Sabbath. 1. One plain statement that God has changed the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week. 2. Or a single statement that God has blessed, hallowed and sanctified the first day of the week. 3. Or a single commandment to keep the first day holy as a Sabbath unto the Lord. J N Andrews

The Jesuits today plainly say for whom the inquisition was founded and behind judaizing you can see a determined assault against Sabbath keepers because it is at odds with their authority and the law of God: “The inquisition was founded to prosecute judaizing conversos, namely individuals of Jewish ancestry who were baptized as Christians but continued to practice aspects of Mosaic law such as dietary rules and rituals associated with the Sabbath. To Christian religious authorities, conversos who followed Jewish ceremonies were heretics because they appeared to be practicing two religions simultaneously and hence betraying their baptismal vows. The Inquisition was supposed to find these judaizing heretics and, if possible, enclose them again in the Christian community after eliciting from them an expression of repentance. If the suspected heretic refuse to confess her error and sufficient eyewitness testimony against her, she would be relaxed to the secular arm, a phrase meant released to the secular authorities and burn at the stake. The tomb of Constantine was the 13th tomb erected for himself amongst the 12 disciples at Constantinople, some say as a god, which was what emperors do. Later to be followed by the venerated Popes of St Peters and elsewhere. Below left-hand side thought to be the tomb of Constantine in Istanbul. If it were found in the west it would attract millions of visitors but in this Muslim County it is not even marked to indicate its relevance.

Trinity debate

The theology of Arianism that Christ was a created son of God and the Christ was a coequal with the Father caused a division that split the fast-growing Christian churches. Socrates of Constantinople believed that Arius was influenced in his thinking by the teachings of Lucian of Antioch, a celebrated Christian teacher and martyr. In a letter to Patriarch Alexander of Constantinople Arius' bishop, Alexander of Alexandria, wrote that Arius derived his theology from Lucian. It is altogether too little known that the real editor of the received text upon which Protestantism is built came from the scholarly work of Lucian.

To some it may well pose a puzzle that Christians cannot understand the plain teaching of the Old and New Testament concerning who the Son was in relation to the Father- this is the nature of man embroiled in controversy and bad behaviour and truth versus error. Because humans have a small man mentality, man cannot figure how Christ is from eternity and yet be God and also be the Son. Simply put we cannot understand eternity and God except we take Him at His word in matters concerning Himself that He has revealed. But so, all the theology and doctorates that surround that which Christ has plainly illustrated and stated and yet they still get it wrong!

Let the Jesus speak for Himself

John 14:28 If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

This is an interesting overview on the Trinity

'The first council of Nicaea was held in the Bithynian city of Nicaea and convened by the Roman Emperor Constantine I in AD 325. The council of Nicaea dealt primarily with the issue of the deity of Christ. Over a century earlier the use of the term "Trinity" (Τριάς in Greek; trinitas in Latin) could be found in the writings of Origen (185–254) and Tertullian (160–220), and a general notion of a "divine three", in some sense, was expressed in the second century writings of Polycarp, Ignatius, and Justin Martyr. In Nicaea, questions regarding the Holy Spirit were left largely unaddressed until after the relationship between the Father and the Son was settled around the year 362. So, the doctrine in a more full-fledged form was not formulated until the Council of Constantinople in 360 AD.'

'It should be observed, however, that the earliest mention of Sunday as the Lord's Day, is in the writings of Tertullian.' 'The first instance of a sacred title being applied to this festival, and the earliest trace of abstinence from labor on that day, are found in the writings of Tertullian at the close of the second century.' J N Andrews.

The trinity and Sunday and Easter had an important role in forming the apostate church. I do not dispute there are three that bear witness but we are stating the facts of the controversy. It had, however such profound effect upon other doctrines relating to the plan of salvation and upon outward acts of worship that a gulf was created between the Papacy and the institutions of the real church.

Could it be that people are not able to understand these prophecies because they do not understand the Godhead? They do not understand the gospel and so they miss the meaning of the 'daily'?

Egypt

Egypt had many different influences on the setting up of the Roman empire and changes to Christian teachings. The King of the South Egypt has three phases Phase

1. The pagan phase. As an empire of pagan deities and its war with Rome resulted in the final establishment of the Roman empire- this we have already noted in the previous verses.

Phase 2 the Christian phase. The centre of Christian and Greek philosophy was in Alexandria which resulted in war between Arian and the trinitarian teachings. 'Lucius of Alexandria was an Arian who was twice installed as Patriarch of Alexandria, first in 363, during the reign of Athanasius, and the second between 373 and 380, competing with Peter II of Alexandria.'

