

Pictures@13 Part 1

We should be able to use Daniel & Revelation as open books and our guide to those things of significance in world history & news.

What a wonderful opportunity for teachers and educators to really understand and teach modern history. In its real context the books of prophecy, Daniel and Revelation became a fascinating study. Here our focus will be Revelation 13 as the name Pictures@13 describes pictorially everything, we see transpiring around us in the world today.

In Daniel we have the focus on one beast that transforms itself into Rome. This is again the theme continues in the book of Revelation and is described as one of the beasts that ascends from the bottomless pit. However, this is just one of three beasts described in Revelation that ascends from the abyss.

The three beasts that ascend from the bottomless pit, helps us to have a broad overview of current conflicts in the world today and outlines the chain of events we can expect right up to the end of this world's history.

The information age as described in Daniel 12:4, with the explosion of social media and alternative information platforms post 9-11 and the work of many freedom fighters, individuals such Binney and Assange and many independent ministries; these sources of alternative information has uncovered what should be a deep and new perspective of the world scene as it really is. These revelations should make us ready for the events which now, having arrived at the future, is to come upon God's people with blinding force to restrict liberties.

We find the chapters of Revelation divided by good and evil. God's work and the work of Satan and the beasts. It is the full exposure of these truths that would open people's eye and set them free.

Here is a description of events taking place all around us as outlined in Revelation 13 and are coming to fast fulfilment. The prophecies are spiritual and political in nature but we are not to be participants in the world's political activities but observers and active in God's movements for love and world peace as Christ has taught and left His testimony of how all should live.

Now as we proceed in this document our focus is on the USA but why so? It's the one nation built on unique Protestant foundations and blessed of God, with its beginnings as a lamblike or Protestant power that perfectly fits the description of Revelation 13 in the prophetic time stream. 'One under nation under God.' This beast though it appears lamblike grows rapidly and the nature of the beast evolves to speak as a dragon, with cunning deception. The beast with lamblike horns rises from the earth or from a sparsely populated area.

There is another beast also described in Revelation 13 that is an amalgamated beast with all the attributes of the beasts found in Daniel 7, which rises from the sea.

Both these 2 beasts or powers are active in the world today, as described in Revelation 13. This is the picture of our world with prophecy unfolding before our very eyes.

In Revelation chapter 13 [VERSES 1-10.] is described another beast, "like unto a leopard," to which the dragon gave "his power, and his seat, and great authority." This symbol, as most Protestants have believed, represents the papacy, which succeeded to the power and seat and authority once possessed by the ancient Roman Empire. Of the leopard-like beast it is declared: "There was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies. . . . And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in Heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them; and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations." This prophecy, which is nearly identical with the description of the little horn of Daniel 7, unquestionably points to the papacy.

The United States as a wonderful empire, which was "emerging," and "amid the silence of the earth daily adding to its power and pride. Two horns like a lamb is the secret of her power which stands for Protestantism and Republicanism. She has been a bastion for God's people who sort shelter from the feudal system of church and state. {GC88 439} From the book the Great Controversy written in 1888.

In Daniel 7 we have a leopard representing Greece and in Daniel 8 we have a goat representing this same power. The goat ran from the West and its feet touched not the ground and it smote the Ram with its single horn representing its first King Alexander the great and from that horn the four divisions of Greece and from one of those horns a little horn which is Rome to then transform into the Roman Catholic church. A power that grows out of the West amongst the sea of the western nations. The amalgamated beast of Revelation 13 is a compilation of those powers starting with Babylon as described in Daniel 7.

Some of the symbols the Bible uses to represent future events.

Money for clandestine operations

The story of Garden of Eden and the serpent and the tree that man decided to eat from is further illustrated by Adam's first-born son Cain killing his younger brother Abel. Similar imagery is given in the story of Romulus and Remus, twin brothers born of a vestal virgin, their father a former king. Seeing the twins as a threat to the reigning king he ordered them to be killed so they were abandoned on the banks of the Tiber at the place that would become the legendary city of Rome.

There they were protected by the river god and suckled in a cave by a she-wolf to be adopted by a shepherd. Now skipping the detail of this story, we fast forward to when as young adults they went out to build a city at the place of the seven hills. The twins could not agree on the place in which to establish the city with Romulus choosing the Palatine Hill, and Remus preferring the Aventine Hill. They looked for a sign from the gods which ended in a dispute. Romulus killed his brother and went on to establish the city of Rome in what is known as the forum today, the seat of Pontifex Maximus and the house of the vestal virgins. The story marks the nature of the beast which the Bible describes as the abomination of desolation whose army's standard is the dragon.

The forum in Rome- the birth of city of Rome and her church. In this place the high priest Pontifex Maximus and his vestal virgins would become known throughout the world as the Pope of Rome as high priest to his cardinals and bishops and the vestal virgins as his nuns. And of course, the mystic Mary the queen of heaven, born of supernatural origins.

What the Bible gives us in Revelation is an overview to a wealth of knowledge for those living at this time but often unseen because they choose to be ignorant of history and scripture. The Bible illustrates purity and corruption through two women symbolic of two churches and makes this statement concerning one of these two women.

And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. This directs us to uncover who is behind the confusion found in the world today. As go along this is not an understatement {Revelation 18:24}

And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. The US giving aid to Rome. {Revelation 13:3}

Bible prophecies are military such as the trumpets of Revelation, political giving us an overview of policies between nations and spiritual, revealing the religious fight for what is real and what are half-truths. The sentences are there to open to us the keys to unfolding a wealth of knowledge.

Post WWII History

Wild Bill Donovan was a decorated American national war hero with 2 purple hearts which he received for his bravery in the first world war. In 1945 he received the highest order for a civilian from the Pope – the Order of Saint Sylvester- the Knight Grand Cross. His background was an Irish Catholic affectionally known as 'wild Bill Donovan'.

The Americans had decided it preferable to make alliances with the Nazis after their defeat rather than communist Russia. Their sympathies and 'Christian' background they considered more in line with fascism than Russian communists. Money and resources were to be used to aid stay back units in what was called operation Gladio to fight the communists using espionage to prevent Communist progress in Europe. No doubt the Communists were cruel dictators but what of the west and the route it would follow all in the name of freedom and democracy? The end of WWII perhaps was a time of great prosperity and pleasure in the West but it came at some incredible cost as we review the wars that continue under the US industrial military complex.

Paul Helliwell of the South Eastern division of the newly formed CIA came up with an idea which he presented to Wild Bill the new founding head of the CIA and former OSS leader. Paul Helliwell like Donovan who was a lawyer, was an attorney and banker. Helliwell set up the Civil Air Transport and the castle bank of the Bahamas for whom he was counsel as well as setting up 'black gold' accounts. Helliwell headed the OSS before Wild Bill replaced this senior position and he was "deeply involved" in financing covert actions.

"Acts of terrorism will seem to have emanated from our adversaries, and pressure brought to bear on people in whom power is invested at every level.

That will create a feeling of hostility; at the same time we must rise up as defender of the citizenry against the disintegration brought about by terrorism and subversion...."

(Aginter Press)

When in China Helliwell had aided Chiang Kai-shek who was general of the Chinese National Army. Chiang Kai-shek sold cocaine to drug addicts to aid his war against the communists and Helliwell supplied shipments of Cocaine to the Chinese general.

Paul Helliwell received a medal for his OSS service in China. E. Howard Hunt was a young recruit for the OSS during Helliwell's command in China whose notoriety is for his memoirs of Guatemala, the Bay of pigs and "Watergate".

It is interesting to note where a person is educated and the result of such for war or peace. It would appear that man becomes almost mindless and demoralized by some forms of university education.

Helliwell ('snake oil salesmen') met with Donovan and Dulles (Allen Dulles was an American diplomat and lawyer of the Swiss OSS division during WWII who attended the Catholic Princeton university and would head up the CIA as the longest serving director until his resignation) said why don't we do what Chiang

Kai-shek did in China fighting against the Chinese. We can sell heroin to the black communities in America, introducing it into the jazz clubs where marijuana is already prevalent. By this the CIA would have money for their clandestine or special ops without accountability to the American tax payers. These operations conducted on foreign soil was to be paid for by illicit drug money. The money was to fund an invisible army. Woe unto you, lawyers! { Luke 11:52} Could we say lawyers played a significant role in many wars and political activities of today?

Morphine was originally invented in Germany and shortly after found its way to the United States. It became widely used for the soldiers of the Civil War in the 1800s. It's incredible that Heroin was originally produced as a cure for morphine addiction and today we hear of morphine being used for heroin addiction. The snake oil man would likely have a glass of heroin amongst his medicines. Drug companies once touted morphine and heroin which came with hypodermic needle, for all types of physical and mental ailments ranging from alcohol withdrawal to cancer, depression, sluggishness, coughs, colds, tuberculosis and even old age. And the curse of allopathy continued as heroin was a major source of income for the CIA for their wars throughout the 21st century.

Civil Air Transport, once a Nationalist Chinese airline, later owned by the CIA was used on round trips in which arms were dropped off in Burma and drugs loaded onto the planes. Opium and their operations including the Chinese civil war, the Vietnam war, the Korean war to name a few.

Drugs the cruse of the western world was used to fund terrorist activities on home soil and abroad. Did the service men of the Second World really die for this sort of outcome?

The CIA is a very elite organisation of people related to news outlets, bankers, oil barrens and legal firms with people like the Rockefellers, Carnegie, DuPont, and wall street businessmen. The CIA earnt itself the names like "Catholic Intelligence Agency" and "Catholics In Action" with a high number of Catholics who have served as the agency directors. The CIA established a Vatican desk in 1950 and was paying 20 million a year to the Pope without the American people's knowledge. It is formed for the elimination of American sovereignty and for the formation of One World Government under Rome's control. Rome realises the USA is one of the most significant components to the New World Order.

'Donovan already had extensive contacts within the Church. He was friendly with Cardinal Francis Spellman of New York, a dedicated anti-communist. Cardinal Spellman acted as Donovan's liaison to other Catholics, including an apostolic delegate in Washington who promised intelligence reports from Catholic diplomats in Europe and Japan. Donovan also worked with a Belgian Dominican priest, Fr Felix Morlion, to set up a separate Catholic espionage operation in Europe called Pro Deo. The OSS shut down in 1945, but US intelligence and the Catholic Church remained strongly connected. The United States is a country in which – with the recent exception of the Supreme Court – Catholics have never dominated the highest offices. Only one out of 44 US Presidents has been Catholic. The first and only Catholic Vice President is the current one, Joe Biden. Before John Kerry, the last Catholic Secretary of State was Alexander Haig, who left the post in 1982. Catholics are a rarity in other top positions such as Secretary of Defence. By contrast, three out of the last five CIA directors have been Catholic: Michael Hayden, Leon Panetta, and the current director, John Brennan. Looking back, a number of Catholics led the agency in critical periods during the Cold War. (There were no Catholic directors in the 1990s.)

Some of the most influential directors in CIA history have been Catholic – men such as Walter

Bedell Smith, John McCone, William Colby and William Casey. They were not just casual Catholics. They were devout Mass-goers – in many cases, members of groups like the Knights of Malta.’ Why Catholics thrive in the CIA Robert Vargas May 5, 2016

Heroin was not the only drug the CIA was handling, also cocaine in south America in countries like Bolivia in the early 1970s, laundered through Vatican holding companies in Panama and the Bahamas.

Mussolini: ‘Fascism is a religion.’ The twentieth century will be known in history as the century of Fascism.

One of the most important places which has affected the destiny of historical world events is the Lateran square. The Castra Nova equitum singularium, was an ancient Roman fort constructed by emperor Septimius Severus, who had removed palatial houses of several wealthy Roman citizens in order to make room for his stables, which housed part of the emperor's cavalry bodyguard. This area was levelled shortly after the Battle of Milvian Bridge in 312AD when Constantine the Great handed over this site for the first Roman basilica which was constructed in 324 AD.

All Popes were enthroned here till 1780. At St John of Lateran Basilica’s entrance is the inscription in Latin which means "mother and head of all the churches of Rome and the rest of the world." The white Papal throne indicates the importance of this church as head over all the Catholic faith. There is a large area of space underneath the Lateran that it is possible to walk or crawl through at varying levels, up to 8.5m below ground level. St John Lateran was constructed before St Peters Basilica.

At the opposite side of the Basilica of St John of Lateran is a 32 metre Egyptian Obelisk with inscriptions of pharaoh presenting an offering to the gods, which is also dedicated to Constantine who ordered its transportation from Egypt down the Nile weighing 455 tonnes. The Egyptian Obelisk is highest in the world and is a good representation of the melding of pagan and Christian religions by Constantine. Constantine died before this project was complete.

Across the road is Scala Sancta's 'Holy stairs,' the stairs on which Luther started on in knees in penitence to rise and proclaim to the world the 'Just shall live by faith.' The staircase was moved in 1589 from where Luther would have seen them in the Lateran Palace.

Mussolini Deal

Mussolini made a deal with the Vatican for votes in exchange for over $92,000,000 and reacquisition of buildings, lands and self-autonomy.

The amount is staggering in context of this being the beginning of the great depression and the state of the Italian economy at that time. In 1945 Mussolini was executed and communism was threatening Italy. For the Pope it was too close to home for Italy to fall into the communists' hands. The Pope met Donovan and it was agreed that the CIA would assist the Vatican and the Vatican bank would be used for their clandestine activities.

Pictures @ 13 is a picture of the real world that surround us of espionage, divide & conquer.

Operation Gladio appropriately stood for the name of the Roman soldier's short sword used in battle. It is really representative of Rome after the deadly healing of the wound as a fulfilment of Revelation 13:3. Gladio was stay back units after the second world war that included German War criminals that was used as fighting militia to stop communist advance in Europe funded by the American victors and supported by the church of Rome. This means the Vatican would run its political mission through an American alliance. Remember how in recent times there was scandal at the bank but the detail remained a bit fuzzy when it came to reports. Cell groups under Operation Gladio became terrorist organizations that would carry out clandestine operations and blame it on left wing communists and socialist regimes. False flag terrorist operations would mark post second war history.

Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? 5:11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base. {Zechariah 5:10}

Shinar meaning 'Babylonia which represented the seat of false religion or a false measure.' The teachings of the world have been influenced by her doctrines, commerce, espionage and wars. The woman with her wickedness and idolatry is removed from the Holy Land to Babylon.

To distribute the drugs a network was needed and the mafia the obvious choice with Priests to transfer money through to the Vatican bank. It is interesting to note the start of the Vatican bank was in 1942 as a valuable means of holding funds that would remain undetected, similar to the banks of Switzerland. The amount of money run through the Vatican bank because of the billions in drug money required many outlets such as the Castle Bank & Trust in Miami and Cayman Islands through Helliwell and the Nugan Bank in Australia. The CIA were wealthy men as bankers and lawyers with vital skills in setting up merchant banks for CIA interests. Their operations were highly fraudulent and criminal but considered in national interest allowing them to operate above the law without coming under scrutiny most of the time.

The Vatican being its own sovereign state and working in its own particular fashion was a perfect way to hide the CIA financial sources, well for a time anyway. Lucky Luciano of the mafia who had been active in the giving information to the allies in the war was the man to head up this line of work.

Lucky Luciano of Mafia fame, was employed by the CIA for heroin and other drug distribution to fund clandestine operations

The following article has this to say concerning The Institute for the Works of Religion or the Vatican Bank:

“World War II also played a huge role in the creation of the Vatican Bank, as well as the unique power it held. As the Allies imposed restrictions on bank accounts, it became harder to move money around.

Nogara created the bank, called the Institute for Religious Works, in 1942 to avoid having financial transactions tracked through Western Banks. Because it resided in Vatican City, it was exempt from all wartime restrictions and became “the world’s best offshore bank.” The craziest financial schemes that the Vatican Bank tried to cover up. STEPHANIE YANG FEB 28, 2015

The Vatican Bank is run by a hand full of catholic leader that answer only to the Pope himself.

The Vatican plays all sides as it did in the world war, escalating wars, ever developing its power with the winning side until as in Revelation 18 we see the woman representing the church having ultimate control.

The CIA had a seat at the Vatican and used its bank for its purposes and kept highly classified US military documents including nuclear in its care which was revealed in 2007 in holocaust law suit- Alperin vs Vatican Bank. Underneath the pine cone courtyard is the Vatican library and a nuclear shelter.

Pine Cone Courtyard

An extension of the Vatican library was dug beneath the Pine Cone Courtyard. Inaugurated by John Paul II in 1980, it is veritable anti-nuclear bunker build entirely in reinforced concrete on two floors. All together, the extension measures 31,000 square meters and contains no fewer than 43 kilometers of shelves.

CIA operative says the American people are the primary target audience of its lies.

Ralph McGehee former CIA man retired with CIA recommendations in 1977 tells us something of the nature of the beast. 'The CIA is not now nor has it ever been a central intelligence agency. It is the covert action arm of the President's foreign policy advisers. In that capacity it overthrows or supports foreign governments while reporting "intelligence" justifying those activities. It shapes its intelligence, even in such critical areas as Soviet nuclear weapon capability, to support presidential policy. Disinformation is a large part of its covert action responsibility, and the American people are the primary target audience of its lies.' Inside the Company: CIA diary published in 1974 the US government.

US government took court action to censor McGehee's book prior to publication.

The little horn a focus of Daniel & Revelations prophecies

In Daniel the Papacy is described as the 'little horn' and because it is the smallest state or country on earth it requires the power of another country to fight its wars. The little horn (Daniel 7) apply describes Rome as the smallest country on earth after book of Daniel was unseal in 1843- 1844 and the Vatican was given back its estate in 1929 fulfilling the prophecies of Revelation 13:3 and 17:8,11. In Revelation 13 the Bible shows us that the two beasts together because of the alliance the Papacy makes with the beast with lamb-like horns describing the USA with its Protestant beginnings, brings the end scenario of sanctions leading to a time when one shall not be able to buy and sell unless they receive the mark of the beast.

Revelation 13 is a chapter describing the actions of two beasts- one from the sea with water representing nations and peoples Revelation 17:15, having all the attributes of the Beasts found in Daniel 7 to describe the Papacy and the second beast from the earth having lamb-like horns but speaking as a dragon to describe the USA as it takes to itself the same mind set as the Papacy. It is in this context that the Papacy becomes powerful, for its power is restored through his alliance with Protestant America.

Revelation 13:4 Who [is] like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? Who really is behind the deep state of the USA today? There is no other beast like this religious political body. Others nations fight the Papacy's wars spending their money on arms while she profits from the strength of other nations leading to that nation's eventual destruction like in the French revolution.

A prophetic time line was given for the Papal beast, mentioned 7 times to denote its importance. The timeline does not indicate the time of its absolute rule as some have inaccurately stated but from its infancy when its autonomy was first given her till the autonomy was taken away by Napoleon as shown in the illustration.

Vatican II

Vatican II was a big event with '2,000 and 2,500 bishops and thousands of observers, auditors, sisters, laymen and laywomen to four sessions at St. Peter's Basilica between 1962 and 1965.' The most significant event of last century was probably Vatican II where the Pope and the Jesuits delivered a model on which to go forward for world domination. This was always the aim of the church but within the church especially the Jesuits, the church's military arm. Many traditional Catholics are upset with the direction of the present Pope saying he is not a Pope but all he is doing is delivering the Vatican II model to the church and to the world with the aim of world domination.

"The attacks against Pope Francis in the church today" are "a fight between those who want the church dreamed of by the Second Vatican Council and those who do not want this," Arturo Sosa, the Superior General of the Jesuits, stated at the Foreign Press Association in Rome on Sept. 16 2019.

In the councils John Courtney Murray a Jesuit priest focused on religious freedom and the democratic modern state in the document 'Dignitatis humanae' developed from St John XXIII encyclical 'Peace on Earth', the aim of course was at the western countries particularly the United States because of its constitution based on religious liberty and separation of church and state. The Vatican waged war against the USA government's constitution since its foundation which is based on separation of church and state, for it hated religious liberty in its true sense. In typical fashion the Vatican presents religious liberty for the faith through the legislation for the church by the state and this is what drove the inquisition. It is interesting to note that John Courtney Murray constructed the interfaith 1943 declaration of world peace after the second world war. Murray also promoted a close constitutional arrangement between the restored German state and the church with tax being directed to its institutions.

In 2019 what are these two leaders Greta Thunberg and Trump delivering Vatican II to the United Nations Assembly! Trump represented religious liberty and Greta liberation theology. Think it through. Both were representing Jesuit ideology.

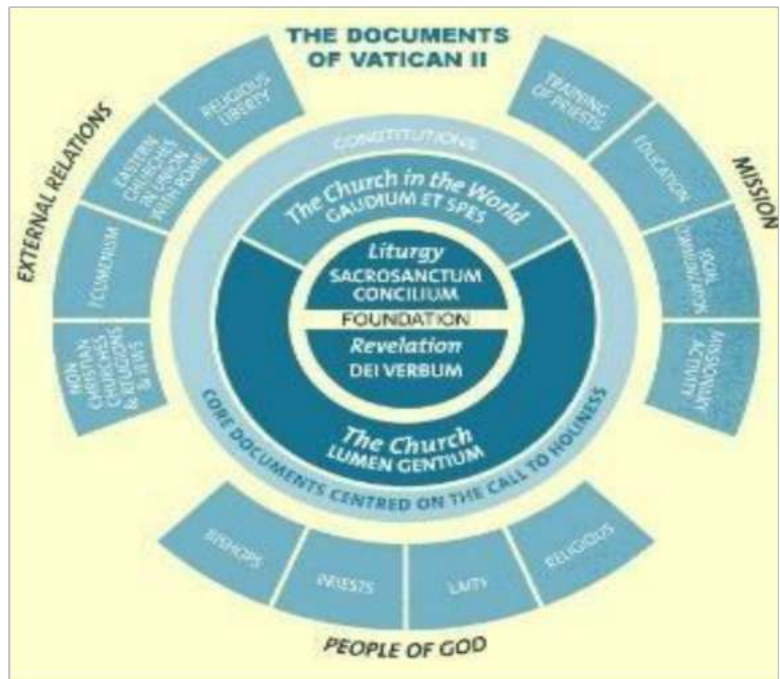

In Vatican II there was also the call for missionaries, interfaith dialog to strengthen relationships with other faiths. Pope Francis calls 'proselytizing a grievous sin' but why does he get away with that non sense? Because he has captured the hearts of men to make something irrational seems reasonable.

Someone has neatly outlined Vatican II with external relations noted on the upper left-hand side as religious liberty, eastern churches relation with Rome, ecumenism, non-religious churches & cults.

In October 14 2022 an article by Terence Sweeney in America Magazine a Jesuit publication headlined: 'Vatican II didn't fail. It's just getting started.' 'Vatican II gave us the tools and the evangelical vision. Vatican II prepared us for a world that is evangelical territory.'

'There is no space left where temporal power can be used to batter people into the pews. The council taught us to give up on coercion, to instead live evangelically.' This is a very significant statement which give us the Vatican's focal point.

Vatican II sums up the tension in the world today

'At one extreme we have a tiny faction of liberals, styling themselves 'the People of God', who invoke Vatican II in their attempts to secularise the Catholic Church. They won't be satisfied until every church has been forced to install a transgender lavatory for guests attending same-sex weddings. Granted, the subject didn't crop up in the disquisitions of the Council fathers, but it's in the 'spirit of Vatican II'. At the other extreme we have several small factions of traditionalists who dislike the Council with different degrees of vehemence. The craziest of these, who inhabit the border between the official Church and quasi-Catholic sects, are inspired by the conspiracy thinking of the American Right. They've always thought the Council was staged by Freemasons. Now the Catholic LGBT+ lobby has persuaded them that they were 'Homomasons', funded by George Soros.'

NSA

NSA was established in 1952 to protect classified National security intelligence information. Collect information from abroad and carry out network warfare domestically and abroad.

Over 60 year later it would be exposed as an organisation illegally spying on its own citizens. Remembering NSA's close association with CIA and above the law criminal activities.

'Seven years after the former National Security Agency contractor Edward Snowden blew the whistle on the mass surveillance of Americans' telephone records, an appeals court has found the program was unlawful – and that the US intelligence leaders who publicly defended it were not telling the truth... NSA was secretly building a vast database of US telephone records'.

Drugs & Phycological warfare

Operation MK-ULTRA 'Funded in part by the Rockefeller and Ford foundations, research includes propaganda, brainwashing, public relations, advertising, hypnosis, and other forms of suggestion.'

MK-ULTRA is a continuation of what began in Japanese and Nazi concentration camps hiring some of the same enemy vivisectionists (surgery conducted on a living animal for experimental purposes) and torturers with detention centres in Japan, Germany and the Philippines. MK-ULTRA in other words is that which started as 'operation paperclip'.

The CIA began mind experiments in 1953 led by Dr. Sidney Gottlieb known as the "Black Sorcerer" which continued till 1973. Gottlieb bought up all the LSD supplies and brought them to the US for CIA experimentation thus leading to the LSD culture of the 60s. He 'wanted to create a way to seize control of people's minds, and he realized it was a two-part processFirst, you had to blast away the existing mind. Second, you had to find a way to insert a new mind into that resulting void. We didn't get too far on number two, but he did a lot of work on number one." Gottlieb would see how much LSD he could feed a man until he lost his mind. In a meeting with CIA agents Gottlieb spiked the leading agents' drinks including Frank Olsen's drink with LSD which led to his death several days later. "The most efficient accident, in simple assassination, is a fall of 75 feet or more onto a hard surface."

Many years later Olen's death would result in the 1975 investigation and exposure of MK Ultra at the highest levels of government, shutting down of the program but the work of Dr. Gottlieb would continue. Olsen was a bacteriologist whose work included using aerosolized anthrax. Other biological toxins developed under Gottlieb include tularemia, brucellosis,, smallpox, tuberculosis and equine encephalis.

Many Seventh day Adventist were also experimented on during this period as willing participants and conscientious objectors to the Vietnam war in 'Operation whitecoat'.

Hypnosis, torture and electric shock treatment together with drugs such as LSD, psilocybin, mescaline, cocaine, AMT and DMT were used on expendable prisoners overseas for mind control, information gathering and phycological torture. Hospitals, prisons and universities were used for unsuspecting US citizens to research conditions such as schizophrenia using drug experimentation.

Gottlieb devised many ways to use biological toxins for assassination including Castro, Abdul Karim Kassem of Iraq, Patrice Lumumba of the Congo.

Psychic driving was a procedure funded by the CIA in the 1950s and 1960s through Dr Cameron in Canada, using continuously repeated audio message to alter their behaviour. At the same time, they were administered muscular paralytic drugs or LSD and Electroconvulsive therapy (ECT). The intention was to breakdown the subject's personality.

Fort Detrick Maryland pictured right, where many of the CIA experimentation took place including biologicals weapon experimentation. The Biological Weapons Convention (BWC) negotiated in the United Nations' a disarmament forum starting in 1969, entered into force on March 26, 1975.

In 2019 Fort Detrick, the National Center for Medical Intelligence of the CIA was closed for 6 months just prior to the coronavirus outbreak. The outbreak of coronavirus that stopped the world had amazing timing to what people had been warning as an expected great depression. Now Fort Detrick is leading the race to find a vaccine for coronavirus which a few have suggested as the source of the outbreak however this is unconfirmed. Just the welcome sign will raise questions about this military facility. Why a national Cancer Institute at this important military installation?

Building 470 or "the Tower", or "Anthrax Tower" was demolished in 2003. Just seven days after the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, a letter was sent with deadly anthrax spores to media companies and congressional offices killing 5 people when inhaling anthrax from the letters they opened and 22 others were infected. It was considered an inside job because of the strain of anthrax used. Bruce E. Ivins was named as a suspect, a top biodefense researcher who committed suicide in 2008. Though Ivins' was only circumstantial evidence, all finger pointed to Fort Detrick since the time of the attacks. Fort Detrick, Maryland, is the clearing ground for classified information and analysis related to the coronavirus outbreak. Pandemic simulations have been held over a number of years. In October 2019, May 2018, January 2015, and June 2001.

"People who intentionally spread the coronavirus could face criminal charges under federal terrorism laws...Because Coronavirus appears to meet the statutory definition of a 'biological agent'... such acts potentially could implicate the Nation's terrorism-related statutes," Attorney General Jeffrey Rosen.

"Unlike anthrax or smallpox, influenza is available, it can be aerosolised, the incubation period is short and inoculation doesn't protect you during this time...Moreover, if an epidemic starts, it may look natural because flu happens every year.....mortality due to influenza in the USA alone is much more than previously estimated—probably 90 000 annually rather than the reported 20 000— once the effect on the heart is taken into account". What general principles and specific things can we learn from this-

Satan has his agents that work by the principal the end justifies the means and is an organization of stealth.

The drug culture of the West was the result of CIA activity.

Don't volunteer for drugs experiments as you don't know who is really behind it- people are always being asked to assist in trailed drug experiments.

Biological weapons are easily manufactured even though there is a signed agreement amongst the United Nations as evident with the 2001 anthrax incident.

That continued development of these weapons comes under the guise of research and working for the common good

The CIA has learnt from the past and works with greater efficiency in covering its tracks

"I saw that the powers of earth are now being shaken and that events come in order. War, and rumors of war, sword, famine, and pestilence are first to shake the ... then the voice of God will shake the sun, moon, and stars, and this earth also."

"Satan is exercising his power. He sweeps away the ripening harvest, and famine and distress follow. He imparts to the air a deadly taint, and thousands perish by the pestilence." E.G, White published 1882

Notice inspiration tells us these events come in order. Man is inspired by Satan; war, destruction by sword and explosives and then famine and pestilence. So where do we see this? Everyone has reported on the Ebola virus starting in Sierra Leon and then spreading into Liberia and how the United Nations and US were racing for a vaccine.

The real problem is not the viruses hidden in the jungle and as man clears the jungle and people become contaminated as the news has reported. Biolabs were intentionally developing deadly viruses. A civil war since the 1990s with Cannibalism, boy soldiers fighting and killing and on heroin, sewerage in the streets, no basic hygiene with faeces on the beach and sewerage flowing in the street. These were the real issues.

Here we have images of young girls with their limbs hacked off from the civil war in Sierra Leon. The cause of the problem is the war to control the diamond mines from multinationals such as Britain and others in a country with poverty in which companies exploit a country and give little back in return.

CDC relationship to the CIA

“The timing of the CDC’s establishment in 1946 soon after at the end of war and “distinguished scientists” filling its laboratories is significant because it coincides with the US Government’s program Operation Paperclip, under the Office of Strategic Services (OSS – later the CIA).

Guatemala coup

Several hundred records were released by the CIA May 23, 1997 on its involvement in the 1954 coup in Guatemala. They reflected Truman Administration feeling on the government of Arbenz government, elected in 1950, would continue a process of socio- economic reforms that the CIA disdainfully refers to in its memoranda as 'an intensely nationalistic program of progress colored by the touchy, anti-foreign inferiority complex of the 'Banana Republic.'

'CIA and IC reports tended to support the view that Guatemala and the Arbenz regime were rapidly falling under the sway of communism. DCI Walter Bedell Smith...believed the situation called for action. Their assessment was that without help, the Guatemalan opposition would remain inept, disorganized and inefficient. The anti-Communist elements -- the Catholic hierarchy, landowners, business interests, the railway workers union, university students and the Army were prepared to prevent a Communist accession to power, but they had little outside support.'

Operation PBSUCCESS was launched by the US using 'sabotage, defection, penetration, and propaganda efforts' to topple the Guatemalan government and military. Árbenz was the nation's second democratically elected president.

The US had control of agriculture through united food company in Guatemala to sell to America and Europe. Arbenz's land reform was to nationalize land for the poor and this included land held by the united food company an American company. The US also had almost total Control of Guatemala's railways and telecommunications.

The anti-socialist elements -- the Catholic hierarchy, landowners, business interests, the railway workers union, university students and the Army were prepared to prevent a 'Communist accession to power.'

The US must get the American people on side to justify their involvement therefore the US Government sanctioned a fake media set up, to make false allegations of Guatemalan communist ties. The US government set up a false media Centre to spread its communist assertions through to the public media outlets and media reporters were directed to those with anti-government sentiments.

From Honduras the US dispatched a small band of mercenaries and when this failed the CIA sent in their own planes and men to bomb the capital.

Roman Church after being sanctioned by Cardinal Spellman used its intelligence to call the people to rise up. Mario Casariego y Acevedo a Spanish Cardinal of the Catholic Church supported the new regime after Arbenz, serving as Archbishop of Guatemala City from 1964 until his death, and was elevated to the cardinal late in 1969 and had to travel with two armed motor guards alongside his vehicle. Hundreds of laymen and priests unsuccessfully petitioned his resignation.

There is an uprising amongst the military. President Nixon is shown fake evidence of communist material at the overthrow. Investigations by USA showed that this operation flawed and done in purely American interests.

‘After the campaign, the CIA sent a handful of agents to Guatemala in order to gather and analyse government documents that would, amongst other things, find evidence that would support the CIA’s belief that Guatemala was a rising Soviet puppet state, in an operation that was known as Operation PBHISTORY. Despite amassing well over 150,000 pages, they found very little to substantiate the key premise of the invasion.’

From that time for the next 30 years the country was plagued with fascists leaders who were American puppets. The peasants lost their land rights and peasants were slaughtered and political opponents tortured. Suspected insurgence were tortured by various means such stabbed, burnt alive, strangled. People were slaughtered by the thousands so much so at one time it was hard to keep up to the burying. Between the years of 1954 when Arbenz resigned till 1990, ‘more than 100,000 civilians were murdered by the successive military regimes.’

Hoover report 1954 says this “It is clear that we are facing an implacable enemy whose avowed object is world domination. There are no rules in such a game. Hitherto accepted norms of human conduct do not apply. If the United States is to survive longstanding concepts of fair play must be reconsidered. We must learn to subvert, sabotage and destroy our enemies by more clever, more sophisticated, more effective methods than those used against us.” What does this sound like? It was a fundamental principle of the (Jesuit) order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, theft, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of State, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations.

“By the 1950s and the 1960s the CIA gave economic support to many activities promoted by the Catholic church from orphanages to missions. Millions of dollars each year were given to a great number of Bishops and Monsignors. One of them was Cardinal Giovanni Battista Montini (who became Pope Paul

VI)" David Yallop, In God's name: An investigation into the murder of Pope John Paul I 1984. P108

The strongest ally for the American in its fight against socialist regimes is the Catholic church. The CIA contacted Cardinal Spellman for their psychological war against Árbenz in Guatemala. Juan Jacobo Árbenz Guzmán known as Árbenz was a Guatemalan military officer who was the second democratically elected President of Guatemala from 1951 to 1954 until the US decided otherwise.

"We Marxists will have to fight side by side in central America with Marxists who do not believe in God, in order to reform a new social society .. a pure central American model" The Jesuits by Malachi Martin p19.

This becomes an important statement in light of the changing world with the Papacy planning to install a Marxist worldwide system under the name of inclusive capitalism. We see it in full swing of change since the coronavirus crisis. In 1953 Allan Dulles the agencies director recruits E Howard Hunt as the propaganda chief to oust Ardenz. "We got the ok from cardinal Spellman to go ahead with this and I wouldn't presume to trace the lines of authority within the catholic church. How they get the information that they do. I have always said in an admiring way the Jesuits formed the greatest intelligence service in the world and always have." The Jesuit strategy of tension is to create war between opposing sides and come in as the peace maker. 'There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume.'

Engineering of consent

The engineering of consent is the very essence of the democratic process, the freedom to persuade and suggest. – (Edward L. Bernays, "The Engineering of Consent", 1947) Edward Bernays' (American Austrian) work including books with the titles: Crystallizing Public Opinion (1923) and Propaganda (1928) helped define how business was conducted and war was also to be conducted by engineering the American public's consent.

Working for United Fruit at over $100,000 per annum, it became in Bernays's interest to advise them to pressure the government and petition congress. Bernays cited the Munroe doctrine as a reason for US intervention. The Monroe doctrine was an ideal the US kept up until WWII in terms of multilateralism and non-intervention unless there was threat to the homeland and was named after President Monroe. However, like most things this came to be reinterpreted just as the US constitution is being reinterpreted today and under pressure to be changed. The constitution which the US foundation is that which gave America prosperity and favor in God's eyes.

The USA is the birth place of a commandment keeping church- Sabbath keepers- the Seventh day Adventist Church. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.²³ Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. {John 14:21-23} Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. {Revelation 22:14}

The reinterpretation of the Monroe doctrine from its original intent changed with WWII from isolationist to interference thus allowing itself to be an instrument of Rome with the forming of the CIA which never should have existed, headed by Rome's knights and in collusion by finance and intelligence exchange.

Bernays used media contacts to influence what would develop into the Guatemalan coupe. Another point of interest was he publicized his uncle Freud's ideas with his own, organizing at one time the publication of Freud's work in the US.

'Shortly, the public will be unable to reason or think for themselves. They'll only be able to parrot the information they've been given on the previous night's news.' Zbigniew Brzezinski

"The theory of mind controlling mind was originated by Satan to introduce himself as the chief worker, to put human philosophy where divine philosophy should be. Of all the errors that are finding acceptance among professedly Christian people, none is a more dangerous deception, none more certain to separate man from God, than is this. Innocent though it may appear, if exercised upon patients, it will tend to their destruction, not to their restoration. It opens a door through which Satan will enter to take possession both of the mind that is given up to be controlled by another and of the mind that controls.”--MH 243 (1905).

Bernays: ‘If you can influence the leaders, either with or without their conscious cooperation, you automatically influence the group which they sway.’ ‘In his 1965 autobiography, Bernays recalls a dinner at his home in 1933 where Karl von Weigand, foreign correspondent of the Hearst newspapers, an old hand at interpreting Europe and just returned from Germany, was telling us about Goebbels and his propaganda plans to consolidate Nazi power. Goebbels had shown Weigand his propaganda library, the best Weigand had ever seen.

Goebbels, said Weigand, was using my book Crystallizing Public Opinion as a basis for his destructive campaign against the Jews of Germany. This shocked me. ... Obviously the attack on the Jews of Germany was no emotional outburst of the Nazis, but a deliberate, planned campaign.’ When Lucifer appears is it in a well-dressed business suit and a silver tongue?

‘They took our nuclear capability and transformed it into the most horrible weapon that the world had ever witnessed. And we’re seeing an atomic moment of computer science... Its reach is unlimited... but its safeguards are not! It’s through the use of new platforms and algorithms that are built on and around these capabilities that they are able to shift our behavior. In some cases, they are able to predict our decisions and also nudge them to different outcomes. And now these institutions, which are both commercial and governmental... have structuralized and entrenched it to where it has become now the most effective means of social control in the history of our species.’ Edward Snowden

‘Shortly, the public will be unable to reason or think for themselves. They'll only be able to parrot the information they've been given on the previous night's news.’ Zbigniew Brzezinski

Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. {1 timothy 4:16}

God led His people, many of whom were the founding fathers of America, and God gave His son as an example of how to behave, whether individuals or nations. The ideology of the US, that which was most precious in its foundation was being corrupted and taken over by the dragon into what we know as the military industrial complex. A beast that uses a false tongue and false measure to incite and feed off war.

Here is what was to a war against the many Communist regimes. In Revelation 10 we have one of three powers that rise from the bottomless pit of war and confusion. Communism was a result of the French revolution when the people rose against the abuse of the papacy and is identified by a time line and the appearance is of a nonentity and also by its description as attacking God's two prophetic witnesses the Old and New Testament. The strategies of the Jesuits meant that "The Jesuits alone flourished in the decaying nation, and ruled with dreadful tyranny over churches and schools, the prisons and the galleys." {GC88 279.1} The importance in understanding this is outlined in this statement: "At the same time anarchy is seeking to sweep away all law, not only divine, but human. The centralizing of wealth and power; the vast combinations for the enriching of the few at the expense of the many; the combinations of the poorer classes for the defense of their interests and claims; the spirit of unrest, of riot and bloodshed; the world-wide dissemination of the same teachings that led to the French Revolution--all are tending to involve the whole world in a struggle similar to that which convulsed France. {Ed 228.2}

Both communism and Islam are a product of catholicism. In the war against communism described here since WWII, communism is defeated giving rise to two dominate world powers. Communism rose as the church declined as also God's church came out from under the shadows of the Jesuit inquisition and the dark ages. Islam and apostate Christianity had already ruled for many centuries. The battle waged Post WWII is between the King of the North Vatican and her Western allies and the king of the South which is all that oppose her whether Islamic or communism.

When God was Israel's defence here was nothing like this- lying, murder, stealing but rather this was the abomination of the nation all around her. The USA has a greater responsibility for purity because of the opportunities and great light of the gospel that has shone on her path.

Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof [is] twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. Then said he unto me, This [is] the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off [as] on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off [as] on that side according to it. I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. {Zechariah 5:1 -4}

'Lying cheating and stealing reminds you of the glory of the American experiment.' Says Mike

Pompeo three 3 year into his appointment as secretary of State for the Trump administration. As CIA director he attended regular Bible studies, as secretary of state he hosted the first worldwide conference on religious freedom, and made faith apart of his first major speech as secretary of State and says he keeps a Bible open on his desk to remind him of God and His word! These words do not reflect the pledge of allegiance or the foundation of American Christian ideals.

God will shake the nations and it will shake some to reality with coming judgments because of the absolute immorality. The judgments come as weather calamities not just for destroying the planet only but for wickedness of men.

For the wickedness of the cities and for the sake of the children, "The Lord calls for His people to locate away from the cities, for in such an hour as ye think not, fire and brimstone will be rained from heaven upon these cities. Proportionate to their sins will be their visitation. When one city is destroyed, let not our people regard this matter as a light affair, and think that they may, if favorable opportunity offers, build themselves homes in that same destroyed city. . . ." {LDE 95.3} Published 1906.

Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, 38:23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? {Job 38:22,23}

Manuel Artime an example of Jesuit espionage

U.S. President John F. Kennedy, October 24, 1963 "I believe that there is no country in the world including any and all the countries under colonial domination, where economic colonization, humiliation and exploitation were worse than in Cuba, in part owing to my country's policies during the Batista regime. I approved the proclamation which Fidel Castro made in the Sierra Maestra, when he justifiably called for justice and especially yearned to rid Cuba of corruption. I will even go further: to some extent it is as though Batista was the incarnation of a number of sins on the part of the United States. Now we shall have to pay for those sins. In the matter of the Batista regime, I am in agreement with the first Cuban revolutionaries. That is perfectly clear." —

Attorney Fidel Castro and his brother Raúl meet in Mexico City Shortly after the U.S. backed coup in Guatemala, to plan the overthrow of the 'U.S. puppet' Batista.

'It is clear that counterterror became the strategy of the Batista government. It has been estimated by some that as many as 20,000 civilians were killed.'

'At the beginning of 1959 United States companies owned about 40 percent of the Cuban sugar lands - almost all the cattle ranches - 90 percent of the mines and mineral concessions - 80 percent of the utilities - practically all the oil industry - and supplied two-thirds of Cuba's imports.'

'Fulgencio Batista murdered 20,000 Cubans in seven years ... and he turned Democratic Cuba into a complete police state - destroying every individual liberty. Yet our aid to his regime, and the ineptness of our policies, enabled Batista to invoke the name of the United States in support of his reign of terror. Administration

spokesmen publicly praised Batista - hailed him as a staunch ally and a good friend - at a time when Batista was murdering thousands, destroying the last vestiges of freedom, and stealing hundreds of millions of dollars from the Cuban people, and we failed to press for free elections.' A telephone made of pure gold is one of the many gifts from the Americans to Batista who flees with family and fortune to the US.

Manuel Artime code name AMBIDDY-1, was the nephew of popular Cuban poet José Ángel Bueza, and was raised as a devout Catholic by Jesuits. In 1957 he became a member of the Radical Liberation Party (PLR), a Christian democratic group. He graduated as a doctor and planned to become a psychiatrist.

Artime was involved with Castro in the guerrilla wars alongside Castro for the removal of Batista in 1957 who flees to the US while Castro forms government. Manuel Artime fell out with Castro as the government turned communist and with his resignation from the revolutionary army which is put on the front page of the newspaper, he seeks asylum in the Havana Jesuit college. A CIA plane picks him up and takes him back to the US. In Florida he is involved with the CIA (E Howard Hunt) in recruiting and organizing Cuban exiles and organises a 'Christian' catholic cell group to return to Cuba to assassinate Castro.

Artime is the overall leader and part of a special group of trained CIA operatives associated with the infamous the Bay of Pigs and is caught while in hiding and later time released from prison and sent back to Miami where a photo is shown of him saluting next to president Kennedy. His records show an extravagant lifestyle. He buys his mistress a house in 1964 for $85,000. The CIA have some concern with his girlfriend, Patron who is the former mistress of Batista and also of the former mistress of Venezuelan President, Marcos Perez Jimenez.

Manuel Artime died at the age of 45 some say in unusual circumstances. Can you imagine the money that is being poured out on such covert cooperation such as this?

The amazing thing is that Pope Francis meets with Castro near the end of His life. Now a Jesuit Pope has found a resolution to the American Cuban conflict remembering the attempted assassination on Castro's life was from a Jesuit trained operative.

'I thanked the Pope for what he did, Castro told reporters as he left the Vatican, adding he was really impressed by his wisdom and his modesty. When the pope goes to Cuba in September, I promise to go to all his masses, and with satisfaction... If the Pope continues this way, I will go back to praying and go back to the church, and I'm not joking, the Cuban leader said, AP reported.' Now back to the beginning of the story Castro was Jesuit trained! Of course, the whole situation in relations between the US and Cuba reversed with Donald Trump's presidency. During his time Castro was visited by three popes, Pope John Paul II, Francis and Benedict XVI.

While former President Obama proceeded to restore ties with Cuba thanks to the intermediary work of Pope Francis, obviously the evangelicals were not so thrilled. The following statement by President Trump was made at the Manuel Arttime theatre in Miami. 'President Donald J. Trump announced a change to U.S. Cuba policy in a speech in Miami on Friday, criticizing his predecessor's policy toward the communist country. 'I am cancelling the last administration's completely one-sided deal with Cuba,' Trump said.

Addressing veterans from the 'Bay of Pigs' war in Cuba John Bolton called Nicaragua, Venezuela and Cuba 'the troika of tyranny' with restriction of travel to these counties by US citizens. The aim is to bring economic sanctions against Cuba. There is never an apology for past interferences in these smaller countries like we have seen with recognition through native title or straight forward pleasant negotiations between leadership which is an unfortunate legacy for Protestant America.

Again, repeat the quote concerning the Jesuits in the book The Great Controversy published in 1888 by E.G. White. Throughout Christendom, Protestantism was menaced by formidable foes. The first triumphs of the Reformation past, Rome summoned new forces, hoping to accomplish its destruction. At this time, the order of the Jesuits was created, the most cruel, unscrupulous, and powerful of all the champions of popery. Cut off from every earthly tie and human interest, dead to the claims of natural affection, reason and conscience wholly silenced, they knew no rule, no tie, but that of their order, and no duty but to extend its power. The gospel of Christ had enabled its adherents to meet danger and endure suffering, undismayed by cold, hunger, toil, and poverty, to uphold the banner of truth in face of the rack, the dungeon, and the stake. To combat these forces, Jesuitism inspired its followers with a fanaticism that enabled them to endure like dangers, and to oppose to the power of truth all the weapons of deception. There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy.

Cocaine in a drink to the expulsion of an elected Chilean President. 9-11 is a very ominous day. September 11, 1973 was the day of the American coup of Chile and so far, reaching were US activities in other nations as to lead to another monumental day 28 years later. Richard Nixon, then president of the United States received a personal call from Donald Kendall, Chairman of Pepsi Co. Nixon who had formerly served the company as its corporate attorney so Kendall arranged for the owner of the company's Chilean bottling operation to meet with the then National Security Adviser Henry Kissinger on September 15, 1970. That same day, Nixon called in his CIA chief, Richard Helms, and, according to Helms's handwritten notes, ordered the CIA to prevent Allende's inauguration as president of Chile who had been democratically elected.

Allende maintained the country's democratic institutions while the US cut its financial support. Allende's popularity never waned despite the economic hardships as seen on September 4, 1973, at the Alameda, the major avenue of downtown Santiago, which was packed with 'tens of thousands of marchers, all intent on passing by the presidential palace where Allende stood on a balcony waving to the crowd'.

September 11, 1973 marks the day the Chilean presidential palace was bombed and president elect Allende committed suicide which was confirmed after exhuming the body for scientific autopsy in 2015. Allende's army chief Augusto Pinochet the "butcher" took over command and became President. The sum of $10,000,000 was given to Pinochet by the US to overthrow the elected Chilean government. Kissinger said 'I don't see why we need to stand idly by and watch a country go Communist due to the irresponsibility of its own people.'

In 2000 just before 9-11, documents were released of 'CIA Activities in Chile' which revealed CIA supported the overthrow of Allende and many of Pinochet's officers were paid contacts by the CIA or US military. 'He (Pinochet) shut down parliament, suffocated political life, banned trade unions, and made Chile his sultanate. His government disappeared over 3,000 opponents, arrested 30,000 (torturing thousands of them) ... Pinochet's name will forever be linked to torture and the 'Caravan of Death,' (image of the caravan of death created by the Pinochet military committee) a military death squad which operated between September 30th and 22nd October 1973. Santiago's main soccer stadium filled with political prisoners to be tortured, shot, disappeared or forced into exile. People were mercilessly tortured and their bodies thrown into unmarked graves or dropped out to sea. Hugo Gutierrez, a human rights lawyer involved in several lawsuits against Pinochet said concerning Pinochet's death "This criminal has departed without ever being sentenced for all the acts he was responsible for during his dictatorship.' In 2015 the news of his death was divided with thousands celebrating and others mourning his death.

Those in opposition to the elected president in Chile were the land owners, financial institutions, the far right and the catholic church. Pinochet continued as a despot for many years until 1987 when a visit from John Paul II to Pinochet opened the country up to democratic elections. 'I received a letter from Pinochet in which he told me that, as a Catholic, he had listened to my words, he had accepted them, and he had decided to begin the process to change the leadership of his country' says John Paul II. 'By October of the following year, Pinochet organized a plebiscite asking the Chilean people if they wanted Pinochet to extend his rule by another eight years or if they wanted a return to civilian rule. They chose the latter option.'

For eight years however Pinochet continued as commander in chief of the army. By 1998 Pinochet was detained in London for human rights abuse and brought back to Chile. John Paul II intervened when briefly held prisoner in London calling for 'national reconciliation everywhere, including Chile'.

The court investigations uncovered the role of the US in coup but both the Chilean and French governments failed orders for the interrogation of Kissinger. Kissinger wrote an article in Foreign Affairs magazine, decrying the legal principle of "universal jurisdiction" being used by some courts to bring human rights violators to justice'. Documents revealed Kissinger had gone to great lengths to cover up atrocities in Chile and give comfort to the regime of General Pinochet.

Pinochet army chief was sentenced in 2018 for complicity in the deaths of 15 people during the early days of Augusto Pinochet's military regime. He received a mere three years and a day under house arrest.

Orlando Letelier who served under President Salvador Allende, was killed by a car bomb on 21 September 1976 in Sheridan Circle in Washington, D.C. He had become a vocal opponent of the Pinochet dictatorship after he was released from a Chilean jail and banned from the country.

In 2015 John Kerry handed over a pen drive to Chilean President Bachelet containing 300 declassified documents to Juan Pablo Letelier, the late envoy's son that confirmed Pinochet involvement in the assassination.

In 2019- 2020 massive protests in Chile turned violent with the burning down of churches and damaging city infrastructure with clashes against the police. Jesuit magazine America says this: 'In Father Costadoat's assessment, after three decades obsessing over sexual morality and ignoring Chile's social and economic inequities, "the sex abuse scandals destroyed all credibility of the church.' The press did not turn to the Catholic church for opinion as a sign of how far it had fallen from public favor.

US declaration of interdependence

In 1975 the same year Kissinger called for 'the need for a New World Order' the US celebrated their bicentenary celebrations of independence. At this time 124 delegate, traitors to the American people, signed a new constitution of interdependence in the very place the declaration of independence was signed, 'Independence Hall' Philadelphia which had served as the temporary capital of the United States.

This is the charter for politicians going forward that is tied to the club of Rome policies.

"TWO CENTURIES AGO our forefathers brought forth a new nation; now we must join with others to bring forth a new world order. On this historic occasion it is proper that the American people should reaffirm those principles on which the United States of America was founded, acknowledge the new crises which confront them, accept the new obligations which history imposes upon them, and set forth the causes which impel them to affirm before all peoples their commitment to a Declaration of Interdependence." An historian Henry Steele Commager penned these words. He was a liberal internationalist.

Henry Steele who wrote Declaration of Interdependence

in this newspaper clipping says 'We are moving away from Americanism'. The perpetrator points in the other direction

At the very least every American citizen should understand the when the declaration of interdependence was signed which penned the words 'New World Order' and that it was a traitorous act directly against the original US constitution that came at the cost of many lives.

A Declaration of
INTERdependence

IN THE COURSE OF HISTORY the threat of extinction confronts mankind, it is necessary for the people of The United States to declare their interdependence with the people of all nations and to embrace those principles and build those institutions which will enable mankind to survive and civilization to flourish. TWO CENTURIES AGO our forefathers brought forth a new nation; now we must join with others to bring forth a new world order. On this historic occasion it is proper that the American people should reaffirm those principles on which the United States of America was founded, acknowledge the new crises which confront them, accept the new obligations which history imposes upon them, and set forth the causes which impel them to affirm before all peoples their commitment to a Declaration of Interdependence.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT: that all men are created equal; that the inequalities and injustices which afflict so much of the human race are the product of history and society, not of God and nature; that people everywhere are entitled to the blessings of life and liberty, peace and security and the realization of their full potential'; that they have an inescapable moral obligation to preserve those rights for posterity; and that to achieve these ends all the peoples and nations of the globe should acknowledge their interdependence and join together to dedicate their minds and their hearts to the solution of those problems which threaten their survival. TO ESTABLISH A NEW WORLD ORDER of compassion, peace, justice and security, it is essential that mankind free itself from the limitations of national prejudice, and acknowledge that the forces that unite it are incomparably deeper than those that divide it—that all people are part of one global community, dependent on one body of resources, bound together by the ties of a common humanity and associated in a common adventure on the planet Earth. LET US THEN JOIN TOGETHER to vindicate and realize this great truth that mankind is one, and as one will nobly save or irreparably lose the heritage of thousands of years of civilization. And let us set forth the principles which should animate and inspire us if our civilization is to survive.

WE AFFIRM that the resources of the globe are finite, not infinite, that they are the heritage of no one nation or generation, but of all peoples, nations and of posterity, and that our deepest obligation is to transmit to that posterity a planet richer in material bounty, in beauty and in delight than we found it. Narrow notions of national sovereignty must not be permitted to curtail that obligation. WE AFFIRM that the exploitation of the poor by the rich, and the weak by the strong violates our common humanity and denies to large segments of society the blessings of life, liberty and happiness. We recognize a moral obligation to strive for a more prudent and more equitable sharing of the resources of the earth in order to ameliorate poverty, hunger and disease.

WE AFFIRM that the resources of nature are sufficient to nourish and sustain all the present inhabitants of the globe and that there is an obligation on every society to distribute those resources equitably, along with a corollary obligation upon every society to assure that its population does not place upon Nature a burden heavier than it can bear. WE AFFIRM our responsibility to help create conditions which will make for peace and security and to build more effective machinery for keeping peace among the nations. Because the insensate accumulation of nuclear, chemical and biological weapons threatens the survival of Mankind, we call for the immediate reduction and eventual elimination of these weapons under international supervision. We deplore the reliance on force to settle disputes between nation states and between rival groups within such states.

human survival, and that their exploitation should be so regulated as to serve the interests of the entire globe, and of future generations.

WE AFFIRM that pollution flows with the waters and flies with the winds, that it recognizes no boundary lines and penetrates all defenses, that it works irreparable damage alike to Nature and to Mankind — threatening with extinction the life of the seas, the flora and fauna of the earth, the health of the people in cities and the countryside alike—and that it can be adequately controlled only through international cooperation.

WE AFFIRM that the exploration and utilization of outer space is a matter equally important to all the nations of the globe and that no nation can be permitted to exploit or develop the potentialities of the planetary system exclusively for its own benefit.

WE AFFIRM that in a civilized society, the institutions of science and the arts are never at war and call upon all nations to exempt these institutions from the claims of chauvinistic nationalism and to foster the great community of learning and creativity whose benign function it is to advance civilization and the health and happiness of mankind.

WE AFFIRM that a world without law is a world without order, and we call upon all nations to strengthen and to sustain the United Nations and its specialized agencies, and other institutions of world order, and to broaden the jurisdiction of the World Court, that these may preside over a reign of law that will not only end wars but end as well the mindless violence which terrorized our society even in times of peace. We can no longer afford to make little plans, allow ourselves to be the captives of events and forces over which we have no control, consult our fears rather than our hopes. We call upon the American people, on the threshold of the third century of their national existence, to display once again that boldness, enterprise, magnanimity and vision which enabled the founders of our Republic to bring forth a new nation and inaugurate a new era in human history. The fate of humanity hangs in the balance. Throughout the globe, hearts and hopes wait upon us. We summon all Mankind to unite to meet the great challenge.

Argentina's dirty wars

'Kissinger took a similar line as he had toward Chile when the Argentine military, led by Jorge Videla, toppled the democratic government of Isabel Perón in 1976.'

Kissinger urged Jorge Videla to move against the government before the U.S. Congress reconvened. Argentina's coup of 24 March 1976- 83 has the reputation of the most vicious coup equal only to that of the dreadful deeds of the Nazis.

At that time of the dirty wars, Pope Francis was then head of the Jesuits in Argentina. He was part of Gladio and is the only Pope to have war crime charges held against his name and the only ever Jesuit Pope- John L Williams Journalist and consultant to FBI. Some questioned Bergoglio's relationship to the Argentina war crimes at his appointment as Pope but this was short lived.

The 'dirty wars' were condoned under the Ford, Carter and Reagan administrations. The US ambassador to Argentina reported to Kissinger that there would be 'a fair amount of repression, probably a good deal of blood.' To which it is said Kissinger replied 'yes that's in our interest.'

Archbishop of Parana, Adolfo Tortolo gave his blessing to the coup with the death, torture and disappearance of nearly 30,000 people.

Vicar for the army, Bishop Victorio Boamin, said the campaign was the defense of morality, human dignity and to defend God... Therefore, I pray for divine protection over this 'Dirty War' in which we are engaged.'

Amongst deeds of horror, thousands were taken by plane and dropped from the sky both dead and alive into the sea.

But perhaps it was worse on the ground. People were tortured by electrocution with probes attached to people's genitals both male and female, which would cause people to lose their bowel motions and other body functions under what could only be described as the work of Satan.

The military junta was trying to 'cleanse' Argentina's leftist leaning priests at that time Jorge Mario Bergoglio now Pope Francis was head of the Jesuits in that country. He is the only Pope to have war crime charges held against his name but Argentine authorities were unable to prosecute him due to his high ranking in the church. The laws of this catholic country allow senior church officials such as Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio to request exemption from trial.

It appears that he allowed fellow Jesuits under his command who were expelled by him to be picked up and tortured. Bergoglio said 'that I (Jesuit priest Yorio) was a Communist, a subversive guerrilla who was after women – rumours that immediately came to the attention of the social sectors that ran the power and repression machinery'. <https://www.democraticunderground.com/121873625>

Damning evidence that Pope Francis may have betrayed two priests who were kidnapped and tortured by Argentina's brutal military junta can be revealed today.

The Mail on Sunday has seen documents which appear to show the new Pope secretly collaborated with the country's dictatorship when he was head of the Jesuits there – using his real name Jorge Bergoglio – during the Dirty War that started in the Seventies.

This coup involved anti-Jewish sentiment with synagogues, businesses and shops bombed. The death of Jesuits under his charge brought him under suspicion. Of course, a Jesuit in charge of any country has a good idea and involvement in political movements around him.

Catholic priest Christian von Wernich worked as a police chaplain. Survivors say he passed information he obtained from prisoners to the police. He was found guilty of complicity in 7 murders, 42 kidnappings, and 31 instances of torture, and sentenced to life imprisonment in 2007. He tried avoiding prosecution by moving to Chile and working as a priest under another name. 'They say he attended several torture sessions and absolved the police of blame, telling them they were doing God's work. Venezuelan President, Dead at 58

Venezuela has the largest oil reserves in the world which naturally makes this nation a target for destruction to lay it bare and rape it of its wealth.

Venezuelan President, Dead at 58, was the news March 2013. 'Hugo Chávez, the Venezuelan president was famous for anti-American rhetoric. He referred to the United States as 'a bad person,' 'an assassin,' and 'a violent invader.' He wondered aloud whether the United States was responsible for a spate of cancer diagnoses among Latin American leftists, including his own fate. Perhaps most famously, Chávez called George W. Bush the devil and claimed the U.S. president left a sulphur smell around the U.N. speakers' podium.'

The idea of the Americans giving cancer to the South American presidents and causing weather manipulation as spoken of by Chavez, was reported as absurd by the main stream journalists of the West. On top of that Chávez said that the earthquake in Haiti was caused by the Americans from what he had been told by Russian intelligence sources.

Hugo Chávez declared Jesus to be 'the greatest socialist in history.' Chávez is described as anti-imperialist Bolivarian, democratic socialist. His government style he calls 'Socialism of the 21st Century,' as distinguished from the Marxism of the Soviet Union and Communist China by emphasising the participation of the people or a social democracy which 'had roots in the teachings of Jesus Christ'.

Chávez was a devoted Catholic but that didn't mean he's was devoted to the Vatican and the Catholic hierarchy yet Chávez has his own court theologian, a Jesuit named Fr. Jesús Gazo, a Uruguayan priest. From this we can see some of the direction of Chávez's presidency. Socialism and anticolonialism, supporting indigenous rights give his presidency a Jesuit flavour. Chávez denounced church leaders in his own country for favouring the rich over the poor and for criticizing his own government. The Jesuits accent to a vow of poverty whose objective is absolute power while working in presidential palaces. They also are known for undermining and causing war between the nations.

President Chávez called for the rights of indigenous peoples from the Amazon rainforest to the Caribbean When 'Pope Benedict XVI defended the evangelization of the Americas' (evangelism is the very thing that Pope Francis says is a grievous sin) during his trip to Brazil in 2007, Chavez asserted that it was not Christ who arrived with Christopher Columbus, but 'the Anti-Christ.' in a speech to Latin American and Caribbean bishops he said 'he felt he was an Indian because Venezuelans are a mix of the European race and indigenous peoples'.

He asked for Pope Benedict XVI apology for denying that the Church had done harm to the indigenous people of the Americas and the “holocaust” that followed Christopher Columbus’s 1492 landing in the Americas. ‘Colonization backed by the Church, through slaughter, disease or enslavement.’