Arian teachings were first attributed to Arius, a Christian presbyter in Alexandria, Egypt.

It was 'Arian kings' that invaded the Roman empire following Arian beliefs while the Papacy endorsed trinitarian beliefs. It was the removal of Arianism that established the little horn or the abomination of desolation as a church & state power and the taking away of paganism, that had continued to war against the church since before the flood.

The Franks or French king Clovis became a son of the Roman Church and was instrumental in removing the Arian kings or any that opposed the religion of the Caesars and were labelled such. Three horns were plucked up. The French would see the repercussions of this choice year later in the bloodshed that led to their revolt against the church of Rome that is the French revolution.

Phase 3 – Egypt became a Muslim power. Our attention in the end time scenario is taken to the middle east. The conversion of the world to one religion- an apostate Christianity that makes way for the false messiah. The place of contention is the 'Dome of the Rock.'

After the death of Christ that is A.D. Egypt polluted the teachings of Christianity. Rome and the school of Alexandria were bastions of Sunday worship, replacing the commandments of God which He had said to remember.

That which Clement of Alexandria and others began to introduce into the church as the eighth day by 350 AD comes in direct conflict with the commandments of God. Council of Laodicea, about A.D. 350, passed a decree, saying, "It is not proper for Christians to Judaize, and to cease from labor on the Sabbath, but they ought to work on that day, and put especial honor upon the Lord's day, as Christians. If any be found Judaizing, let him be anathematized." though this had little effect on the day of worship in general except in Rome and Egypt but the quote already holds the sentiments of things that are about to transpire during Papal rule. {1858 JNA, RCSK 25.4} This account of the manner of celebrating the Sabbath in the fifth century, is corroborated by Sozomen, in his Ecclesiastical History, b. 7, c. 9. He says, "At Constantinople, and almost among all, the Christians assembled upon the Sabbath, and also upon the first day of the week, except at Rome and Alexandria; the ecclesiastical assemblies at Rome were not upon the Sabbath, as in almost all other churches of the rest of the world; and in many cities and villages in Egypt, they used to commune in the evening of the Sabbath, on which day there were public assemblies." {1858 JNA, RCSK 26.2}

To enforce the law of the Popes came the war lord Clovis and blessing of the emperor Constantine and then Justinian and the authority of the emperor was given to the Pope to prosecute heretics- judaizers. The Popes became so strong that they would seat and unthroned emperors and place themselves equal with god by the corruption of sacred truths. There was a dispute between Arian and trinitarian theology, that is over the Godhead and the nature of Christ. 'Socrates of Constantinople believed that Arius was influenced in his thinking by the teachings of Lucian of Antioch, a celebrated Christian teacher and martyr.' Lucian of Antioch preserved the scriptures in his day from the contamination of Greek philosophy which was being mixed with God's word in Alexandria and Erasmus used the works of Lucian to establish a pure Bible translation instrumental for at the birth of the reformation.

Lucian of Antioch preserved the writings of scripture handed down from the apostles from the contamination of the school of Alexander which mixed human philosophy with scripture. Lucas paid with his life as a martyr for God's cause. Erasmus translated from scripture Lucas preserved and Tyndale made from Erasmus work what is today the King James Bible, based on the majority text.

To clarify what altered from the apostolic period at this time to establish an apostate church-

- State was joined by church and incorporated in law the shackles of which would not be fully unleashed until the setting up of the constitution of the United States and the imprisonment of the Pope.
- The law of God was altered and enforced, that is a different day of worship and different mediators thus preventing many to access the Word from the tree of life. Revelation 22:14 Blessed [are] they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
- Who God is and the detail of such is made a political/military vehicle and an obstacle to the true gospel
- The church became a weapon of enforcement of its teachings, and false gods representing God by cruelty and false teachings.

The nature of Christ has been a contentious issue that when stated Christ had a fallen nature such as our own led to debate that barred people from congregations and the pulpit. Now some of the dust has settled, the debate over the Trinity or Godhead rages in certain circles and similarly people have separated themselves and people have been prevented from expressing their views. Some are constantly talking of the Father and His Son to express a certain view and only talking on that subject and some will only use Hebrew pronunciation of God's name. What does it tell us that we have come full circle in Christian history and where there is smoke or controversy there is fire or the truth. Where there is debate and contention the mind is stirred for us to consider the facts and arrive at the truth. We should ask God to open our mind to heavenly things and have a spirit suitable for open understanding that is necessary for learning in the courts of heaven.

The ten toe or the ten horns & its relevance to us today.

Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn [were] eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

The plucking up of three horns to establish the little horn in fulfillment of the 1290 years. This occurred in 508 AD

1. Germany is the main spokesman in the united nations today formerly known as the alemanni. Brought back from Lutheranism to Catholicism through the Jesuits. (Saint Petrus Canisius)
2. French or Franks the sons of Rome that made way for little horn and fought her battles and was the centre of persecution during dark ages – for example St Bartholomew massacre.
3. Anglo-Saxons are today in league with the US and since WW II has helped been the eyes and intelligence on war that are increasingly in the interests of Rome via the US and is dragged in with some discomfort because of its Protestant heritage to the UN
4. Burgundians- Switzerland are a people that should have been culpable for war crimes as they dealt in blood money during the WWII & being the Papal guards.
5. Spain or Visigoths is undoubtedly a son of Rome from its long history as it carried the inquisition to the British shores and fought many Papal wars
6. Suevi- Portugal is not a strong partner but a willing one and has a strong Papal history
7. Italy at one time known as Lombards

And these kingdoms, with the papacy, are the elements that compose the Beast and his power, against whose work, with that of the Image of the Beast, the Third Angel's Message utters its solemn warning. {August 28, 1900 ATJ, ARSH 552.18}

The three (horns) which were plucked up, were the Heruli, who occupied Italy; the Vandals, who occupied North Africa; and the Ostrogoths, who had been instrumental in rooting up the Heruli, and who occupied Italy in their place. That "other one," before whom these three were rooted up, is described as having "eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things;" and was, and is, the papacy. {August 28, 1900 ATJ, ARSH 552.15} Three arian powers or Kings were plucked up that made way for the little horn-Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn [were] eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

1. Heruli
2. The Vandals
3. Ostrogoths

A 10-nation military alliance appeared in Europe in 1995, called the Western Europe Union. Though three were plucked up to make way for the Papal state at the end of time Revelation gives us further insight that the beast or antichrist shall stand on 10 toes.

Revelation 17:12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

In the healing of the deadly wound after 1929 a 10-nation alliance would arise in western Europe that would rule with the beast for one hour.

"The issue of European religious union is one that has been concealed even deeper than the plans for political union, but the ratchet towards a Catholic Europe is just as real. The Pope's recent demand that 'God' be featured in the emerging European constitution has been echoed by many leading Catholic politicians and bishops. While on the surface such a reference may offend only Europe's atheist and humanist contingent, it must be observed that when the Vatican refers to God, she sees herself as God's infallible vice-regent upon earth, the leading organ of divine expression; indeed, according to its publication Dominus Iesus (5 September 2000), as the only mediator in the salvation of God's elect, insisting that all other Churches, including the Church of England, 'are not Churches in the proper sense'." That the Papacy is a member of the European union and the only religious group to have a say at its tables is an injustice to humanity to say the least.

And at the time of the end Daniel 11:30-45

The time of the end is after 1798 this is given from the time period of Daniel 12- 1260 and 1290 years terminate in 1798 when after this time knowledge shall be increased see Daniel 12:4

For the Vatican to assume its former power without interference as in ages past it must deal with the Muslims by diplomacy and force. The USA has the firepower and the Vatican loads its bullets so to speak. The king of the north and south are religious-political military powers that are fighting for domination. Revelation 13 also describes the outcome. Daniel 11:40-43 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many [countries] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, [even] Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [shall be] at his steps. Now what of Libya and Egypt today? U.S General Wesley Clark, words went viral 'shortly after the attacks of 9/11, the Pentagon adopted a plan to topple the governments of seven countries; Iraq, Libya, Lebanon, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, and Iran.'

Think about this carefully. Clovis is to the church of Rome what the USA is predicted to be to the Vatican when it shall make an image to the beast and give power to the Bishop of Rome. This prophecy is coming to fulfillment. The US in prophecy is covered in Revelation 13 which informs us by whom the Vatican will be able to exercise his power because he is incapable of acting alone. In Daniel the detail given is only of the conflict between the King of the North and King of the South.

But note the following comment-

"Why was that sketch of the Roman Republic written, and then closed up and sealed until a time two thousand years after that republic had failed as a republic, and had become imperial?—It was because at this time, "the time of the end," there would be another republic that would go over the same course as did that republic,—would apostatize from republicanism into imperialism, and then would become the tool of an apostate church in a union in the very image of the papacy, which was made by such a union with that apostate republic." A.T. Jones

History will be repeated with the rebuilding of the Roman Empire. Where is the fight today? In the middle east. Who is the King of the North? Revelation 13 and the book 'Keys of this blood' by Jesuit insider Malachi Martin point to the first dual hegemony in the history of nations. Who is the king of the south? I believe it is Muhammadanism.