‘With all due respect your Holiness, apologize because there was a real genocide here and, if we were to deny it, we would be denying our very selves.’ The Pope singled out Chavez as a danger to Latin America.

When Chávez announced new educational laws known as the Bolivarian doctrine, Catholic church leaders protested what would threaten the existence of some 700 church schools.

In response to the Venezuelan presidential direction, Pope Benedict sent former Italian undersecretary of the Vatican state Pietro Parolin to Caracas. Parolin was well experienced in corresponding with foreign diplomats, international leaders, NGOs, and journalists. He was considered ‘best and brightest’, indicating the importance of the assignment.

Of course, the USA was interested in destroying anything with socialist leaning in the name of democracy to exploit the nation’s wealth. Chávez knew the US had subverted national sovereignties and exploited their business and resources whether friend or foe.

In a secret US cable published online by WikiLeaks, former ambassador to Venezuela, William Brownfield, outlines a comprehensive plan to infiltrate and destabilize the former President Hugo Chavez’ government.

Dispatched in November of 2006 by Brownfield — now an Assistant Secretary of State — the document outlined his embassy’s five core objectives in Venezuela since 2004, which included: ‘penetrating Chavez political base,’ ‘dividing Chavismo,’ ‘protecting vital US business’ and ‘isolating Chavez internationally.’

This is typical of USA dealings with other countries that don’t submit to their diplomacy, trade and business deals. ‘Few in the west realize that extreme poverty has been cut drastically and unemployment has been halved so that no more than 7% of the population is out of work,' by the leadership of Hugo Chávez

1992 coup attempt

A 48-hour coup d'état saw Hugo Chávez arrested in 2002 and with this the protest of the people against the American lead coup. Chávez had provided for the public's needs from national oil interests which brought him quickly back to office. When a priest thought to hand him his resignation papers, he told the priest that he better be going because he was back in office. 'The proven oil reserves in Venezuela are recognized as the largest in the world, totalling 297 billion barrels' as of 2014. The petrol companies of the US have already divided the spoils and it's just a matter of time till they have their industries under US control.

"WikiLeaks cables have revealed that Catholic bishops played a key role in 2002's abortive military coup in Venezuela.... Among the latest revelations to emerge from WikiLeaks is that, in 2002, as plotters in Venezuela's capital Caracas were liaising with the US authorities about the conspiracy to topple President Hugo Chávez, the leaders of the Catholic church in that country were defying the instruction of Pope John Paul II to desist from having anything to do with the coup d'état. Instead, they threw their lot in with Pedro Carmona, the extremist right-wing businessman, who took office for less than 48 hours during a brief military coup in April 2002." The Guardian July 2011

The IMF controls countries and God forbid if a country follows a different route.

'The free market has transformed the countries of the south into bazaars filled with imported trinkets most people see but not touch.....In Venezuela's supermarkets I have seen little plastic bags of water from Scotland to drink with your whiskey. In Central America's cities, where rocks sweat bullets, I have seen fur stoles on fancy ladies. In Peru, I've seen German electric floor waxers for homes with dirty floor and have no electricity; in Brazil, plastic palm trees bought in Miami.' P395

Pope Francis was asked several times to mediate in Venezuela's internal conflicts, President Nicolas Maduro described a letter sent by Francis's top aide Pietro Parolin to local businesses as a 'compendium of hatred,' in which Parolin called for a 'serious and time-limited negotiation in Venezuela.' Parolin was Vatican ambassador to Venezuela until 2013, when Pope Francis reappointed him Secretary of State.

Vice President Delcy Rodríguez sent a strong message to the Venezuelan Church, quoting former President Hugo Chavez: "The priests who want to do politics, take off their cassock and come to do politics. We invite them to dialogue, or to politics. In democracy there are always paths," she said, but the two can't cross.

By 2019 to 2020 things had dramatically deteriorated Venezuela with violent clashes against the police. The citizens of Venezuela were lost in the sea of events where food was cheaper than oil and crime and poverty were soaring. This is in stark contrast to the nation under Chávez. The US and UN's sanctions were ruining the economy and starving the people. How will such actions meet the tribunal of God?

In a typical round of events the CIA, the church and in that country, the Jesuit general would be shaping the outcome of the country. Since the elections in 2018, countries including US, Canada, Brazil and several Latin American, do not acknowledge Nicolas Maduro the successor of Chavez as Venezuela's president. Juan Guaido the un-elected self-proclaimed president was trained at the Washington university. George Washington's main Foggy Bottom Campus is located in the heart of Washington, D.C., where the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank located.

'The US sanctions are illegal under international law because they were not endorsed by the UN Security Council, Mr de Zayas, an expert on international law and a former senior lawyer with the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights, said. "Sanctions kill," he told The Independent, adding that they fall most heavily on the poorest people in society, demonstrably cause death through food and medicine shortages, lead to violations of human rights and are aimed at coercing economic change in a 'sister democracy.'"

The International Criminal Court investigated economic sanctions against Venezuela as possible crimes against humanity under Article 7 of the Rome Statute but all this did was pay the courtiers a comfortable living with little result.

See how this always works and notably under those that say they hold the Christian banner whether it is Protestant America or the Church of Rome. The church and US undermined Venezuela, placing unlawful sanctions on the nation while in the truck blockade the US said it is ready to bring humanitarian aid with their puppet man Juan Gerardo on board to take over as the legitimate president. 'Today, I am officially recognizing the president of the Venezuelan National Assembly, Juan Guaidó, as the interim president of Venezuela,' says Trump.

The Biden administration granted Chevron Corp. a license to resume oil production in Venezuela as US sanctions halted three years ago after a deal for humanitarian spending plan was agreed upon.

Spellman's "war for civilization" in Asia

Jesuits were the first missionaries into Vietnam to present 'Christianity.' While the Jesuits revived Catholicism in the counter reformation throughout Europe, they had little success in Asia. President Ngô Đình Diệm was a member of the Catholic Vietnamese minority while Buddhism was a majority. Spellman described the Vietnam was as one 'war for civilization' and 'Christ's war against the Vietcong and the people of North Vietnam.'

Buddhists were severely treated and discriminated against and this followed with hundreds of Monks protesting in the streets followed by the graphic burning of a Buddhist monk Thich Quang Duc setting himself alit as protest to the persecution by the minority Catholic government supported by the USA. This image shocked the world and would eventually lead to the assassination of the Ngô Đình Diệm.

When the flow of drugs was compromised war erupted.

The gulf of Tonkin was a false flag operation in which 1.3 million people were killed in the 'Holy War' because of a lie.

Around one million northerners, mainly minority Catholics, fled south, fearing persecution by the communists, following an American propaganda campaign using slogans such as "The Virgin Mary is heading south", and aided by a U.S. funded $93 million relocation program, which included ferrying refugees with the Seventh Fleet.

- It is estimated that as many as two million more Northerners would have left had they not been stopped by the Viet Minh. The northern, mainly Catholic refugees were meant to give Diem a strong anti-communist constituency. Diem later went on to staff his administration's key posts mostly with northern and central Catholics.
- Vietnam is known as a drug war and one of great controversy. Saigon was overflowing with drugs and it is said that 30% of servicemen were heroin addicts. Saigon was renamed Ho Chi Minh City after revolutionary leader Hồ Chí Minh and is a one-party communist state today after the protracted war.
- Operation Popeye was the first time that the Americans used weather manipulation in warfare to expend the monsoonal season against the Vietcong. This is an important basic point to understand in the global warming debate- what they were considering and playing with so long ago. Today they have much more sophisticated means of destroying weather patterns for weather warfare.
- The ground in Vietnam was bombed and napalmed like nothing seen before in history. Monsanto the chemical giant has always been part of military strategy and responsible for the crimes in this country.
- The New York Times reminds us of the high-level crimes of the Vietnam war as 'an eight-year smuggling conspiracy brought heroin into the United States inside the bodies of soldiers killed in Vietnam'. What an insult to the people of America. What a filthy war!
'Heroin is known to be bought in kilogram lots in Thailand for $1,700, smuggled into the United States sewn into the bodies of war victims and then sold for up to $20,000 a kilogram, the authorities testified yesterday.'

- As we now know the CIA were using drugs for their clandestine campaigns and heroin being the third most valuable commodity in the world, was a valuable commodity to protect. Military planes and CIA clearances could easily bring large amounts of drugs into many countries. So today we have the authorities looking for people hooked on heroin or smuggling through borders which was initially and still is funnelled through CIA activity. 'Federal agents told of an abortive raid on a military transport plane at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington last Monday in which the bodies of war victims were searched for smuggled drugs.' December 17, 1972, on Page 21 of the New York edition with the headline: DRUG FEARED SENT IN BODIES OF G.I.'S.
- Heroin was not just like picking a poppy but a complicated process in which great care had to be taken and volatile at certain points of the process. "The Corsican mafia gained mastery of this process through years of working amongst the Cambodian, Laotian and Vietnamese technicians in French Indochina." Operation Gladio by P. Williams p54
- The church committee congressional hearing in 1975 led by Senator Frank Church found that the NSA's project MINARET targeted civil rights leaders, journalists and senators by interception of phone calls including prominent U.S. journalists and athletes who criticized the Vietnam War. This is still current practice today with people targeted during the covid pandemic.
- He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword....Gladio! And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. {Revelation 13:10,11}
- Republicanism and Protestantism is the key to USA's power and prosperity as a nation. Those who first found an asylum on the shores of America rejoiced that they had reached a country free from the arrogant claims of popery and the tyranny of kingly rule. They determined to establish a government upon the broad foundation of civil and religious freedom.
- The US has become instrumental in Vatican wars and the fact so concealed that most would never realize it. It has become one of the seven heads of the beast of Revelation 17.

Who is like unto the beast?
Who is able to make war with him? Revelation 13:5

US President Donald Trump has praised China's use of the death penalty for drug smugglers and even appeared to suggest that capital punishment might be a good way to “end the drug problem” in the US. The point being that the US special services is responsible for the drug culture that has plagued the West. Unfortunately, there is be a price to pay somewhere down the line.

‘Creating the new paradigm’

David Rockefeller launched an array of organisation including the Club of Rome in 1968. He was a founding member for the trilateral commission in 1973. Fiat’s Gianni Agnelli was an intimate friend of David Rockefeller and a member of the International Advisory Committee of Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank. John D Rockefeller was the first US billionaire whose name is intricately with the Rothchild’s who set up the Federal Reserve. Rothchild’s are known as front men for Vatican bank interests.

Oil tycoons’ monopoly on wealth and resources, supply and demand

In 1971 ‘The Limits to Growth’ (LTG) was published. Vatican and oligarch interests were to return to the old feudal system enjoyed during the dark ages to limit capitalism, democracy and the Protestant work ethic that resulted in exponential economic and population growth and relief from poverty. It was an attack on liberty with personal ownership citing finite supply of resources. The zero-growth agenda was launched in the early 70s by David Rockefeller with an oil billionaire Canadian Maurice Strong.

There are men who today are doing all in their power to plunge the world into commercial strife with an ever-looming financial crash: who is behind it? Small business shutdowns and world monopolies profiting on social chaos. Edward Griffin author of the Creature of Jekyll Island follow the creation of the Federal reserve a private monopoly controlling the USA today.

We find the Jews blamed for many of the ill in the world today. They have become smart profiteers and involved in the philosophy and doctrines of the Jewish Cabala which is from the time of Jewish captivity in Babylon. They are wealthy occultists who control the world and are closely associated with the Jesuits.

World Economic forum-CIA funded program

In 1971 the World Economic Forum (WEF) was initiated then known as European Management Symposium by professor at the University of Geneva Klaus Schwab.

Schwab's creation of social and economic policies was influenced by people such as Herman Kahn, Henry Kissinger, John Galbraith and Brazilian priest Helder Camara. 'High-profile successes, of the organization included the 1988 diplomatic discussions between Greece and Turkey and the 1992 meeting of South Africa's F.W. de Klerk and Nelson Mandela.' Davos was the setting for Thomas Mann's novel The Magic Mountain and has been dubbed such. The WEF meets every January. Now a well-known meeting place of the superrich who discuss matters of inequality.

Klaus Schwab attended Harvard in the 1960s where he would meet then-Professor Henry A. Kissinger, and Harvard was receiving funds from the CIA for Kissinger's international seminar. Kissinger continually undermined the American system for the benefits of a globalist agenda. That is for the interests of the Vatican and the club of Rome or the dual hegemony with the US military directed by Catholic intelligence and policies. It would appear that Klaus Schwab was recruited by Kissinger into his circle of 'Round Table' via a CIA funded program at Harvard University.

Now with the right background information in mind we see where the 'Great Reset' really comes from. Its fascism which is the combined forces of private multinational corporations, governments and civil society organizations leading the nations rather than self-determination into a New World Order. At Davos they discuss matters such as the war in Ukraine and though they appear as a European organisation American interests shape European policies and through the super-rich directed global events. So, the 10 toes of Daniel 2 or 10 horns of Revelation 17 are shaped by the events leading up to Revelation 13 that is Vatican/ US policies.

In Schwab's last years (84 yrs. old in 2022) it seems he would like to see the dream of the New World Order so long delayed become a reality.

Henry Kissinger, Klaus Schwab and Ted Heath at the 1980 World Economic Forum Annual Meeting.

The 'Great Reset' and some of the concepts such as you will rent everything and own nothing has been a startling revelation that was in the creation of events a long time ago. The post second world war period while appearing as a time of great liberation was being cleverly directed to enslave the world.

Already in the first year, 1992, a number of highly influential candidates were elected. Among 200 selected were global profiles such as Angela Merkel, Tony Blair, Nicolas Sarkozy, Bill Gates, Bono, Richard Branson (Virgin), Jorma Ollila (Shell Oil), and José Manuel Barroso (President of the European Commission 2004–2014).

'The Constitutional Coup,' that ended Australian independence 1971

Australia has always been considered America's close ally and is part of the 5is today.

When a change in Australian government sprouts nationalistic ideals for industry and threatens Pine Gap and Nurrungar, questioning the sovereignty of American bases on Australian soil, the US sort to change the government. A labor Prime Minister also meant that troops would be withdrawn from Vietnam.

11/11/1975

CIA hatchet green sees to the expulsion of the Whitlam government that allows Fraser to take office. This was because of concerns over pine gap and nationalising of industry under a socialist government. Before his death Malcolm Fraser in 2014 would speak out against a close American alliance with the U.S.

'He (Whitlam) believed that a foreign power should not control his country's resources and dictate its economic and foreign policies. He proposed to "buy back the farm"When his ministers publicly condemned the US bombing of Vietnam as "corrupt and barbaric", a CIA station officer in Saigon said: 'We were told the Australians might as well be regarded as North Vietnamese collaborators.' Gaudian John Pilger 23rd October 2014. America decided that newly elected Prime Minister had to go.

Pine gap and Nurrungar were strategic bases for the cold war intelligence, the Vietnam war and pinpointing targets for bombing Cambodia and also in the Persian Gulf wars which also resulted in a disaster that killed 18 Americans and over 100 injuries. Pine gap is today in the hands of the NSA. The prime reason for Whitlam's dismissal is the importance of its surveillance to US interests at the time of SALT agreements between the US and USSR. (Strategic Arms Limitation Talks)

In early 1974, Marshall Green of the East Asia division of the CIA spoke to the Australian Institute of Directors with a speech intended to cause incitement against the Australian Government. Green told Australian business leaders they 'could expect help from the United States, which would be similar to the help given to South America.' One big thank you America!!

Sir John Kerr- Governor General using his own authority under the Queen of England sacked the Prime Minister. During the Second World War he had been working for an Australian intelligence organization, associated with the OSS. Former Prime Minister Paul Keating words for John Kerr was he was a person of substance but in the end that substance has to be followed with integrity and He had witnessed his deception of the Prime Minister, the person who had appointed him to the position and went down in history by many as a despised man. 'The Americans turned to 'our man Kerr,' as the CIA called him. Kerr had a long history of association with the CIA going back to its WWII predecessor, the OSS, and various CIA fronts like the Asia Foundation and the Australian Association for Cultural Freedom. 'All this was on the record,' writes Pilger.

CIA/ triad activities in Australia-

The Nugan Hand Bank, an Australian merchant bank that collapsed in 1980 after the suicide of the one of the cofounders- Australian lawyer Francis John Nugan. The bank's links were to the CIA and the TRIAD and there were some pretty shady money transactions going down. The Nugan Hand Bank was an employer of many retired CIA agents and heavily involved in narcotics trafficking. 'The bank cultivated corrupt Australian politicians, Sydney crime syndicate, a fraternity of ex-CIA arms dealers, and the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.' Nugan's death was suspicious which raised media attention with two gunshot wounds found on Nugan's body. It was

LEBANON

Moving into a perilous vacuum

It was a month leading to Beirut last week for an 80-member force from the United States Sixth Fleet. And as they joined the multinational peacekeeping force, thousands of Palestinian Liberation Organization fighters continued their battle and one another's fight from Beirut. But the world's relief that the Israeli siege of West Beirut was ending in a peaceful conclusion did not dampen hopes that the Middle East's long-term problems are far from solved. Both the future of Lebanon and the outcome of what President Ronald Reagan calls "other unresolved problems in the Arab-Israeli conflict" are uncertain.

When Beirut is free of its fighters, about 2,000 Palestinian guerrillas will remain in Lebanon with 20,000 Syrian troops occupying 40 per cent of the country, and the Israelis will have the moral place of their Lebanese operation: the removal of all foreign forces, either by negotiation or removal. There was a hint of the danger ahead last week when artillery exchanges between Syrian troops and Israeli Christian Phalangists along the coast along the Beirut-Damascus highway, forcing Washington to delay the planned landward evacuation of 150,000 Syrian troops.

Even more critical, however, is the specter of civil war which resurfaced with the election as president of 35-year-old Bashir Gemayel—leader of the Christian Phalangist militia. In a controversial parliamentary chamber at Tyre, Gemayel was elected to office on Aug. 25. When the largely Maronite Christians and a few Shi'ite Muslims were dismissed that they had failed to achieve a 60-man majority, a handful of Shi'ite Muslims were elected into the chamber by security forces and Gemayel's supporters got their way.

Gemayel must now reestablish himself as a political leader in a national assembly, able to unite the more than 10 million Lebanese. It is a difficult task. Even if Gemayel's election is accepted, it is a transformation of Lebanon. Palestinian relations that reflect both the historic animosity of the two peoples and the intricate character of the Palestinian presence in Lebanon.

The fate of the Palestinian position in the face of a major Israeli-Arab conflict, and the Israeli promise to intensify the struggle. These objectives are not mutually exclusive, and the Israeli-Arab conflict is still a major factor in the Arab-Israeli conflict.

The scandal of Nugan Hand

When two gaming partners found Francis Nugan, merchant banker Frank Nugan dead in his Manhattan office in a little-travelled highway early on Jan. 27, 1980, it appeared to be a routine suicide. Nugan had returned from London two days earlier to meet with major executives in his bank, the Nugan Hand Bank. He was the dead man, as he lay slumped over the wheel, was a rifle purchased only two weeks before. But the discovery of a man's gun wrenched back into a little battle the body, dramatically shared the face of the investigation. On it was awarded the name of William Kelly, former director of the CIA. A calling card of Kelly's was also found in the car.

In the 25 years since, detectives and journalists following the trail have turned up evidence linking Nugan's death—and the CIA—with international trafficking in heroin and arms, sex work, laundered money and espionage. Almost every major scandal connected to Australia since then has been connected, in the public's mind at least, with the Nugan Hand affair.

Now revelations surfaced last week in a report released by the Australian government that the CIA had been involved in the Nugan Hand Bank's collapse. The report, which was leaked to the public by a former CIA official, said that the CIA had been involved in the bank's collapse, and that the CIA had been involved in the bank's collapse.

Houghton, the bank's South Australia representative, also revealed as a CIA agent. What happened then was later claimed by one of the directors, Stephen R.A. Hill, to evidence given during a conspiracy case arising from the bank's collapse in April, 1980. The investigation was presented to a jury in many documents on the world stage, he said. Hill was more than a victim in a battle; he was a victim and a witness. Hill was more than a victim in a battle; he was a victim and a witness.

The investigation: Many of the details of Nugan Hand's activities were discovered by the investigators. Besides, Nugan Hand was highly successful. Employees and customers were referred to by central members. Cables were used for interoffice cables and customer (Nolan) were "vats," i.e., dollars, "purses," i.e., thousands, many of Nugan Hand's activities have come to light through persistent inquiries by Australian investigators and evidence given by Nugan Hand associates in bankruptcy and other proceedings. For one thing, there was a direct financial link, which created thousands of victims, chiefly in the United States and Australia. Nugan Hand employees were arrested in many cases, including in South Australia. Legislators say Nugan Hand's downfall could reach $1 billion, but the real figure is probably much higher.

There were also discussions about arms sales—in Bangkok and elsewhere. Among the prospective targets were Indonesia, Thailand and the white Rhodesian government of Ian Smith. Nugan Hand was also heavily involved in drugs. The bank has been linked with the infiltration of "the Asia" syndicate.

found the Nugan Bank scandal on his watch. Former Prime Ministers Gough Whitlam and Malcolm Fraser once opponents and on opposite political parties came to be friends in their later years and viewed foreign affairs in a similar light. Ex- Prime Minister Fraser had very pointed comments and concerns about Australia's future and sovereignty in relation to the US as we head into the future.

Australia like most countries of the west has a high drug problem and has we can see we need not thank the CIA for their corrupt contributions in what they would call their national interest.

In Canberra, as it is in Rome: here come the Jesuits
The newly crowned Pope has raised the profile of an order with links to power in Australia.

By Denise Murphy
April 6, 2013 - 2:30pm

The election of Argentinian Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio last month as leader of the world's billion Catholics delivered a litany of firsts - he was the first to take the name Francis, the first Pope from South America and he was the first Jesuit.

Unique among Catholic religious orders, Jesuits take a fourth vow. While they all promise poverty, chastity and obedience, only Jesuits pledge obedience to the Pope.

Leading the way: Pope Francis is the first Jesuit to hold office. AP/WIDEWORLD

So Pope Francis surprised everyone, not least Australian Jesuits.

Now what of Australia today? High land and house prices pay for an economy that is in debt and everything privatized. We are high in resources and have the third largest gold deposits in the world but to where are the profits going? Both sides of politics – liberal and labour are Jesuit trained according to several newspaper articles written around the time of the Tony Abbott government. The Jesuits influx into politics occurred during the time of the 10-year reign of the Howard government.

Tony Abbott was getting his advice from Cardinal Pell how to run the country.

Many people consider the Jesuits intelligent men but question the poor quality of leadership in Australia. I would say to you that Jesuit trained men are not intelligent in admirable qualities but in the snakes and ladder games of the world that instil their own theories and practices for their own gain and we see the results with rich and poor, sending us in the way of most western countries to a poor globalist future.

'Tony Abbott, Bill Shorten and Barnaby Joyce, as well as Joe Hockey and Christopher Pyne, were educated at elite private high schools run by the Society of Jesus, or the Jesuits – the same Catholic order to which the recently appointed Pope Francis belongs. The representation of Jesuit-educated politicians in the Australian political scene is disproportionately high, given that there are only four such schools, all male only, in the country. Even Malcolm Turnbull was apparently received into the Catholic faith by a Jesuit priest.'

Of course, the conviction of Cardinal Pell was an interesting turn of events. The Vatican Bank being in trouble, Pope Francis promotes cardinal Pell to oversee financial affairs knowing of the previous turmoil in which Pell is seen to be complacent in Paedophilia amongst priests under his leadership. The resignation of Pope Benedict was most likely to do with dealing with these looming issues. To many people's surprise Pell is also convicted, hitting worldwide news but with a media ban in Australia.

But at the end of the day Pell is released by overturning the decision of the jury for his conviction by the High court in April 2019. 'Today, the High Court granted special leave to appeal against a decision of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Victoria and unanimously allowed the appeal.' A supreme court judge, jury and some of the best lawyers and barristers were present at the original court proceedings and conviction of cardinal Pell in 2019. In an unprecedented move the decision was overturned by a panel of supreme court judges. They failed to uphold the original court decision.

And whoso shall receive one such little in my name receiveth me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and [that] he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! {Matthew 18:5,6,7}

In democratically elected countries control is through money lent to that country from the international money fund or the world bank which tells elected leaders to privatize companies and how many migrants it must take. In Britain Brexit was in opposition to this fact. It is not by financial institutions alone that we discover the Australian ship is being steered but by the UN at a grass roots level and more intentionally and directly by the Jesuits.

“What do the Prime Minister, the prospective leader of the Labor Party and the Deputy Leader of the Nationals have in common with the Pope? Jesuit-educated politicians in the Australian political scene is disproportionately high.... Jesuit education focuses on rational thought, social justice, and a long tradition of theological reform that gives the Jesuits and their philosophy of the Magis (finding God in all things) an enduring relevance to students writes Sam Murray. This is why St Ignatius College students wrote to Tony Abbott asking him to change his position on asylum seekers and appealing to his Jesuit education. The illustration comes from the same article.

Jesuit trained Australian politicians is not a conspiracy theory but reality. Abbott the ex -Prime Minister is appropriately named. Abbott sort the advice of Cardinal Pell to run the country.

As we consider these core issues of social justice such as indigenous rights with land ownership and a voice in parliament, migration, LGBT in fact all the revolutionary issues present in the world and not just Australia today, we see Vatican II/ Jesuit agenda that is permeating the political landscape that people now release in 2022 is New World Order but the final dots need to be connected to its Jesuit origins.

Cold blooded war in Europe

Gladio started in 1945 and was a war on communism by the collusion of the CIA, NATO, organised crime, radical Muslim and the Church of Rome. Hundreds of covert stay-behind units throughout Europe had been funded through drug money.

Here are a few examples which by no means underscore the extent of their operations. The Piazza Fontana Bombing occurred December 1969 when a bomb exploded at the headquarters of National Agrarian Bank in Piazza Fontana 200 metres from the Duomo in Milan, Italy, killing 17 people and wounding 88. Three more bombs were detonated in Rome and Milan, and another was found unexploded.

May 1972 an anonymous phone call to the police leads to an investigation of an abandoned car in the Italian forest in Peteano which was booby trapped killing 3 police men. Felice Casson a young Italian judge found that the explosives used were not just any explosives but linked to NATO. This was found after discovering around one hundred underground arsenals. The investigations led to finding the secret service and NATO involved in the bombings that had been blamed on the communist party. In 1990 Felice finds documents from the secret service confirming a stay behind army and the judge has the Prime Minister announce the stay behind army Gladio to the Italian parliament. Innocent men were killed to get public opinion against the communist party, a signature of the many terrorist attacks across Europe before terrorism became part of our common language.

In 1972 bombs were placed in a trash can at the east end of the Piazza Della Loggia killing 8 and injuring 102.

1980, bombs are left at the Bologna train station killing 85 with over 200 injured. Eventually the massacre is traced to right wing terrorists that was blamed on the communists.

1981 in Munich a massacre killed 13 and wounded 213.

Between 15000 false flag attack by the CIA were blamed on the communists.

In 1985 Belgium, innocent families are targeted including girls around 9 and 14 and their parents, shot at point blank after three terrorist fired shots indiscriminately into a shopping mall. 28 were killed and many injured. Those responsible, 'stay behind SDRA8, the

Belgium Gendarmerie SDRA6, the Belgium right wing group WNP and the pentagon secret service DIA.'

This is the calibre of high-ranking NATO military who again were behind assassinations, torture and terrorist attacks along with CIA. American special forces would parachute into Belgium and raid an arms depot and stage a terrorist attack.

Would such people stage a 9-11 or worldwide coronavirus coup?

1969- 1987 15000 false flag attack by the CIA were blamed on the communists. The facts are meticulously and with great detail and referencing in the book NATO's secret Armies by Swiss historian Daniele Ganser.

From Italy across Europe to turkey the terrorism from CIA NATO activities was extensive in coups assassinations, shootings of innocent people carried and directed by people without a soul and to the most part running errands for CIA and ultimately the war for Rome.

Dead in 33 days

1978, dead in just 33 days after his election John Paul I

"... this morning, I flushed my toilet with a solid gold lever edged with diamonds and at this very moment, bishops and cardinals are using a bathroom on the second floor of the papal palace which trappings, I am told, would draw more than fifty million dollars at auction. Believe me, one day, we who live in opulence, while so many are dying because they have nothing, will have to answer to Jesus as to why we have not carried out His instruction, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself.' We, the clergy of the Church together with our congregations, who substitute gold and pomp and ceremony in place of Christ's instruction, who judge our masquerade of singing His praises to be more precious than human life, will have the most to explain."

Dead in 33 days suspected poisoning with no autopsy. It appears that Pope Paul I was a threat to the Vatican Bank meaning Vatican wealth and power. The saying "Absolute power corrupts absolutely."

Covering over the corruption of the Vatican Bank is one of many things that Pope Francis would be forced to address in 2013.

The top 1% of the world's wealthiest includes the priests of Rome who live for wealth & power & are thoroughly corrupted. Last image from the St John of Lateran. Fabulous wealth is displayed so it's beyond imagination what is not seen.

"God's Banker" found hanging from London bridge

The Vatican Bank is no ordinary bank: The ATMs are in Latin. Priests use a private entrance. A life-size portrait of Pope Benedict XVI hangs on the wall. In 1982 Roberto Calvi, 'God's banker' was found hanging from London's Blackfriars Bridge with bricks in his pants. He was profiting from vast sums of money being laundered by the Mafia and the Vatican, through the bank, Banco Ambrosiano. When Banco Ambrosiano crashed in 1981, it is believed over a billion pounds was lost.

It has never been confirmed whether the Vatican Bank was directly involved in the scandal due to a lack of evidence in the subpoenaed correspondence, however in 1984, the Vatican Bank agreed to pay US$224 million to 120 of Banco Ambrosiano's creditors as a 'recognition of moral involvement' in the bank's collapse.

The wall came down

Karol Józef Wojtyła, that is the man that succeeded John Paul I, John Paul II like a good actor, 'no matter what the unexpected disruption, he absolutely refused to break character.' As a young man he wanted a career on the stage and played in Avant Garde Theatre. Karol Wojtyła, founded the Rhapsodic Theater together with his theatrical mentor Mieczysław Kotlarczyk which was not a physical building but a Polish resistance movement using artistic resistance to the Communist occupation of Poland.

Rhapsodic Theatre cofounder, Mieczyslaw Kotlarczyk comments 'the actor had a function not unlike a priest: to open up, through the materials of this world, the realm of transcendent truth. His 'theater of the inner word' would make present universal truths and universal moral values, which stood in judgment on the here-and-now and offered the world the possibility of authentic transformation' ('Witness to Hope' by George Wiegel, p. 37).

Like the Jesuits Wojtyła embraced the theatre. The Jesuits were formed in 1540 by Ignatius of Loyola and by 1551 the first Jesuit play is recorded and continued as Jesuit colleges sprung up at a rapid pace around the world. Art, media is recognised by the priests as associating with humanities dramas and instilling the morality and views of the Papists. Just think what that art might be today with LGBT adopted by the principals of Vatican II and the current Papacy with their many gay curia. Just as the occult has embraced movies and media to generate and condition the public for its messages so too has the Vatican embraced any form of popular media and art to convey its messages.

The devil will fill every sense and make every opportunity to mould minds to the culture and education of the world. So as a child is brought up in the world, the state of mind with its inherent good and evil, is enforced by the media and culture, which makes the issues of salvation imperceivable to the carnal mind. The things of God are not the things of man.

Karol Józef Wojtyła continued writing plays after he entered into the priesthood not knowing whether the tide would bring but to cross paths with another actor Ronald Reagan. By this time, he was already playing the world stage as Pope John Paul II. Reagan was just the front man actor as was John Paul II—literally both trained as actors, who had become political friends through remarkably similar circumstances having both cheated death after receiving a bullet wound following an attempted assassination and both had a common enemy.

John Paul survives attempted assassination in 13th May 1981 as does Reagan 30th March 1981

John Paul II attempted assassination 13th May 1981 in St Peter's square occurred while meeting the faithful in a general audience. A man from Turkey failed to take his life but John Paul was seriously injured. Mehmet Ali Ağca spent three decades behind bars and was visited by the Pope who said that he forgave him. Years later he would visit the Pope's tomb in Rome with flowers to pay his respects.

'Agca, 56, laid white roses at the tomb of the late Pope on Saturday, in his first visit to the Vatican since his attack on John Paul II on 13 May 1981.'

A 25-year-old gunman, John Hinckley, attempted the assassination of a president Reagan outside the Washington Hilton, in that same year as Pope Paul II assassination attempt, 1981. While 3 others were seriously injured, one of the bullets, unbeknown to Reagan or the Secret Service at the time, bounced off the door of his limousine and punctured the president's lung before it lodged itself close to his heart.

Hinckley was found and sentenced 35-years to a mental health facility. He was transferred out in 2016, and sought from court supervision in 2020 – nearly four decades after the shooting. The pope's secretary, wrote in 2007 that Blessed John Paul himself believed Moscow was behind the assassination attempt.

John Paul said that the Virgin Mary had saved his life. His prayer was to consecrate the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary which was read in Basilica of Mary Major church in Rome as he was not able to attend. This day marked 1600th anniversary of the First Council of Constantinople and the 1550th anniversary of the Council of Ephesus. 'Mother of all individuals and peoples, you know all their sufferings and hopes. In your motherly heart you feel all the struggles between good and evil, between light and darkness, that convulse the world: accept the plea which we make in the Holy Spirit directly to your heart, and embrace with the love of the Mother and Handmaid of the Lord those who most await this embrace, and also those whose act of entrustment you too await in a particular way. Take under your motherly protection the whole human family, which with affectionate love we entrust to you, O Mother. May there dawn for everyone the time of peace and freedom, the time of truth, of justice and of hope' - this is known as the Act of Entrustment.'

'Reagan and the Pope John Paul II agreed to undertake a clandestine campaign to hasten the dissolution of the communist empire.' June 7, 1982. The Wall coming down between East and West Germany is probably one of the greatest symbols of the abolition of communism as a worldwide threat and the alliance of the US and Vatican to see it through.

'The 4 June 1989 elections in Poland where anti-communist candidates won a striking victory sparked off a succession of peaceful anti-communist revolutions in Central and Eastern Europe known as the Revolutions of 1989. Solidarity's example was repeated in various ways by opposition groups throughout the Eastern Bloc, eventually leading to the Eastern Bloc's effective dismantling, and contributing to the collapse of the Soviet Union, in the early 1990s.

Solidarity is really another word for liberation theology which is a “form of Christianity” influenced by Marxism and Communism and is opposed to materialism and is for equal rights for the minority and the poor even if it is immoral rights! The Papacy was interested in their own structure of socialistic ideals, pulling down one construct to erect another. Today that view is primarily fascist but ultimately it is about playing the game until you have taken control of the set. The set is the nations of the world.

‘In a speech at the Brandenburg Gate commemorating the 750th anniversary of Berlin on June 12,

1987, Ronald Reagan challenged Mikhail Gorbachev, then the General Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, to ‘tear down the wall.’

The catholic church and CIA made the day possible with the CIA supplying faxes and communication technology and intelligence support and the church communicating through their congregations and of course their intelligence networks.

After John Paul’s 1978 election to head the papacy, the Vatican sought to foster better relations with Soviet- bloc to keep open dialogue and pressing communist regimes to comply with international agreements on human rights.

In June 1979, less than nine months after becoming pope, John Paul II visited 13 million faithful in home country of Poland. He publicly called for “political self-determination for Poland’s citizens and formation of its own culture and civilization.’ Notice a pattern here that would be used for for example in the USA by Pope Francis.

In 1980 the Polish government was forced to raise wages, relax censorship and permit the formation of an independent labour union, Solidarity. In that short space of time there was alarm by Polish officials as to the Pope's influence.

Under the Reagan administration there was an increase in the US military budget that put the USSR's finances under the strain of an arms race. Soviet SS-20 intermediate-range missiles targeted Western Europe while the United States deployed, in Germany and elsewhere, intermediate-range Pershing II missiles capable of hitting Moscow. 'President Yuri Andropov and other Soviet leaders feared that the U.S. was planning to replace its intercontinental missiles with Pershings and cruise missiles that could strike targets within the U.S.S.R. quicker and from shorter range.' There was also the roll out of the stealth bomber in 1980 which the USSR had no comparable weapon available and the threatening Strategic Defense Initiative nicknamed stars wars program. In the arms race 50% of the USSR economy was devoted to defense spending. As long as the Soviets believed it might work, they had to keep expending resources chasing it which eventually made their whole system implode.

In 1983 while the democracy movement was being squashed by the communist regime Pope John Paul visited his home land for the second time and met with General Wojciech Jaruzelski Poland's last communist leader while calling for economic sanctions to be lifted. The Pope supported the independent trade union movement and met with Walesa, a campion of trade unionism who had been jailed since 1981.

The pope stated 'trade unions are a mouthpiece for the struggle for social justice.' In the USSR there was no communication with the west while the nuclear arms race was spiralling out of control until Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev met 1985 on international diplomacy and the arms race in Geneva.

Martial law was lifted in Poland shortly after the Pope's visit to Poland as he encouraged the democracy movement by weekly radio broadcasts. Liberalising moves by Soviet leader Gorbachev also influence events in Poland and through John Paul negotiations took place between the union movement the Catholic church and Poland's communist government.

The talks led to the formation of a new Polish government in June 1989, led by a non-communist Prime Minister. Within a few months, the Berlin Wall was down and communist regimes had fallen in Czechoslovakia and Romania. In that same year there was an historic meeting between Gorbachev and John Paul who endorsed 'perestroika' or reconstruction, and in 1990 Gorbachev would be the first soviet leader to visit the Vatican. The USSR finally come to an end in 1991. In 1992 Gorbachev participated in the Club of Rome meeting in Amsterdam which addressed the climate crisis.

'The 1987 Intermediate-Range Nuclear Forces (INF) Treaty required the United States and the Soviet Union to eliminate and permanently forswear all of their nuclear and conventional ground-launched ballistic and cruise missiles with ranges of 500 to 5,500 kilometers. The treaty marked the first time the superpowers had agreed to reduce their nuclear arsenals, eliminate an entire category of nuclear weapons, and employ extensive on-site inspections for verification. As a result of the INF Treaty, the United States and the Soviet Union destroyed a total of 2,692 short-, medium-, and intermediate-range missiles by the treaty's implementation deadline of June 1, 1991.'

On December 1988 Gorbachev gave his New World Order speech to the United Nations General Assembly, one year before George Bush gave his New World Order speech in 1990. 'Internal Soviet documentation shows that Gorbachev was prepared for rapid arms control progress leading towards nuclear abolition at the time of that last official meeting with President Reagan, at Governors Island in December 1988.' While declassified documents show that U.S. and NATO were more concerned about losing control of the public narrative of the Cold War after Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev's offer in 1988 to disarm in his famous United Nations speech. Reagan had called the USSR the 'evil empire.' President-elect Bush, President Reagan, President Gorbachev and World Trade Center in the background, December 1988. 9-11 would be just the start of dismantling the US. By 1991 the USSR had come to an end with a drive for independence by other Soviet bloc states and Soviet republics.

Gorbachev said in 1992 'Everything that happened in Eastern Europe in these last years would have been impossible without the presence of this pope and without the important role — including the political role — that he played on the world stage.' Under financial strain and undermining soviet nations with the threat of nuclear war and by several interviews with the Pope, Gorbachev had a vision of the New World Order with disarming both sides. The ultimate winner of the NEW World Order and architect is the Vatican.

Gorbachev would continue as a world speaker for the New World Order, despised by many in Russia as their economy demised, receiving the Nobel Prize and praised by the West as they gloated over the defeat of the USSR and the US considered its actions moving forward as the new world hegemony. Gorbachev said 'Over the next 20 to 30 years, we are going to end up with world government, It's inevitable. It will happen and become just as normal to have a relationship with the rest of the world as we now have, say, if you are a Californian and you go to Vermont.'

In 2008 Gorbachev visited Basilica of St. Francis with his daughter. 'It was through St Francis that I arrived at the Church, so it was important that I came to visit his tomb,' said Mr Gorbachev. 'I feel very emotional to be here at such an important place not only for the Catholic faith, but for all humanity.' Interesting note in light of Bergoglio taking up the name of the saint and the connection to nature and climate change. The Italian news said it was a 'spiritual perestroika.' Gorbachev was seen kneeling for half an hour in silence at the tomb. "To sum up and avoid any misunderstandings, let me say that I have been and remain an atheist," Gorbachev stated.

It appears that Gorbachev was trying to keep a stable government that was getting out of control as military spending, sanctions, trade unions and the Catholic church was undermining the situation. The vision of the Papacy's New World Order became his own.

When Cardinal Wojtyla, was elevated to the title of Pope John Paul II, US national security advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski a fellow Pole instigated a major cold war move in which he worked in close connection with Agostino Casaroli, Vatican Secretary of State. mild, even wispy, but whose subtle negotiating skills, a mixture of toughness and tact, had led veteran Curia-watchers to call him 'Kissinger in a cassock'. Emigration Museum in Gdynia has kept copies of Brzezinski's letters to the Pope which he donated to the opening of the museum.

Zbigniew Brzezinski makes this interesting assessment of Ukraine the centre of fighting in 2002: 'Ukraine, a new and important space on the Eurasian chessboard, is a geopolitical pivot because its very existence as an independent country helps to transform Russia. Without Ukraine, Russia ceases to be a Eurasian empire.'

Mary's intercession for the conversion of Russia

Three young Portuguese shepherds, Lúcia Santos and her cousins Jacinta and Francisco Marto, received apocalyptic visions and prophecies given in six Marian apparition appearances, starting on 13 May 1917.

Mary asked that Russia be consecrated to her Immaculate Heart and for world peace. In 1929, she renewed her request in an appearance to Lucia, who was then preparing for life as a religious sister.