The war that wages is around the temple in Jerusalem and it has always involved a Christian Muslim conflict, not Russian, not communism. The stronger power obviously more dominant is from the North.

The Western Roman Papal empire is remerging to become the world religion.

Predictions about to be fulfilled

The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment as we are told it shall be in the latter days; that time is described in Daniel 12:4 as many shall run to and fro and knowledge shall be increased.

The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. We have no time to lose. Troublous times are before us. The world is stirred with the spirit of war. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place. The prophecy in the eleventh of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Much of the history that has taken place in fulfillment of this prophecy will be repeated. In the thirtieth verse a power is spoken of that "shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant." [Verses 31-36, quoted.] {13MR 394.1}

Scenes similar to those described in these words will take place. We see evidence that Satan is fast obtaining the control of human minds who have not the fear of God before them. Let all read and understand the prophecies of this book, for we are now entering upon the time of trouble spoken of: [Daniel 12:1-4, quoted.] {13MR 394.2}

Soon strife among the nations will break out with an intensity that we do not now anticipate. The present is a time of overwhelming interest to all living. Rulers and statesmen, men who occupy positions of trust and authority, thinking men and women of all classes, have their attention fixed upon the events taking place about us. They are watching the strained, restless relations that exist among the nations. They observe the intensity that is taking possession of every earthly element, and they realize that something great and decisive is about to take place, that the world is on the verge of a stupendous crisis. {Mar 174.4}

The little horn will by flatteries and stealth re-establish itself to its former power (the deadly wound was healed) and will persecute the people of God. It cannot work on its own but relies on the power and allegiance of others.

11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. 11:41

He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many [countries] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, [even] Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. Daniel 8:19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end [shall be].

11:42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

11:43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [shall be] at his steps. 11:44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. From the sides of the North and from the east come the Son of man to deliver His people. Daniel 12 continues this message. A small company who refuse to homage the Papacy and continue to expose the man of sin will be persecuted; this is the nature of the beast. Tidings from the east and the north speak of the coming of Jesus the second time and a people ready for Him but if they be not ready...? for this reason with great fury he (the King of the North) goes to destroy and make away with many.

I have heard that the Muslim power cannot be the King of the North or the King of the south because it is in league with Catholicism and is a tight knit community really working together at the highest levels of the organisation. However the beasts that ascend was the bottomless pit are all linked to Rome to some degree. The Vatican is pushing a This does not ring true with the location and ideology of who is located in Egypt today. The coming of the King of North, that is the Antichrist will secure all of those 'engines' that is those beasts that he has used to wage war and confusion upon the earth, that ascend from the bottomless pit. The king of the south or Egypt shall not escape from the war inflicted upon it from the King of the north, look at the final verses. The removal of the King of the south makes way for the domination from the North and reaching across into Revelation we see 3 frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon who the Bible tells us in Revelation 12 is the devil

– the false prophet apostate Protestantism which makes an image to the beast, the beast (or the King of the North) and that which binds both of them together is spiritism which lays the foundation for the coming false messiah whose wages war by his false teachings and a direct physical assault against God almighty. The war in heaven Satan again hopes to continue on earth in a direct assault against Christ at His coming but is cut short by the power and majesty of God. Revelation 16:13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs [come] out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 16:14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, [which] go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. These religious ideologies draw the kings of the earth to battle in Armageddon.

Daniel 11:45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong [is] the Lord God who judgeth her. yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. Daniel 11:45 Revelation 18:8

Last verse of chapter 11 and 1st of chapter 12

He shall plant his tabernacle between the mountain and the Holy sea and he shall come to his end and none shall help him and at that time shall Michael stand up .. and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation and at that time shall Michael stand up.

Who is the King of the North and who is the King of the South? Is this a physical representation of country when borders and powers change? Or is it the development of religio/ political military power? I hope I have helped to answer some of these questions in this section. Rome from which the church of Rome came, has its seat in the North, sitting in the place of God as one equal to God and above God (thinking to change times and laws) as

The main character that has been developed as the nemesis of God and His people, I would suggest is the King of the North as detailed in Daniel chapters 2,7,8,9 (who aspires to the throne that is on the sides of the North-God's throne) following the development of the beast from Babylon to the Roman power that absorbed all nations (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece) that went before it. The body becomes larger as the kingdoms develop. That which is seemingly complex comes down to our simple model and guide we have for Daniel 11 and 12 and in Daniel 2 the image of a man and in Daniel 3 where the Hebrew are told to worship the image or gold or die- world history made simple and predicted ahead of time.