Through the messages of Fatima Russia has been consecrated to the immaculate heart of Mary several times in post WWII history. In 1942, during the Second World War, Pope Pius XII consecrated the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and 10 years later consecrated Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Pope Paul VI renewed this consecration during the Second Vatican Council.

When John Paul was shot, he turned to Mary. Again in 2022 Francis visited Fatima and consecrated Russia to Mary's immaculate heart March 15 2022 as war broke out between Russia and Ukraine.

Pope Francis said Mary is with us in our struggles. Mary ... has of course already entered, once and for all, into heavenly glory. But this does not mean that she is distant or detached from us, ... Rather Mary accompanies us, struggles with us, sustains Christians in their fight against the forces of evil.' Said Pope Francis.

What is critical to the Papacy is who controls the New World Order- the West or the East? To fight the Papacy battles she invoke Mary who is dead. The Papacy places great emphasis on Mary that the Bible does not and by so doing introduces believers to the occult.

Ecclesiastes 9:5,6 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any [thing] that is done under the sun. Scripture clearly states that Mary has not entered once for all into Heavenly glory for the dead know not anything. Said Martha speaking to Jesus concerning the death of Lazarus, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. {John 11:24}

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive [and] remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive [and] remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. {2 Thessalonians 4:13-18}

The true meaning of the Trinity

It may be well to remark in beginning that there is a large number of Protestants as well as other non-Catholics who entertain the mistaken view that the doctrine of the immaculate conception refers to the conception of Jesus by the Virgin Mary. The truth is that it refers not to the conception of Christ by Mary, but to the conception of Mary herself by her mother. The official and "infallible" doctrine of the immaculate conception {1905 ATJ, CWCP 37.3}

...is defined by Pius IX who solemnly proclaimed the dogma of the Immaculate Conception: "... We declare, pronounce and define that the doctrine which asserts that the Blessed Virgin Mary, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God, and in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, Saviour of the human race, was preserved free from every stain of original sin is a doctrine revealed by God and, for this reason, must be firmly and constantly believed by all the faithful"

The false construct around Mary destroys the gospel message of overcoming sin as Christ did when He took to Himself our fallen nature.

Though He had no taint of sin upon His character, yet He condescended to connect our fallen human nature with His divinity. By thus taking humanity, He honored humanity. Having taken our fallen nature, he showed what it might become, by accepting the ample provision He has made for it, and by becoming partaker of the divine nature.--Letter 81, 1896. {3SM 134.2}

Mary the new god of forces

Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. {Daniel 11:37,38}

'Ever since the Council of Ephesus, it [sacred art] has pictured Mary as Queen and Empress, seated on a royal throne, adorned with royal emblems, crowned with a diadem, surrounded by Angels and Saints, and dominating not only the forces of nature but also the evil influence of Satan.' (E p. 81)

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, [and] because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day. {Jeremiah 44:22-25}

RIO earth summit

In Rio 1992 the earth summit was held which initiated agenda 21 and emphasised the importance of local governments accomplishing long-term goals. Oil billionaire Maurice Strong served as the UN conference secretary general. The Convention of biodiversity was signed at Rio as a multinational treaty with three main goals: the conservation of biological diversity (or biodiversity); the sustainable use of its components; and the fair and equitable sharing of benefits arising from genetic resources. This was the result of a United Nations Environment Program that began in 1988.

The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) established an international environmental treaty to combat 'dangerous human interference with the climate system.' The first of the United Nations annual climate conferences started in 1995 in Berlin Germany. United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) now known as the conference of Parties or COP. The change from Bush to a Clinton White House signalled a more aggressive stance on climate change both domestically and internationally. Agenda 21 is a comprehensive blueprint for the reorganisation of society. Bill Clinton brought Agenda 21 into Federal policy.

What building the walls of Babylon really means-

'Agenda 21/30 is the inventory plan of all land, all minerals, all plants, all animals, all construction, all means of production, all food, all energy, all information and all human beings in the world. This is a plan that was Agreed to by 179 nations back in 1992. It's a United Nations plan. It's called the agenda for the 21st century. And so, of us many around the world think that sustainable development- just sounds so great. Isn't it about recycling and creative reuse and creating energy and food resources for everyone. And the answer is no. it really is not. It's about moving populations into city centre, concentrated city centres and clearing them out of the rural areas The goal of agenda 21 is one world government and total control from a central unit.' Rosa Koire. Behind it all is a Vatican/ Occult plan through the United Nations for total control.

In the book 'Keys of this blood' by Jesuit Malachi Martin it says after the US falls apart the Vatican will place its base in Europe from whence it comes. This is exactly what Revelation 13 and 17 is telling us.

As I listen to the sunshine Coast QLD council meeting in November 2022 they are presenting climate change issues as would councils from all the 5 eye nations. It was stated that humans and domesticated animals make up 96% of the world population and 4% is the remaining wild life. That we need to get back to understanding indigenous ways that worked with the land and reverse what excess has created. Sustainability is the theme which was a term initiated in 1972 'the limits to growth,' from the club of Rome.

To the head of the human race in Genesis God blessed them and said , 'Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground.' {Genesis 1:28} Here God establishes the basic order of creation, in which mankind is to have dominion over nature. God gave us a work to do- to tend to the soil not abandon it back to the wild. God also gave other laws – a Sabbath for the land, prohibiting the eating of unclean meats and the eating of blood and fat etc which humanity has ignored.

And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I [am] the LORD that healeth thee.
{Exodus 5:26}

Agenda 21 now agenda 2030 is the most subtle deception ever devised against mankind. The tower of Babylon is being built but God will intervene and destroyed it in judgements as described in Revelation 16.

The Lord calls for His people to locate away from the cities, for in such an hour as ye think not, fire and brimstone will be rained from heaven upon these cities. Proportionate to their sins will be their visitation. When one city is destroyed, let not our people regard this matter as a light affair, and think that they may, if favorable opportunity offers, build themselves homes in that same destroyed city. . . .
{LDE 95.3 published 1906}

Again and again the Lord has instructed that our people are to take their families away from the cities, into the country, where they can raise their own provisions, for in the future the problem of buying and selling will be a very serious one. We should now begin to heed the instruction given us over and over again: Get out of the cities into rural districts, where the houses are not crowded closely together, and where you will be free from the interference of enemies.--2SM 141 (1904). {LDE 99.4}

Another example of Clinton administration wars- Waco 1993 massacre & torture

One of Bill Clinton's legacy was the Waco massacre. It shows what the American government will do without repercussions when dealing with its citizens. 76 Branch Davidians, 25 innocent children were murdered. WACO 'The rules of Engagement' is a totally different documentary to Paramount's more recent portrayal of events. DeGuerin and Zimmerman, criminal defence attorneys were the only ones that had contact with the Davidians during the siege. Zimmerman a retired military judge had this to say with the investigation that ensued, 'The way things are meant to happen in this country is when someone is suspected of a crime even if its child, even if it is capital murder we give them a trial, then the jury finds them guilty beyond reasonable doubt before they go to sentencing, the jury or the judge sentences them, then the appeals court makes sure the court was conducted with due process and then and only then do we kill them!'

Justifying ATF actions

defence of Democratic administration of the WACO siege hearings
in 1995. 'Sunlight is the best disinfectant. The danger here is we won't shine sunlight but a strobe light flashing on and off distorting our vision said Schumer at the hearings. This is exactly an image of the ATF agency working with strobe lights to drive the people inside crazy.

Evidence related to the event went missing or confiscated. The event was blamed on the Davidians as suicide when infrared footage and audio painted a totally different picture. The events were something from a horror movie as people were burnt alive and an army tank got stuck as it ran over a dead body.

4th Amendment copy found in the charred remains of WACO

Those trapped in the building were not able to escape the fire and the cyanide gas as they were under rapid fire from machine guns. The narrative was that the Branch Davidians decided to burn themselves rather than come out but the infrared footage and recorded broadcast tell us exactly the opposite, that these people including children were killed screaming in agony as they died. They were not allowed to escape by federal agents. When looking at the situation in depth from the investigation following the tragedy it shows the way US government agencies deal with their enemies and sanitise murder, as in other example, the Julian Assange's trial. Has the horns of a lamb but speaks and deals with people as a dragon.

The FBI was gathering information from around the US on extremist groups and infiltrating their organisations including the Texas Reserve Militia (TRM), based in the Austin, Texas, area, and the Order of Saint John (OSJ), based in Benton, Tennessee and of course the Branch Davidians. These programs know as Patcon terminated 6 months following Waco.

Larry Potts deputy director of the FBI oversaw the Waco siege, Ruby Ridge siege and associated with Oklahoma bombing. 'After joining the FBI in 1974, Potts worked violent crimes, white-collar crimes and organized crime as a street agent. Later he held numerous management positions in the FBI, including Assistant Director in Charge of the Criminal Investigative Division and Deputy Director.'

The agonising death of the 25 children in Waco is due to spasmic death by cyanide poisoning. The cyanide makes the muscles contract so violently that they can break bones. The blood of innocent children dying in such a gruesome way is one the record books in heaven.

One witness from a distance screamed, 'your next, your next!' and amongst the witnesses was Timothy McVeigh who commented on camera about the raid.

The Iran- contra affair

August 1985 to March 1987- The US congressional hearings stopped the nation as it was broadcast across the country. Oliver North states, 'Covert operation are a lie. There is great deceit practiced in covert operations.' But then he went on to say that does not mean we don't need them. This is the mentality of men that leads to great crimes though it doesn't start out as such but it develops that way.

North was military aid to in Reagan's national security council working closely with CIA chief Casey. Reagan's presidency was in question when it was revealed 'profits from weapons sales to Iran were funnelled by the CIA to right-wing rebels in Nicaragua who were fighting the country's socialist government.' This operation was illegal as Congress had passed an earlier amendment that prohibited government funds or military support from being given to the contra rebels.

Oliver North was convicted of obstructing justice, submitting a false timeline of events to Congress, shredding government documents as news of the deal became public, accepting an illegal gift of a $13,800 home-security system and forging letters showing he paid for it. He didn't have to go to prison, but he was ordered to do 1,200 hours of community service and pay a $150,000 fine.

Before North went to trial CIA's man George H W Bush had already given North pardon. After all he was just following the chain of command. The important thing was there was a trial and that was that. No need for head hunting higher up of course.

Today Oliver North is president of the National Rifle Association which seems quite ironic.

God is looking upon the unequal and unfair judgements of this world with a time of reckoning. Judge righteous judgment. {John 7:24}

Gary Webb investigative journalist found dead

August 1996, Gary Webb an investigative journalist for the San Jose Mercury News wrote 'dark alliance.'

'For the better part of a decade, a San Francisco Bay Area drug ring sold tons of cocaine to the Crips and Bloods street gangs of Los Angeles and funnelled millions in drug profits to a Latin American guerrilla army run by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, a Mercury News investigation reported.

This drug network opened the first pipeline between Colombia's cocaine cartels and the black neighbourhoods of Los Angeles, a city now known as the 'crack' capital of the world. The cocaine that flooded in caused a crack explosion in urban America . . . and provided the cash and connections needed for L.A.'s gangs to buy automatic weapons.'

Gary was found dead in 2004 with two gunshot wounds to his body with a lot of questions being asked about his suicide.

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. {John 3:19}

Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change

IPCC formed in 1988 an intergovernmental panel established by United Nations and world meteorological organisation. IPCC's charter is the study of human causation of climate change. Being intergovernmental means its charter is political.

In 1988, the Vatican also held a workshop which focused on climate change and society, and the Pontifical Academy of Sciences has since continued to publish multiple studies on climate change models etc.

ICLEI

To implement Agenda21, The group, ICLEI-Local Governments for Sustainability, formed in 1990; today its members come from over 1,000 cities, towns, and 88 counties and is widely regarded as a model of excellence for Agenda 21 implementation. There are five pathways that ICLEI follow - low emission development, nature-based development, circular development, resilient development and equitable and people-centered development.

fundamental shift to fascism

In 1998 there was a transfer of power out of the hand of government to multinational corporation and corrupt banking systems. The UN became the means for government and private sector fusion with corporations directing policy making. 'The United Nations has been transformed since we last met here in Davos. The Organization has undergone a complete overhaul that I have described as a 'quiet revolution'. . . A fundamental shift has occurred.' The United Nations once dealt only with governments. 'By now we know that peace and prosperity cannot be achieved without partnerships involving governments, international organizations, the business community and civil society. . . . The business of the United Nations involves the businesses of the world.' Secretary General Kofi Annan at the World Economic Forum in 1998.

The policies of large corporation were directed through the United Nations- no borders, control of the nation's natural assets.

Mother and head of all the churches of Rome and the rest of the world or MYSTERY,

BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Image of St John Lateran the cathedral of Rome

In 2000 a Vatican document caused a stir when it stated: The Dominus Iesus declaration, which has been written by a close aide of Pope John Paul II, says that the Roman Catholic church is the 'mother' of all Christian denominations and that it is incorrect to refer to the Church of England and other Protestant churches as 'sister' organisations on a par with Rome. There was a strong reaction from Ireland's Reformed churches to the Vatican document: 'Responses to some questions regarding certain aspects of the doctrine of the Church. The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr George Carey said it was like pouring cold water on churches that were being brought together.'

This is indeed the very inscription in Latin at St John of Lateran Basilica- the head of all the catholic churches with the white Papal throne. At the entrance it says "Omnium Urbis and Orbis Ecclesiarum Mater et Caput" "mother and head of all the churches of Rome and the rest of the world." Revelation 17:5 says it this way: MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Another document in 2007 approved by Pope Benedict, from the Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith document repeated assertions made by it in Dominus Iesus seven years ago that Reformed churches were not churches "in the proper sense" but were "ecclesial communities. It also repeated its assertion that their priesthood and Holy Communion were not genuine. This again caused reaction of disappointment.

Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith is the Inquisition. A group of institutions within the Catholic Church whose aim was to combat heresy by whatever means.

"The inquisition was founded to prosecute judaizing conversos, namely individuals of Jewish ancestry who were baptized as Christians but continued to practice aspects of Mosaic law such as dietary rules and rituals associated with the Sabbath. To Christian religious authorities, conversos who followed Jewish ceremonies were heretics because they appeared to be practicing two religions simultaneously and hence betraying their baptismal vows. The Inquisition was supposed to find these judaizing heretics and, if possible, enclose them again in the Christian community after eliciting from them an expression of repentance. If the suspected heretic refuse to confess her error and sufficient eyewitness testimony against her, she would be relaxed to the secular arm, a phrase meant released to the secular authorities and burn at the stake.

p23,24 The Cambridge Companion to The Jesuits Edited by Thomas Worcester.

Thomas Worcester is a Jesuit priest, and a Professor of History at the College of the Holy Cross, in Massachusetts. He is a specialist in the religious and cultural history of early modern France and Italy.

It is not without reason that the claim has been put forth in Protestant countries that Catholicism differs less widely from Protestantism than in former times. There has been a change; but the change is not in the papacy. Catholicism indeed resembles much of the Protestantism that now exists, because Protestantism has so greatly degenerated since the days of the Reformers. {Great Controversy p572}

Ustashe in Europe

'Fear of war is separable from human rights and a free will.'

'The ideology of the movement was a blend of fascism, Roman Catholicism and Croatian.' Between 1929 and 1945 the Ustashe murdered hundreds of thousands of Serbs, Jews, and Romanians as well as political dissidents in Yugoslavia during World War II. According to Phayer, 'at the end of the war, the leaders of the Ustasha movement, including its clerical supporters such as Bishop Šarić, fled the country, taking gold looted from massacred Jews and Serbs with them to Rome.' Franciscan monks had aided the movement of Nazi war criminals through these countries after WWII. And the American had used some of the Ustashe war criminals for the CIA.

KLA was a jihadist terrorist group that the CIA formed with the help of Al-Qaida, an army of 30,000 with sophisticated weaponry, including anti-tank rocket launchers, mortars, recoilless rifles and anti-aircraft machine guns. They conducted attacks on Serbian special-forces police units. The 'Racak Massacre' of Jan. 15, 1999, when the bodies of 45 Albanians were discovered in a gully within the village of Racak." Then Serbian president Milosevic insisted the bodies had been placed there by the KLA to implicate the Serbs and justify Western intervention.

In the war in Kosovo Germany was allowed to carry out military campaigns with NATO for the first time since WWII with the encouragement of the US. So, Germany revisited the country it had waged war against in WWII so to speak. Today Germany is the biggest arms dealer in Europe since 2011. The Balkans have strategic importance to the US in a continent not of its own and to the Russians being on its doorstep. Arms are building again in Serbia with interest both sides and with Serbia now a NATO member. 'Flying 37,465 missions, destroying 400 Serbian artillery positions, 270 armoured personnel carriers, 150 tanks, 100 planes, killing 10,000 Serbian soldiers and causing 1.4 million Kosovars to flee for their lives.'

England's Prime Minister Tony Blair also joined forces with Bill Clinton in this campaign.

The reason for the intervention was mass genocide of the Muslim population and the US had come as the saviour but in Rwanda it didn't matter.

In the Kosovo war there were no American casualties as bombs from a high altitude rained down on the civilian population which was meant to be aimed at military installations.

Experimental bombs were used to cut power and cluster bombs which other countries deemed evil. The bombing of a civilian train caused 60 casualties. Despite the first hit the attack continues. The train attack was 'unfortunate' but unavoidable says Wesley Clark.

Today after all that bloodshed, Serbia having had thousands of tons of bombs dropped on targets from one end of Serbia to the other, the Western Balkans is the strongest military power, with Albania a distant second. Kosovo is home to Camp Bondsteel, one of the largest US air bases in Europe today.

The same pretext as in other interventions- no social/ communist remnants were to remain from what was Yugoslavia. The Jesuits who lost their presence in the Balkans since communist rule, have 'made a full recovery since their communism-era losses and maintains regional offices in Albania, Bosnia and Croatia.'

We expect that the Jesuits will increase their educational, missionary and charity activities in the Balkans, complementing Vatican and EU interests.

What is left behind after the war is a high Islamic presence central to Europe with the church wanting the American troops to remain to protect the churches from vandalism.

The reason for the war in Kosovo by all accounts of history appears to have been very poorly stated except for an American mission of mercy. Kosovo was hailed as a victory without losing any American lives. Russia nearly went to war with NATO.

Prophecy of New York

Most people on the day of 9-11 have a story surrounding the events of that day in 2001 as the world watched in horror and shock at the unfolding news.

I have no light in particular in regard to what is coming on New York, only that I know that one day the great buildings

there will be thrown down by the turning and overturning of God's power. . . . Death will come in all places. This is why I am so anxious for our cities to be warned.--RH July 5, 1906. {LDE 112.4}

On one occasion, when in New York City, I was in the night season called upon to behold buildings rising story after story toward heaven. These buildings were warranted to be fireproof, and they were erected to glorify their owners and builders. . . . {LDE 113.1}

The scene that next passed before me was an alarm of fire. Men looked at the lofty and supposedly fireproof buildings and said: "They are perfectly safe." But these buildings were consumed as if made of pitch. The fire engines could do nothing to stay the destruction. The firemen were unable to operate the engines.—9T 12, 13 (1909). {LDE 113.2}

ABC reported the entire building has just collapsed as if a demolition team set off, when you see the demolition of these old buildings.'

Fire Marshal's report from Infowars, Gabby Martin interview, 'The building came down in classical demolition, it came down on its own footprint.. never in the history of the world, never in the history of high-rise skyscrapers has ever a skyscraper ever come down because of fire. You know the reason why? Fire never burns hot enough by itself hot enough to compromise steel. What we had in the world trade centre and I saw my self was molten lava like pockets of molten steel. I spent the night on the pile search for bodies and I saw that with my own eyes... I lost 343 guys that day...I can never forget that. I think of that before I go to bed. I think about it first thing when I wake up. It's in honour of them and their family that I will continue to do everything I can to make the rest world wake up to the fact that this was a false flag operation. .. This was a bombing.

What did you think of them taking all the debris away so quickly? That was a crime in and of itself because the classical thing that any investigator is taught is protect the crime scene. And 9-11 commission lied to the public. ..Was this a conspiracy absolutely yes it was and those people need to go to jail for treason.

Putin phones Bush the day before the attack and said something big was going down. Snowden said we did indeed have all the information to stop these terrorist attacks and we didn't.

'NIST's (National Institute of Standards and technology) report says that the steel didn't melt as the temperature in the WTC towers never rose above 1,800 degrees Fahrenheit (steel melts at 2,750 degrees).

Steel will, however, start to bend and buckle at temperatures as low as 600 degrees if the fireproofing is inadequate.'

That was the report but the fire marshal in charge of all those men that day reports what he saw pockets of molten steel not just steel that had bend and buckled. 'Despite the huge fireballs caused by the two planes crashing into the WTC towers each with 10,000 gallons of jet fuel, the fireballs didn't explode or create a shock wave that would have resulted in structural damage, according to a follow-up report by the Federal Emergency Management Administration.'

Patriot slaughter: Oklahoma bombing

'Borrowing a page from US foreign policy, I decided to send a message to a government that was becoming increasingly hostile by bombing a government building and the employees within that building who represent that government....I again became the hard-core soldier who was trained to kill by my own government,' wrote Timothy McVeigh 10 days before execution.

Timothy McVeigh witnessed the siege of the Branch Davidians at Waco exactly 2 years to the day of the Oklahoma bombing. He died with eyes wide open but the bomber refused to speak a word.

The worst bomb attack in US history until9-11 with striking similarities. The bomb killed 168 people with over 600 injured. ATF worker had been tipped by the pagers not to come into work, the same as the CIA leaving the building before 9-11 attacks.

A rental truck was parked outside the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in downtown Oklahoma City. 24 witnesses saw two men with the rental truck that day. There were at least two other bombs present in the building, one was defused and bombs placed at critical infrastructure junctions which brought down the multistorey building.

Samuel Cohen, father of the neutron bomb and formerly of the Manhattan Project, said of the Oklahoma City bombing, 'It would have been absolutely impossible and against the laws of nature for a truck full of fertilizer and fuel oil ... no matter how much was used ... to bring the building down.'

Timothy McVeigh became the name everyone associated with the act but later Terry Nichols, an army associate was arrested and sentenced. Terry Nichols reported McVeigh had told him while in the army he had been recruited for undercover missions. McVeigh had been selected for the special forces, the exclusive 'Green Berets' however the gulf war changed this. For his part in the Gulf War McVeigh received the bronze star for valour and the combat infantry badge and was specially selected to guard General Norman Schwarzkopf as sharp shooter.

A letter from McVeigh to his sister written in 1993 was published in the New York times in 1998. It read,

1 We would be helping the CIA to fly drugs into the US to fund many covert operations.

2 Military 'consultants' were to work hand in hand with civilian police agencies to 'quiet' anyone who was deemed a 'security risk'. (We would be gov't paid assassins!)

McVeigh was a drug smuggler and a professional assassin working in conjunction with ATF and FBI.

Terry Nichols said he was not able to reveal all those associated with the bombing because he feared for the safety of his family but it was clear that McVeigh was not alone in the truck that day. Sketches of the two men wanted for questioning.

Andreas Karl Straßmeir (image left) was reported by witnesses as the other man at the scene and a group of men were seen by a witness wiring up the building's basement 3 days before the explosion. Straßmeir is the former head-of-security for the white separatist community of Elohim City, Oklahoma. Straßmeir is the son of Günter Straßmeir who was Chief of Staff to German Chancellor Helmut Kohl. His Grandfather was also a co-founder of the Nazi Party. Strassmeir was able to work with the federal government through a retired U.S. Air Force colonel who he had met in Berlin, 'a former CIA guy my father had known.'

4 months after the bombing Straßmeir slipped out of the country to avoid investigation. 'A 1997 FBI investigation noted that (ex-) CIA pilot Dave Halloway "flew Straßmeir back to Berlin, Germany after the Oklahoma City Bombing."'

James Corbett links this excellent quote from Colonel L. Fletcher Prouty which is eye opening. As a colonel in the U.S. Air Force and Chief of Special Operations for the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Prouty worked from 1955 to 1964 as the liaison procuring military supplies and provides these revelations of how the military works covertly in his book 'The Secret Team.' "'Sheep-dipped' is an intricate Army-devised process by which a man who is in the service as a full career soldier or officer agrees to go through all the legal and official motions of resigning from the service. Then, rather than actually being released, his records are pulled from the Army personnel files and transferred to a special Army intelligence file. Substitute but nonetheless real-appearing records are then processed, and the man 'leaves' the service. He is encouraged to write to friends and give a cover reason why he got out. He goes to his bank and charge card services and changes his status to civilian, and does the hundreds of other official and personal things that any man would do if he really had gotten out of the service. Meanwhile, his real Army records are kept in secrecy, but not forgotten."

Dipped sheep soldiers were used in the Vietnam war in what is known as Project Heavy Green. The US bypassed the Geneva accord with national agreements on Vietnam by using ex-military as civilians, 'dipped sheep' to enter Laos, to establish a tactical air navigation station on Phou Pha Thi mountain.

Though it is reported that McVeigh was executed in 2001, even this is without certainty.

20/20 revealed that the ATF had prior knowledge of the event and certain government agencies were expecting the bombing that day. 2 unexploded bombs had to be defused.

Roger Charles: "The government has claimed that they had absolutely no prior warning and yet we start off with the interesting little episode where two Air Force bomb squad guys, and these are very special Air Force bomb squad guys that we know were cleared to work for Presidential security, VIP security and so on. They were ordered from Kirtland Air Force Base in New Mexico to Oklahoma City arriving on Monday the 17th of April, 2 days before the bombing. Their orders were to go to a motel and wait there until contacted by the FBI.

I had become aware of this information in 1997, developed some confirming information but the key was that in the summer of 2001, two journalists had separate conversations with one of the individuals, one of the two individuals on this bomb squad team. He admitted he was there when asked in separate conversations by both journalists. 'Why he was there?' He responded 'You'll have to ask the FBI'."

(Information posted on the Corbett report)

The result of the Oklahoma bombing was the passing of the Omnibus Counterterrorism Act of 1995, by Biden for the Clinton administration permitting the US military to be used in civilian law enforcement. Omnibus Counterterrorism Act would use secret sources and secret evidence the basis for the Patriot Act that followed 9-11 in 2001.

Cnet.com reports:

<https://newspunch.com/joe-biden-admits-he-wrote-the-patriot-act-in-1995/>

The next year, months before the Oklahoma City bombing took place, Biden introduced another bill called the Omnibus Counterterrorism Act of 1995.

It previewed the 2001 Patriot Act by allowing secret evidence to be used in prosecutions, expanding the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act and wiretap laws, creating a new federal crime of "terrorism" that could be invoked based on political beliefs, permitting the U.S. military to be used in civilian law enforcement, and allowing permanent detection of non-U.S. citizens without judicial review.

The Center for National Security Studies said the bill would erode "constitutional and statutory due process protections" and would "authorize the Justice Department to pick and choose crimes to investigate and prosecute based on political beliefs and associations."

Biden himself draws parallels between his 1995 bill and its 2001 cousin. "I drafted a terrorism bill after the Oklahoma City bombing. And the bill John Ashcroft sent up was my bill," he said when the Patriot Act was being debated, according to the New Republic, which described him as "the Democratic Party's de facto spokesman on the war against terrorism."

Many classified documents were destroyed in the building that day. Any documentation that implicated the Clinton's in drug smuggling would have been filed and destroyed in the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building.

Not understanding the 'rules of engagement' would see Larry Potts, deputy director of the FBI demoted after the Oklahoma bombing in the position held with the FBI but promoted to other positions. It appears that Potts was giving directions to McVeigh according to Terry Nichols who is serving a life sentence.

Mystery and intrigue will always remain with what went down in Oklahoma but it is certain there was CIA and FBI involvement. Was it simply that McVeigh was a pawn in the game that was used to meet others objectives? The idea that the beast with lamblike horns but speaks as a dragon is not future but present!

9-11- A Crime against US citizens & democracy

'The Security Strategy of the United States of America.' Hegemony

- In "The national Security Strategy of the United States of America" the President outlined American aims come post September 11.
- 'American internationalism to actively work to bring hope of democracy, development, free markets and free trade to every corner of the globe
- A grand purpose for a people chosen to extend freedom and democracy
- 'We must build our defences beyond challenge
- 'Act preemptively' so as to attack before being attacked
- Unilateral agreements
- See The Boyer Lectures No 2 The taking of Utopia by Owen Harries

The Security Strategy of the USA post 9-11 is about US superiority, globalism and the US preventing new rivals from rising up to challenge it on the world stage. It calls for domination over friends and enemies alike. It says not that the United States must be more powerful, or the most powerful, but that it must be absolutely powerful as Owen Harries point out.

US is the power engine to a Vatican dream for NEW WORLD ORDER.

Kissinger made a brief appearance to head the commission to investigate 9-11 as appointed by President Bush. The New York times said: 'It is tempting to wonder if the choice of Mr Kissinger is not a clever manure by the White house to contain an investigation it long opposed.' New York Times Nov 2002.

When the widows who had pushed for the commission had audience with Kissinger, they questioned him on his own business dealing suggesting conflict of interests, with ties to several organizations and public figures in Saudi Arabia and to Bin Ladin. 'One wonders about how diligently Kissinger, a long-time friend of the Saudi royal family, just like the Bushes, will pursue these and other matters that step on politically, diplomatically or economically sensitive toes.' Chicago Tribune Dec 2002. Kissinger soon resigned and the commission reformed.

Philip Zeliko then took on the role as executive director and of course with ties to the Bush administration. As a lawyer he authored the 2002 National Security Strategy (as outlined above) including a new direction for the US in pre-emptive strike- 'turning military doctrine on its head.' Zeliko therefore also proved to be in conflict of interest to the role of the commission. If you want to manipulate the scene pay a lawyer many of whom are men without souls. There was no independent investigation into 9-11.

This was a new step up in aggression and direction for the United States, stated in the 2002 National Security Strategy. Revelation 13 tells us the beast with lamblike horns representing its power through Protestantism and Republicanism will have control over the earth by controlling individual's power to buy and sell and causes fire to come down from heaven in the sight of men.

‘Keys of this Blood’ by former Jesuit Malachi Martin: ‘For the competition is about who will establish the first one-world system of government that has ever existed in the society of nations. It is about who will hold and wield the dual power of authority and control over each of us as individuals and over all of us together as a community; over the entire six billion people expected by demographers to inhabit the earth by early in the third millennium.’ Exactly the what Revelation 13 is telling us. The amalgamated beast from the sea representing Papal power and the beast with lamblike horns rising from the earth -the USA form the first dual hegemony in history.

When the US is finished as a nation as is also stated in the book ‘Keys of this blood’, Rome shall place its power in Europe as Revelation 17 tells us and as is the aim of the Papacy. How would the author Malachi Martin know all this? Has he been studying SDA Bible prophecy? On the contra he is a trained Jesuit who is intimately familiar with the aims and direction of the Papacy through the study of his own organisation and the actions of John Paul II.

To get into a US government position the best way is through a Jesuit school such as Georgetown University or Notre Dame which is a sad reflection of the US today. The Jesuits hold key positions in western governments. The Jesuits own more than 50% of the bank of America as exposed by Karen Hudes former lawyer for the world bank. The Jesuits have placed a ‘strategy of tension’ in society polarizing the western world by religious liberty – a Vatican model which means the opposite of what the US constitution was founded on and liberation theology or in other words minority rights such as native title rights and gay rights and so they play both sides of the fence with the goal of the Priests bringing the Catholic church to dominate society and through their infiltration of the USA the world. That US is on a dead-end course and prophecy says the same.

The religious war was brought onto US soil

Prophecy states: There will be a national apostasy in the USA, which will end only in national ruin. -- Manuscript 51, 1899. {Ev 235.1}

While the USA has visions of grandeur, Rome figures it is an expendable power, as are all under its sway and will be dispensed with it when it no longer serves the purpose. Rome understands that controlling the USA is the key to controlling the world.

9-11 was a pivotal point for the USA to assert world dominance and finish its mission in the middle east. The response to 9/11 was to make a public declaration of that which was previously determined- to show its muscle as the world dominating power. There is nothing good in it for the American citizens.

Statue of Liberty with the surrounding scene of devastation represents a world in which liberty is lost.

Having dealt with socialistic communism the US now turned to the second beast from the bottomless pit, to implement the final strategy for world domination- control in the middle east (the Iraq war).

It was strange that the CIA had all left the building before the twin tower attacks. In May 2007, senators from both the Democratic Party and the Republican Party drafted legislation that would openly present an internal CIA investigative report. Senator Ron Wyden stated, 'The American people have a right to know what the Central Intelligence Agency was doing in those critical months before 9/11.... I am going to bulldog this until the public gets it.' We all know what that means. The CIA criminal actions never reach the light of day as it's a matter of national security. The report investigates the responsibilities of individual CIA personnel before and after the 9/11 attacks. The report was completed in 2005, but its details have never been released to the public.

Some well-known figures of the time- Bush, Cheney and Rice.

America embraces Augustine principals for 'Just war.' Christian just war doctrine was originally developed by Saints Ambrose and Augustine and later refined by Thomas Aquinas and others. Just war doctrine provided a middle road between the pacifism of the early church on the one hand and on the other hand as in the crusades the unrestricted use of force in God's service. Just war standards have come to be worked out in response to four basic questions: (1) Who has the authority to order that force be used? (2) What reasons are necessary and sufficient for such an order? (3) What special, additional considerations ought to govern the decision to employ force? And (4) what is acceptable conduct, under conditions of armed conflict, in respect both to armed antagonists and to unarmed bystanders? (See David Little, "Introduction," in David Smock, Religious Perspectives on War, U.S. Institute of Peace Press, 2002).

The United States Institute of Peace is an independent, nonpartisan federal institution created by Congress to promote the prevention, management, and peaceful resolution of international conflicts.

Established in 1984... BOARD OF DIRECTORS Chester A. Crocker

of Foreign Service, Georgetown University (Jesuit university.)

The crazy thing is the institute of peace is created for justification of war. This doctrine has been taught to the troops in Iraq and it is a Catholic doctrine that through the ages has menaced society. The Jesuits followed the teachings of Thomas Aquinas and without stating the rest of the board we note the chairman is from the Jesuit school Georgetown. While this committee pontificates on the justification of the war in Iraq most sensible people realize that this war was a crime against humanity and was created on a false premise.

Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274) a Dominican monk laid out the conditions for a justified war but were the wars of church and state and the inquisition ever justified? Never, that why this little / beast power is distinguished above his fellows, because of its immoral brutality on God's people and humanity all in God's name. The Dominicans gave the reigns of the inquisition to the Jesuits who followed the philosophies of Thomas Aquinas.

- Just war must be by the authority of the state.
- It must not be for self-gain or for its own power but to restore good
- • Peace must be a central to its purpose in the midst of violence

Ultimately the question is how can the USA justify its crimes against humanity? Are they not modern crusades influence by the Church of Rome? How can the church of Rome likewise justify its crimes against humanity?

I saw in the night visions, and, behold, [one] like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion [is] an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom [that] which shall not be destroyed. {Daniel 7:13,14}

The policies the US has taken as their God given right since 9-11 have made the nations angry. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth. {Revelation 11:18}

We live in a time just before the total outbreak of war that has been propagated by the 'little horn.' A time of trouble is about to erupt such as never was since there was a nation and Michael shall stand up to judge

the earth. {Daniel 12:1}

'In October 2001, Congress passed the Patriot Act, which granted the administration broad powers to fight terrorism. The Bush administration used these powers to bypass the FISC and directed the NSA to spy directly on Al Qaeda via a new NSA electronic surveillance program. The NSA is also tasked with the protection of U.S. communications networks and information systems. The NSA relies on a variety of measures to accomplish its mission, the majority of which are clandestine.'

'In October 2001, President George W. Bush issued Executive Order 13228 — referred to as the Terrorist Surveillance Program (TSP) — that authorized the National Security Administration (NSA) to track communications between individuals abroad and domestic American suspects.’ Clandestine means usually pretty dubious forms spy and war operations using money from dubious sources.

It was not until December 2005 that the existence of the program was exposed by the New York Times.

As you drive through Hawthorn Nevada past a military installation there is a series of signs dedicated to American wars and ending with this dedication to veterans of the global war on terror. 9-11 made the world its battlefield without limitations. The war on terror is really a war on you.

9-11 was instrumental for enacting laws worldwide for surveillance which we would never have known about except for whistle-blowers such as William Binney who developed 'thinthread' which after 9-11 was further developed into 'stellar wind' in what is known as 'NSA wiretapping' and 'NSA warrantless surveillance'. Binney developed thinthread to target individuals involved in terrorist activities. Several weeks before 9-11 the program was terminated. After 9-11 through other associates Binney found the program had been used, changed and expanded to spy on even American citizens. He was outraged by the thought of this anti-constitutional action and blew the whistle on the program and what happened next was early morning he was arrested by a team of FBI agents with a gun pointed his way while in the shower.

WILLIAM BINNEY, former high-level NSA analyst, code-breaker, and whistleblower, will speak on the details—and dangers—of persistent, pervasive state surveillance.

Through the George W. Bush administration's President's Surveillance Program (PSP). Binney calculates that the facility at Bluffdale, Utah has the capacity to store 100 years of the world's electronic communications. When Binney realized that it was not other countries but US citizens being spied on, he began to speak. The magnitude of the problem is beyond what anyone might ever have imagined. They can target after the fact by keeping private information on record and build profiles on that person. Stellar wind violated the constitutional law and in 2004 Justice Department officials threatened to resign over the matter. Basically, what Binney is talking about is totalitarian or a fascist state like Germany. Dick Cheney was responsible for changing the surveillance program from targeting an individual to mass surveillance. The metadata includes phone calls of all who you are speaking with which is a violation of the US constitution and basic liberty. This includes recordings of phone calls, the content of email messages, entries on Facebook and the history of any internet user's access to websites – all of which is deemed legal, even though the warrant system was supposed to limit interception to a specified range of targets.

The upgrade to fibre optic helps gather this information. The Five Eyes electronic eavesdropping alliance, comprising of US, UK, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. GCHQ and the NSA are consequently able to access and process vast quantities of communications between entirely innocent people, as well as targeted suspects. Having backed the mujahedeen and other terrorist organization with weapons and cash with training camps even on US soil to fight communism, the terrorist attack comes knocking at America's door. Now according to a recent study, the majority of Americans believe that preserving the rights of US citizens is more important than preventing terrorist attacks. Their liberties and rights that made the US a great country has been taken away under false flag operations.

People say well I've got nothing to hide! Shall we live comfortably and leave unsaid the corruption in high places until it comes to knock at your door and destroys even those that wanted to have their heads buried in the sand? Because it will come as death and destruction.....

- Inspired by the thoughts of world domination handed to the American from not the American fore-fathers but the Vatican led militia, the US will stop at nothing and by any means until it has achieved world domination. 'Keys of this blood' book by catholic priest and author Malachi Martin --1990

'In the long run, global politics are bound to become increasingly uncongenial to the concentration of hegemonic power in the hands of a single state. Hence, America is not only the first, as well as the only, truly global superpower, but it is also likely to be the very last.' Zbigniew Brzezinski

9-11-The largest bailout in history?

1 Unaccounted money

A speech by Donald Rumsfeld the day before 9/11 said there was money wasted and a huge lack of accountability for military spending to the tune of 2.3 trillion dollars. The pentagon had undergone its first ever audit in 1996. For the fiscal year, 1999 financial statements, the auditors concluded that $2.3 trillion transactions of the $7.6 trillion entries to the financial statements were 'unsupported'. By 2015 the amount unaccounted for was 6.5 trillion for the army alone. The Department of Defense Office of Inspector General's study found that Army and Defense Finance and Accounting Service did not document or support why the Defense Departmental Reporting System . . . removed at least 16,513 of 1.3 million records during Q3 of 2015. Mark Skidmore, a professor of economics at Michigan State University, found that $21 trillion in unsupported adjustments for that year.

Trump in his state of the union address took off defense budget restraints made in 2013 with a time of unlimited spending on the military. No money was ever lost but its accountability has never been fully disclosed. This whole post WWII history is about coverup and unaccountability but presenting a veneer of credibility.

Every minute money that could be spent enriching American lives is spent by the billions on the war machine and its war crimes while the poor go without basic necessities.

2 Economic war

Evidence 9/11 Used to Launder $240 Billion in Covert Securities in a Covert Economic War

Chart by Federal Reserve Bank of New York

'There is strong evidence that 9/11 was used to facilitate a great financial crime – the laundering of $240 billion in covert securities.' Fred Burks in his statement made in the American Herald

Tribune, follows E.P. Heidner's summary who was a former employee of the DIA Office of Naval Intelligence. His department was investigating the money laundering and was hit by the plane that ran into the pentagon. In an economic war with the USSR initiated by George H W Bush, it is highly likely that $240 billion in fake government securities were created out of thin air in 1991 that never had to be accounted for due to the 9/11 attacks. The creation of this wealth was through the federal reserve and the Bank of New York.

Gold deposits were said to have been taken from 9-11 buildings. Whatever the situation these criminals were changing worthless paper into assets for themselves

Remember the Federal Reserve is a private bank owned by The Four Horsemen of Banking (Bank of America, JP Morgan Chase, Citigroup and Wells Fargo) and the Four Horsemen of Oil (Exxon Mobil, Royal Dutch/Shell, BP and Chevron Texaco); in tandem with Deutsche Bank, BNP, Barclays and other European old money behemoths. Also recall that CIA chiefs such as Helliwell and Casey, virtually all of them were lawyers and bankers.

The bank security notes had a 10-year life which meant they had to be honoured and cleared or upgraded by September 12 2001- just like writing a cheque which is government backed which had to be honoured. The money was used to buy Russian companies and assets by unsuspecting Americans. This money was also under investigation having no real security but were all electronically cleared in the destruction of the twin towers by the Federal reserve (private corporations) who invoked emergency powers and allowed such clearances over a 15-day period.