Zion the throne of God in the sides of the North

The throne of God is on the North (Psalms 48:2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, [is] mount Zion, [on] the sides of the north, the city of the great King. Isaiah 14:13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. and here is a power that begins in the North and invades from the North and remains North in the split of the Grecian empire. Daniel 8 describes the little horn that was different from all that had been before this way 8:8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. 8:9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant [land].)If we are to follow on with Revelation the expansion continues in Chapters 8 & 9.

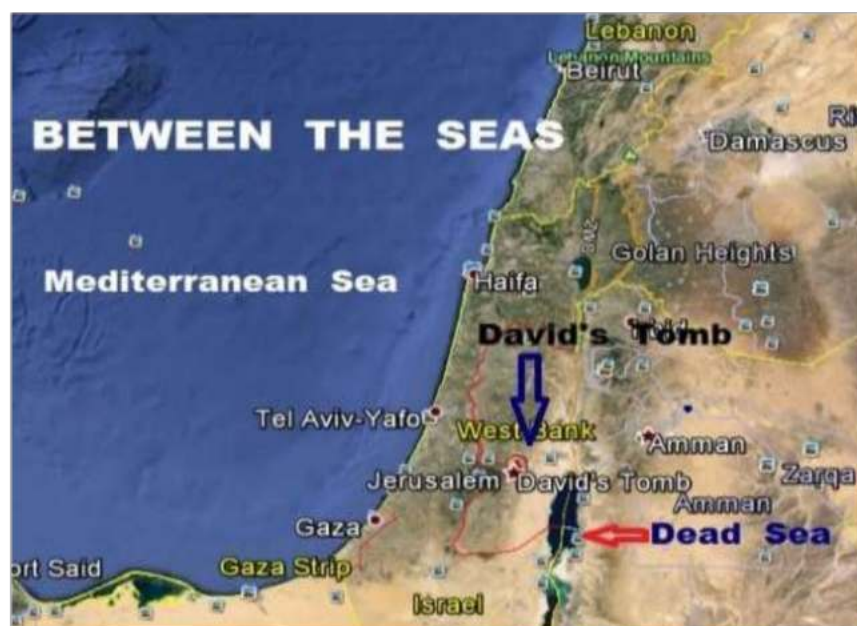

In the end there are only two religions as the beast makes way for the coming of a false messiah (lucifer) which the world hails as Lord and the scene is that which faced those faithful men in Babylon at Mount Dura found in Daniel 3.

America has formally sighted Jerusalem as the capital of Israel to the joy of the evangelicals. 'He' that is the King of the North- clearly the King of the North is apostate Christianity – the little horn and powers it uses underneath it's influence. Daniel 11:44 He shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain.

Daniel 7,8 focuses on the little horn. Daniel 11 spends a lot of time concentrating on the circumstances of how pagan Rome clothed itself with 'Christianity' and follows its path down to the end of time. The little horn of course is the smallest power in the world today a church and state power. Who has been the intermediary between Jews, Christians and Muslims the bridge builder himself. The pope has been furious courting big business, the media, state officials and religious groups.

December 2017 'Early on Wednesday, Francis then met with a delegation of Palestinian intellectual and religious leaders who were at the Vatican for a previously scheduled meeting with the Vatican's interreligious dialogue office. The Vatican and the Palestinians plan to create a permanent working group on interfaith issues.

Speaking to the group, Francis expressed his hope for 'peace and prosperity' for the Palestinian people, and called for dialogue that respects the rights of everyone in the Holy Land.' Vatican II promoted ecumenism and the Jesuits were the main contributors to the ideas put forward and so American evangelicals and others around the world have embraced its theology. Trump declaring Jerusalem the capital of Israel is fulfilling Trump's election promises to the evangelicals and of course the Jews. Next step a temple. Pontifex Maximus the title meaning the greatest bridge builder creates the situation and comes in as the negotiator. What can the Pope do? He shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain - >

In the movements now in progress in the United States to secure for the institutions and usages of the church the support of the state,

Protestants are following in the steps of papists. Nay, more, they are opening the door for the papacy to regain in Protestant America the supremacy which she has lost in the Old World.—
GC 573 (1911).

Pope Francis shakes hands with Palestinian Minister Of Religious Affairs Mahmoud Al-Habbash during a private meeting at the Vatican December 6, 2017.

'Francis expressed his hope for 'peace and prosperity' for the Palestinian people, and called for dialogue that respects the rights of everyone in the Holy Land.' The Papacy negotiables and tolerates where she is helpless. "Every cardinal, archbishop, and bishop in the Catholic Church takes an oath of allegiance to the pope, in which occur the following words: 'Heretics, schismatics, and rebels to our said lord (the pope), or his aforesaid successors, I will to my utmost persecute and oppose.'"—Josiah Strong, Our Country, ch. 5, pars. 2-4.

Then negotiating peace in the world between Muslims and Christians and those of another faith is to the point of when she becomes supreme and then dictates what is truly in her heart. This is how she established her power at the beginning and how it is established again.

Revelation 13 gives further detail here- the lamblike beast gives power to the little horn or the beast from the see who had received the deadly wound. The two make way for the return of the false messiah. A temple prepared for a false messiah in which Jews, Muslims and Christian see the fulfilment of their Christ on earth and the world accepts this antichrist as the genuine.

Daniel 11:45 yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. Daniel 11:45 has its match in Revelation 18:9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, 18:10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

A millennium of peace is declared and the world worships and enforces the worship of a false messiah; at that time the judgements of the 7 last plagues fall.

The building of human history in prophecy is the image of a man. The 10 toes in its simplicity have great relevance to our time and Revelation 13-18 which parallels the story of Daniel 3. Why is the book of Daniel sealed for the time of the end? At the time of end there would be a restoration of the gospel and the pillars of teaching that makes way for the coming of the King. And before the coming of the true Christ in Matthew 24 warns of the coming of the false. In the end there is only one world religion and the book is pointing to the time using 8-time prophecies found in Daniel and Revelation. Daniel 11 is primarily pointing to the construction of this one image that represents Lucifer himself and is giving us the full picture of how this comes about.

As in Revelation 13 the lamblike beast is both a nation and Lucifer so in the end time Daniel points to smallest state of earth- the little horn as opposed to God and His people and the arch enemy Lucifer. He shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

Just as the destruction of Babylon comes directly from God with the falling of the plagues and none shall help him so Lucifer is brought to his end and none shall help him. Ezekiel 28:18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

About God's people in the latter day

Daniel 12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation [even] to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

12:2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame [and] everlasting contempt.

12:3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

12:4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, [even] to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

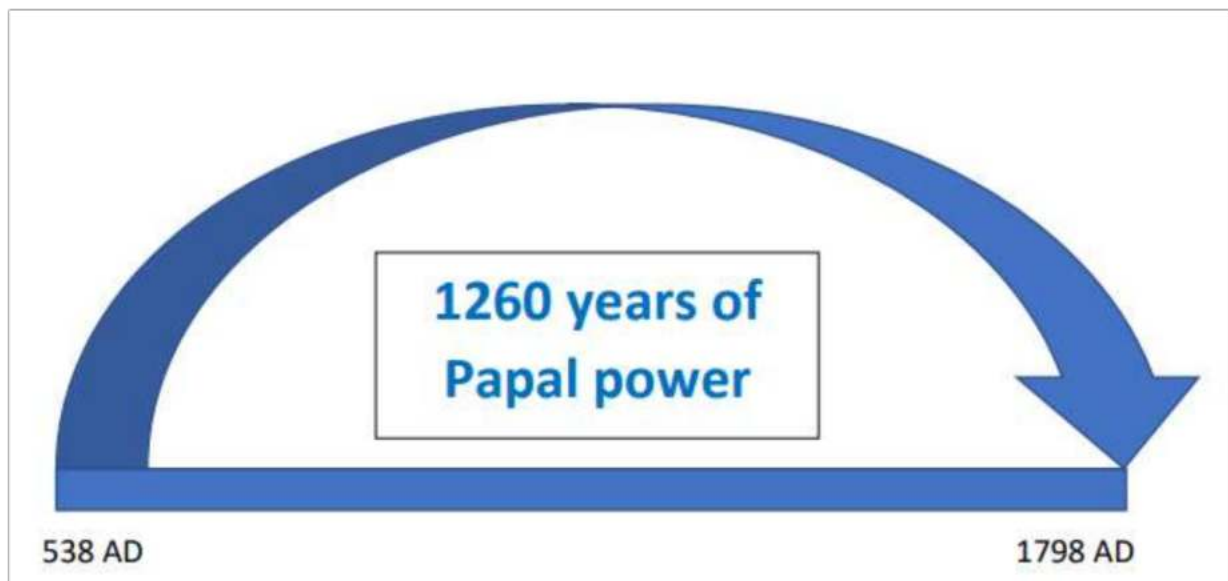

In our day when knowledge and travel world wide is increased and the book of Daniel is unsealed. At the time of the end the little book of Daniel – its prophecies would be opened for investigation and correlates to the time of the investigative judgment. When antichrist has come, a message rings out across the earth not to worship the beast and his image. Christ takes off His priestly garments and adorns Himself with robes of royalty. He returns to raise those dead who have been sleeping in the grave and who have died in hope of His appearing. In the greatest act of creation more powerful and more dramatic than earth's first creation daymillions are raised from the dead at once.

12:5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

12:6 And [one] said to the man clothed in linen, which [was] upon the waters of the river, How long [shall it be to] the end of these wonders?

12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which [was] upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that [it shall be] for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these [things] shall be finished.

For time- that is one year, times 2 years and half a time 3 1/2 years or 42 or 1260 days or years the domination of desolation shall scatter God's people and the priesthood of Christ will be hidden by the work of the Papacy.

7 times marks its importance- use a day for 1 year

- This 1260 day time period is referred to 7 times in the Bible's prophecies
- Scriptures: Daniel 7:25, Daniel 12:7, Revelation 11:2, Revelation 11:3, Revelation 12:6, Revelation 12:14, Revelation 13:5
- 42 months
- 1260 days
- Time, times and half a time- that is 3 ½ years
- 538 AD ← _____ → 1798

12:8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what [shall be] the end of these [things]?

12:9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words [are] closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

12:10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

12:11 And from the time [that] the daily [sacrifice] shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, [there shall be] a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12:12 Blessed [is] he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

12:13 But go thou thy way till the end [be]: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

1335 days & 508 A.D.

The great proclamation of the second coming of Christ culminated in 1843-1844.

Daniel 12:12 Blessed [is] he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

"It is quite evident that, like the Passover, the Feast of Trumpets was both commemorative and typical. It came on days before the day of atonement, the type of the great investigative judgment which opened in 1844, at the end of the long, prophetic period of the twenty-three hundred years of Dan. 8:14.

In the type the trumpets were blown throughout Israel, warning all of the near approach of the solemn day of atonement. In the antitype we should expect some world-wide message to be given in trumpet tones, announcing the time near when the great antitypical day of atonement, the investigative judgment would convene in the heavens.

16 Beginning with the years 1833-34 and extending down to 1844, such a message was given to the world in trumpet tones, announcing, "The hour of His judgment is come." 17 {1914 SNH, CIS 204}

Before the day of atonement arrived, the trumpets heralded the occasion. The prophecies of Daniel were being opened to the minds of the people and preparation was made for the coming of Christ during the period of the great disappointment as described in Revelation 10. This time was called the midnight cry. "In every part of the land, light was given upon the second angel's message, and the cry melted the hearts of thousands. It went from city to city, and from village to village, until the waiting people of God were fully aroused. In many churches the message was not permitted to be given, and a large company who had the living testimony left these fallen churches. A mighty work was accomplished by the midnight cry. The message was heart-searching, leading the believers to seek a living experience for themselves."

2 transition periods

1260 years -Rome had their own authority to persecute and to scatter God's people Daniel 7:25, 12:7

1290 years is given from the time the abomination of desolation is setup in its second phase (from a pagan to a Christian named body) and the Daily taken away directing us at the end time and to its third phase and final phase before the second coming of Christ. Daniel is told to seal the book until the time of the end and it is directing us to two movements that will be the last and only religions to oppose each other at the end of time.

Again, what does the DAILY mean? Some said that this refers to the taking away of Paganism by Clovis when he converted to Christianity. But it is something much more important than this. The Daily ministration of Christ had continued since the beginning of time and visually illustrated through the sanctuary of Israel.

The word Daily itself- short and concise as found in the text in Daniel 8,11,12 follows something we first read in Daniel 1:5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. The idea is that our daily bread, our life itself is from God with its physical but more important its spiritual provisions without which we shall not see eternal life and to which we owe our temporal life. Job 23:12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary [food].

What Daily provision was taken away? Literally the Word of God by the church of Rome, taken from the common person. This was the means through which God by His Spirit communicated with mankind. God in heaven through the ministry of Christ as High Priest ministers to our daily provisions in the sanctified life until the day of our sealing.

Satan had warred against Israel for years through pagan nations and now with the light of the gospel changing the world landscape he dressed Paganism in Christian clothes.

Jesus prayer 'give us this day our daily bread' primarily refers to God's Word and in fact all of God's daily provisions when we recognise Him as our provider. The word supplied in the text 'sacrifice' misdirects us when the meaning is found in the second apartment of the sanctuary where the process of sanctification is taking place and God is supplying our daily spiritual provisions until the day in which we are sealed for eternity.

2 transition periods- 1- 508-538 AD Franks military battles and the Bishop of Rome given secular power; this is the birth of the little horn.

2- 1843-44 AD Napoleon takes away the power of the Papacy and this allows a period of growing enlightenment and liberty until the 1840s when the coming of Christ is first heralded. This is the birth of the little flock.

Little is known of such prophecies till the after the time of the trumpet or the midnight cry of 1843-1844 for the book was sealed until the time of the end. The prophecy's purpose therefore was to direct us to the last two religions that will continue in conflict to the end of time which evolve from the little horn (Rome) and is cemented in position by the coming of antichrist and the other movement born to bear particular truth relating to the heralding of the true gospel heralded across the world culminating in the coming of Christ Himself. What is particular about this gospel is that is a sealing message to prepare a people for translation. Revelation 13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. 13:8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

Is the date 1844 in the middle of nowhere?

The date 1844 is that which ends the 2300 days so what happened? Where is the grand finale? As I stated in the beginning God would manifest Himself to a commandment keeping people. A building or a platform had to be well established and well supported. Worship Him- the commission given to the Jews of old was rejected, Here it is-Daniel 9:24 "Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy". Therefore, the time specific to the Jews was given to the church of God- the very same message. Revelation 14:6-12 gives us the 7th day Sabbath command again to worship Him that made heaven and earth, that is

Step 1 in reference to the platform see the illustration. In worshipping God it is not only a day specific, it is the whole person. 1 Thessalonians 5:23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and [I pray God] your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

When students of prophecy begin to understand the role of prophecy in relation to the judgement and the 144,000, then the time of restoration beginning in 1844, its consequences and meaning becomes very clear. The US was a safe haven for a worldwide restoration of truth that proclaimed the hour of judgment and the second coming of Christ. The judgment is set and the record of those who say that are Christ's come up for review to see if there are suitable candidates for heaven. Here is the scene. The issue at stake is our lives as candidates for eternity.

Daniel 7:9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment [was] white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne [was like] the fiery flame, [and] his wheels [as] burning fire.

7:10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

The health laws, the Sabbath the very things for which the Jesuits and inquisition was established to annihilate, these teachings and heretics: these truths of God were to be revived in a worldwide movement- this is found in the historical teachings of the Seventh Day Adventist Movement. The true gospel involves your 'whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ'. A movement grew out of 1844. A new order of things was to be established in this movement. The very truth that establish a solid platform are revealed by the prophecies.

1. The Sabbath commandment A person who loves God not only keeps His law but loves to do His Will John 14:21-23
2. The sanctuary message with 'daily' the investigative judgment which is cited above in Daniel 7:9-10
3. The Second coming of Christ (as opposed to the coming of antichrist & the false teaching of the rapture.)
4. The state of the dead. It is by a thorough understanding of the state of the dead that a person is shielded from the delusions of the occult. See Ecclesiastes 9:5- the dead know not anything;
I Thessalonians 4:14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

4:15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive [and] remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

4:17 Then we which are alive [and] remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

4:18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

The true gospel is a very unique message of restoration of the thoughts and feelings to be in perfect harmony with God's thoughts and feelings through 'the daily' experience.

The platform to all of this is the gospel. Coming to Christ as you are warts and all and entering into a 'daily' experience with Him to change the thought and feelings and reflect His likeness so the fruits of the Spirit are evident. This is how we pass the judgement scene by beholding and becoming changed.

The steps up to the immoveable platform is understanding the gospel as proclaimed in Revelation 14:6 in relation to God's law which are the keys to the kingdom. Then understanding the right gospel, we can begin to understand the warning messages given Babylon. The pillars of this platform are the Sabbath, the state of the dead, the second coming of Jesus and the sanctuary message. What I have just stated gives us a firm platform of truth. This platform was established after 1844 through the Seventh Day Adventist church. At the end of 1844 just following the Great Disappointment, E G White was given her first vision which was to direct the church in the health movement, prophecy, education and the gospel. God's Spirit was given with power to what would become a world-wide movement. Throughout the ages the Spirit of God has brought message for the time in which people live to give salvation, direction, comfort and hope. During the dark ages this was to the church in the wilderness.

Rome is prepared for two classes of mankind, embracing nearly the whole world,—those who would be saved by their merits, and those who would be saved in their sins. Here is the secret of its power. {GC88 572.2} At the very foundation of God's church is the gospel and that gospel being preached from most pulpits is often turning people back to Rome whether it be a Saturday or a Sunday keeping church. Protestantism never fully shook off the vestiges of that false gospel. The gospel of Christ is unnatural appearing as a paradox. The gospel of Rome appeals to human nature. You can do nothing to save yourself and you can only be saved by the blood of Christ and yet to be saved Christ has stated you must keep His commandments. The key is entering into a relationship with God. Love is the key to a changed heart or a changed nature in which God is doing the work while you are willing to enter into a close relationship with Him.