Cantor Fitzgeralds managed these funds and they were cleared by the Bank of New York. AIG American

It is highly likely that $240 billion was handled by Greenburg's company AIG with connections to Bank of New York. Later AIG would be involved in one of the greatest bailouts in history 2008 because of its place in underpinning the rest of the financial sector

International Group the largest insurance company in the world is an insurance group insuring the money market, insurance companies, banks and superannuation in 130 countries. 'The men behind the insurance unit were OSS head William "Wild Bill" Donovan and California-born insurance magnate Cornelius V. Starr.'

The Secret (Insurance) Agent Men MARK FRITZTIMES STAFF

WRITER Los Angeles Times. Of course, insurance holds detailed accounts of assets and so particularly important knowledge in war. Maurice Greenburg took over the company and was given advantage in overseas insurance by the US Government leverage on the company's behalf. He was past chairman, deputy chairman and director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. In 1987 Greenburg appointed Kissinger as chairman of AIG's International Advisory Board. Maurice Greenburg's name was nominated for director of the CIA.

3 Insider trading

'This could very well be insider trading at the worst, most horrific, most evil use you've ever seen in your entire life.' Professor Marc Chesney shed light on 9-11 concerning financial fraud and crimes that were never fully investigated. He says that investigation in the financial events such as insider trading has received little attention likely because it could potentially put at risk the careers of financial experts and journalists. 'Our empirical findings suggest that periods leading up to certain events such as the takeovers of AIG, Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac, the collapse of Bear Stearns Corporation and public announcements relating to large losses/write downs are preceded by abnormal trading activities in options. Realized gains amount to several hundreds of millions of dollars.' Detecting Abnormal Trading Activities in Option Markets': Marc Chesney University of Zurich and Swiss Finance Institute† Remo Crameri University of Zurich and Swiss Finance Institute‡ Lorian Mancini EPFL and Swiss Finance Institutes, January 22, 2015.

38 companies were suspected of insider trading, United Airlines was number 1, being suspected by security exchange. Kroll was bankrolled by AIG and became a subsidiary and was given the contracts for the twin towers buildings security following the 1993 World Trade Centre bombing.

So, what do we have here? Private companies of bankers & insurance groups, oil companies that run the American economy with some congress oversight but the politicians are financed by big business and the CIA having virtually no oversight of its money laundering and drug trafficking activities.

Richard Andrew Grove's story:

Richard Andrew Grove was working with Silverstream Software, a software development company and found that the company had over charged Marsh & McLennan $7 million dollars. When this was brought to Silverstream's management's attention he was dismissed by Silverstream. Grove was on his way to meet with the staff of Marsh & McLennan to voice his concerns but traffic held him up. Being late saved his life from the 9-11 attacks. All the staff of Marsh & McLennan lost their lives. When a person comes to a near death experience and at the same time being true to others it changes his perceptive on life. There was a reign of evil events that almost cost him his life and so he is going to expose it- he speaks out. And Jesus speaking unto us says, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, [even] unto the end of the world. Matthew 28:18-20 And that's a good thing because it is the end of the world

DID YOU KNOW?

JUST MONTHS BEFORE 9/11, THE WORLD TRADE CENTER'S LEASE WAS SOLD TO LARRY SILVERSTEIN. SILVERSTEIN TOOK OUT AN INSURANCE PLAN THAT 'FORTUITOUSLY' COVERED TERRORISM. AFTER 9/11, SILVERSTEIN TOOK THE INSURANCE COMPANY TO COURT, CLAIMING HE SHOULD BE PAID DOUBLE BECAUSE THERE WERE 2 ATTACKS.

HE WON, AND WAS AWARDED $4,550,000,000

THEFREETHOUGHTPROJECT.COM

Following the September 11, 2001, attacks, Silverstein may not have been the mastermind behind 9-11 but he profited very well, claiming for 2 sperate terrorist attacks and winning the claim.

NATO Article 5

Hours after 9-11 NATO invoked Article 5, the collective-defense provision, which is the alliance's backbone. The article was included in the Washington Treaty, NATO's founding document, to deter the Soviet Union amid the emerging Cold War. The idea was, essentially, that if the Soviet Union attacked a European NATO member the US would intervene on its behalf. October 2, 2001 NATO Secretary General Lord George Robertson announced that the 9-11 attacks had been directed from abroad and Article 5 to be invoked.

This was a watershed moment for the alliance for a failure to invoke Article 5 would have meant that NATO was obsolete. The alliance had been struggling to find justification for its existence following the collapse of the Soviet Union, but now was sent into Afghanistan for the fight against terrorism.

Article 5 again has relevance with the invasion of Ukraine by Russia.

NATO The North Atlantic Treaty Organization, also called the North Atlantic Alliance, is an intergovernmental military alliance between 30 member states – 28 European and two North American. It could well play its part in coming years as US sovereignty fails and the power of the West finally ends in Europe as found in Revelation 17. This is also alluded to in the Jesuit book 'Keys of this Blood.'

Divide & Conquer in the Middle East

Operation Ajax

Trump is calling Iran "No.1 provocateur of terror." That's quite a statement considering post World War II history of the USA. Maybe No.2.

No1 is the King of the North, No. 2 the King of the South.

The 1953 coup comes from declassified CIA documents since 2013 until now however most of the records of the coup were destroyed.

Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh called for the nationalization of British oil fields. The British intelligence were concerned about the nationalization of the petrol industry in Iran and called to the assistance of the American CIA. Any such moves by a country to nationalise its assets are labelled socialist communist by the Americans. The shah or the monarch of Iran dismissed Mossadegh who's interest was with pro- western elites but this caused riots and he was brought back to power. At that point the CIA worked with the Shah to overthrow Mossadegh. Mossadegh heard of the plan and people protested on the streets. The CIA worked through the Iranian military and pro shah forces bribing and forcing its way to power and then arranging its own protests with the backing of the military. The shah who left the country for health reasons returned to power while Mossadegh was imprisoned and later died under house arrest. Nationalization of industry is a fatality that calls for US intervention even within the USA itself, which is such as the protectionist policy under the Trump administration. 40% of the oil fields were signed over to US companies. Oil of course is one of the most valuable commodities in the world. During the 1970s US aid flowed into Iran until 1978 when anti shah and American protests erupted.

Daniel 11:40-43 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many [countries] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, [even] Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [shall be] at his steps.

Could it be that we have already seen a partial fulfilment of these verses in Daniel which many are looking for as a future fulfillment.

U.S General Wesley Clark Retired 4-star U.S. Army general, Supreme Allied Commander of NATO during the 1999 War on Yugoslavia), words went viral 'shortly after the attacks of 9/11, the Pentagon adopted a plan to topple the governments of seven countries; Iraq, Libya, Lebanon, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, and Iran.' The plan was while there was a vacuum in power in the middle east that the US would go through seven countries in five years until it reached Iraq.

The history of Iran of course is Persia the kingdom that followed Babylon.

Image from Sibel Edmonds illustrating the intended invasion of Iran from US.

While Daniel 11 polarizes the world between two great religions, Revelation mentions 3 powers. The King of the North is pagan Rome to then become the church of Rome to then be revived as the ecumenical church of Rome while Egypt is pagan, then apostate Christian and then Islamic. Most have not arrived at a rational, logical understanding of these difficult prophecies and are ridiculously dogmatic and un-pragmatic about it. The prophecies describe our world as we see it today that has developed from the nation's histories of conflict.

The first two woes of Revelation relate to the power of the Ottoman empire. The final woe and the last great woe are the revival or healing of the church of Rome and the coming of antichrist.

With Trump following the evangelical's understanding of prophecy and influence, moves the US embassy to Jerusalem, telling Israel to take the Golan heights, sets the stage for the last verse of Daniel 11 to take place.

But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. {Daniel 11:44,45}

And he (the Papacy) had power to give life unto the image of the beast (Protestant America), that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. But tidings out of the east (Christ returns from the East & is the true King of the North) and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy (God's people), and utterly to make away many. At that time Christ shall stand up

This image rightly represents America as the front man for the modern crusades in the middle east. Trump is the recognisable figure head for the US but the CIA knowingly leads into battle using their Catholic intelligence.

Alleged mastermind of the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks, Pakistani Khalid Sheikh Mohammed

Daniel Pearl journalist in India was kidnapped & killed

The CIA knew their main target was in Afghanistan. The US tried to get the Taliban to give up Binladin however proving unsuccessful the US went to war and so Al-qaeda moved in Afghanistan to the border of Pakistan into the mountains. Cooperation with Pakistan did not stop Al-qaeda moving after heavy bombing from the mountains of Tora Bora through the border into Pakistan itself. The CIA was following Al-qaeda communications through the al-Hada house in Yemen until al-Hada fled his house when Yemen government personnel came to arrest him- his son blew himself up by hand grenade. Looking for al-qeda in Pakistan the CIA was about to trace Abu Zubaydah a Saudi Arabian citizen who was organizing the safe houses for al-qaeda (currently held by the U.S. in the Guantanamo Bay detention). After raiding 14 safe houses Abu Zabayadah was flown by the CIA to Thailand for interrogation by CIA revealing the leader of the 9-11 operation which led to Khalid Sheikh Mohammed who was captured on March 1, 2003, in the Pakistani city of Rawalpindi by a combined operation of the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and Pakistan's Inter-Services Intelligence.

All Guantánamo Prisoners Were Subjected to "Pharmacological Waterboarding" with high dosage of a controversial antimalarial drug, mefloquine with side effects such as seizures, intense vertigo, hallucinations, paranoid delusions, aggression, panic, anxiety, severe insomnia, and thoughts of suicide which resulted in prisoner deaths.

Waterboarding was a method used by the inquisition in the dark ages now useful for intelligence in Guantanamo bay. His confession is, "I was the director of operations for Sheikh

Islamburg

(this one has to take the cake- training Muslim terrorists on US soil.)

Paramilitary activities of racial Islam took place on American soil. At Islamburg in upper New York and other similar installations there were bunkers, high powered weapons and training funded by the CIA. Hundreds of Islamic clerics were sent to the USA for training to fight the Soviet Union starting in 1979.

The US had its sights on Eurasia for its immense wealth and to maintain the balance of power as Zbigniew Brzezinski, former Secretary of writes:

For America, the chief geopolitical prize is Eurasia. . . . Now a non-Eurasian power is preeminent in Eurasia and America's global primacy is directly dependent on how long and how effectively its preponderance on the Eurasian continent is sustained. . . . To put it in a terminology that harkens back to the more brutal age of ancient empires, the three great imperatives of imperial geostrategy are to prevent collusion and maintain security dependence among the vassals, to keep the tributaries pliant and protected, and to keep the barbarians from coming together.

Gulen was an Islamic preacher preaching a new Islamic world order and is able to spread this message through radio and television and through the universities and started a new political party which tried to topple the existing government in the 1990s. He was charged with sedition and taken back to the USA to become a US resident where he continues to establish hundreds of schools throughout Turkey and central Asia and the USA with CIA funding.

July 15, 2016 there was a coupe attempt against President Erdoğan (right with Pope Francis) by rogue soldier that brought in martial law, with accusations that the US was behind the uprising. Fethullah Gülen (right pictured with singled out Gulen as behind the plot but of course the West said he had nothing to do with it. Turkey wants the US to hand over Gulen. Turkey is in a strategic position to Russia and the middle east with US air bases. When Turkey purchased Russian weapons the US thought to impose sanctions with the threat by Erdogan of losing US bases in Turkey.

Boston times

Boston is staunchly Catholic of all America's big cities. The Archbishop of Boston in June 2001, Cardinal Bernard Law filed a court submission in response to a former priest John Geoghan accused of sexual abuse.

In 1984, Cardinal Bernard Law had assigned Geoghan to St Julia's church in the Boston suburb of Weston and he had done so knowing that the priest had, in his previous parish, been accused of molesting seven boys from the same family. The Boston Globe picked up this story. As the coverups began to surface in the UK there were calls for Pope Benedict to be arrested.

Till this time the accusation of paedophilia seemed random despite other cases had appeared such as in 1981, Father Donald Roemer pleaded guilty to child molestation in Los Angeles; in 1985, a Louisiana priest, Gilbert Gauthier, was convicted of similar offences against 11 boys. But they were seen, for the most part, as isolated incidents.

The scope of the coverups and number of priests involved was phenomenal and the court cases have spanned more than 2 decades. The result is that people had to undergo child safety checks and with what seemed as all males could be suspect when rather the suspects were primarily Catholic priests doing a works that God said they should never do.

For [there is] one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; {1 Timothy 2:5}

And call no [man] your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, [even] Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. {Matthew 23:9-11}

John Geoghan met a grisly death in jail, killed by a molestation victim.

Guantánamo Prisoners subjected to
"Pharmacological Waterboarding"

The Guantanamo Files sent to WikiLeaks and others such as New York Times and The Guardian, reveal that 'Sami al-Hajj, an Al Jazeera journalist and cameraman, was detained from 2002 to 2008, allegedly in part so that U.S. officials could interrogate him about the news network.

According to the file, he was detained 'to provide information on ... the al- Jazeera news network's

training

programme, telecommunications equipment, and newsgathering operations in Chechnya, Kosovo and Afghanistan, including the network's acquisition of a video of UBL [Osama bin Laden] and a subsequent interview with UBL.' He was considered to be 'a HIGH risk, as he is likely to pose a threat to the US, its interests, and allies' and 'of HIGH intelligence value.'

What is striking about Guantanamo is such a facility is on enemy soil which uses inquisition torture methods- waterboarding.

Storms in the Desert for oil

If ever there was a war so obviously disconnected from the reasons given for it to take place it is the post 9-11 war in Iraq in 2001, another war following on from the initial Desert Storm war carried out by CIA man Bush senior. There were no weapons of mass destruction and the independent inspectors were reported as being CIA men. To the credit of the British they made efforts to bring Tony Blair to trial but Michael Moore wants to know why Bush, Cheney and Rumsfeld are not in jail? It saw the death of Dr. David Christopher Kelly, a Welsh scientist and authority on biological warfare, who was pushed into the media spotlight after being identified in newspapers as the man the government believed was the source for a controversial BBC report on Iraq. The BBC report, in May 2003, cast doubt on the government's claim that Iraq had weapons of mass destruction capable of being deployed within 45 minutes.

Bush's 'axis of evil' was comprised of Iran, Iraq, and North Korea and the three amigos the US, Britain and Australia made up the trinity of the 'Coalition of the Willing' - we are willing to allow innocent people to die is what it really means. It saw the pollution of oil wells set on fire in the desert and the end of America's one-time ally Saddam Hussein who the US had previously courted. 'Before the 2003 invasion, Iraq's domestic oil industry was fully nationalized and closed to Western oil companies.'

Tony Blair converted to Catholicism after leaving his job as prime minister. Many British citizens wanted him jailed for taking their country to an unjust war!

Iraq's domestic oil industry was fully nationalized and closed to Western oil companies.' The notion that Saddam Hussein government had ties to Al-Qaeda only spotlighted the US in the minds of many around the world as a terrorist sponsoring organization. 'Counter-terrorism expert Rohan Gunaratna has called the invasion of Iraq as a "fatal mistake" that has greatly increased terrorism in the Middle East.'

And if no one understood that, they should have no doubt by the message Saddam Hussein sent by the burning hundreds of burning oil well across the country which burnt out of control. 'The total amount of oil burned is generally estimated at about one billion barrels of the entire one hundred four billion supply.'

The oil fields of Iraq were set alight to months testified to the real nature of the conflict

'This regionalization is in keeping with the Tri-Lateral Plan which calls for a gradual convergence of East and West, ultimately leading toward the goal of one world government. National sovereignty is no longer a viable concept.' Zbigniew Brzezinski

285,000 killed according to Unites States leaked pentagon field reports- mostly civilian-why didn't the world stop like Covid 19 for this?

CIA were given extended powers post 9-11 & had cross 1/3 of Iraq carrying weapons through its new special forces before war was even declared says time magazine.

Executive Order 13228 initiated by Bush — referred to as the Terrorist Surveillance Program (TSP) — that authorized the National Security Administration (NSA) to track communications between individuals abroad and domestic American suspects.

In Britain whether it is May or Blair, Syria or Iraq, they don't bother with parliament agreeing to go to war they just do it

Expansion of Presidential powers (Caesars): The invasion of Iraq was against the UN charter which of course the US is a major signatory. The US is making the Munroe doctrine for any circumstance and the President's power is overtaking the power of congress. There should not be no secret laws and they are being abused by people part of secret societies such as the Bush 'skull and bones.' Secret taping and surveillance of citizens worldwide was post 9-11 initiative under Bush came up only for question with the Snowden revelations. All the CIA had left their building before the 9/11 incident, so the question arises were the CIA privy to that information of the attack, something which senator Ron Wyden also questioned but received no answer.

There are serious constitutional concerns that came with the FISA amendment act. Authorized under the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (FISA) to oversee requests for surveillance warrants against foreign spies inside the United States by federal law. 'NSA had been querying business records metadata "in a manner that appeared to the Court to be directly contrary" to the court's order allowing it to so.' If the history of the intelligence services were squeaky clean perhaps it would be less worrying to have information in their hands but they proved to have a criminal history or should I say have acted immorally without the scrutiny of the law in most instances.

We can now clearly see how men and women are prevented by the US from buying or selling, except under certain conditions by the use of mass surveillance in reference to the prophecy of Revelation 13

13:16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

Following Edward Snowden's revelation of American mass surveillance questions arose as to the activities of the spy agencies against their own people.

senator Ron Wyden about mass surveillance on the American people. Despite committing perjury and having many complaints brought against him after 5 years no charges are brought against him and can never be brought against him after that time. He should have been given up to a 5-year jail sentence.

Americans only get disturbed if the spying is turned on themselves. Obama could have taken an executive order to stop what was unlawful but he did not. 'Interception of private communications via electronic surveillance has become a critical tool of law enforcement and has been used for decades to assist in gathering evidence.' And so, it is a creeping expansion on what the USA has been doing for a long time. It questions individual rights according to the 1st and 4th amendments of the constitution. 9-11 was responsible for this expansion of mass surveillance.

In 2013 James Clapper director of national intelligence lies to congressional hearing when questioned on surveillance.

A little-known agency-the CIA/ NSA investigation

In the need to develop a capacity to know what potential enemies are doing, the United States government has perfected a technological capability that enables us to monitor the messages that go through the air. (...) Now, that is necessary and important to the United States as we look abroad at enemies or potential enemies. We must know, at the same time, that capability at any time could be turned around on the American people, and no American would have any privacy left: such is the capability to monitor everything—telephone conversations, telegrams, it doesn't matter. There would be no place to hide.

If this government ever became a tyranny, if a dictator ever took charge in this country, the technological capacity that the intelligence community has given the government could enable it to impose total tyranny, and there would be no way to fight back because the most careful effort to combine together in resistance to the government, no matter how privately it was done, is within the reach of the government to know. Such is the capability of this technology. (...)

There is an ever-increasing number of private contractors or mercenaries being used in war post 9-11.

Erik prince (set up the Black water company one amongst many) sees himself as a modern crusader against radical Islam and not surprisingly he is a son of Rome. "As a U.S. military field manual states: Contractor employees are not subject to military law under the UCMJ [Uniform Code of Military Justice] when accompanying US forces, except during a declared war." Oct 21, 2004

Academi is an American private military company founded in 1997 by former Navy SEAL officer Erik Prince as Blackwater, renamed as Xe Services in 2009 and now known as Academi since 2011 after the company was acquired by a group of private investors.

Prince moved to Arab Emigrants to avoid legal repercussions because of massacres and mismanagement from Blackwater's involvement in the Iraq war. He was not able to work for the US with the Obama administration because of what happened in Iraq but in the emirates he has given advice on Libya, Syria and Yemen. He returned with Trump's presidency through a meeting with a Russian banker. Prince was there the night Trump was elected seeing an opportunity with private contracting in Afghanistan and Venezuela. He is very interested in an Iran conflict.

2008 & 2009 were critical years in which they tried to give the NEW WORLD ORDER traction but temporarily failed.

The edge of Economic Armageddon {9-11 of 2008}

America and all its wealth will be diminished and it started in 2008

The financial meltdown in the USA in 2008 found people begging for money at every traffic light in Florida and many people sleeping in the parks and houses being sold for cash for as little as $30000 in the city residence, with a hand written cardboard signs to advertise the fact. Car sales lots were empty as people were going bust. This I personally witnessed. This situation had little effect on places such as Australia but paved the way for political change with the slogan 'Make America great again.'

“Here’s the facts and we don’t even talk about these things: On Thursday (September 18) at about 11 o’clock in the morning, the Federal Reserve noticed a tremendous drawdown of money market accounts in the United States, to the tune of $550 billion. It was being drawn out in the matter of an hour or two. The Treasury opened up its window to help. They pumped a $105 billion into the system, and quickly realized that they could not stem the tide. We were having an electronic run on the banks. They decided to close the operation, close down the money accounts and announce a guarantee of $250,000 per account, so there wouldn’t be any further panic out there and that’s what actually happened.

If they had not done that, their estimation was that by 2 o’clock that afternoon, $5.5 trillion would’ve been drawn out of the money market system of the United States, would’ve collapsed the entire economy of the United States, and in 24 hours, the world economy would’ve collapsed.

We talked at that time about what would happen if that happened. It would’ve been the end of our economic system and our political system as we know it. That’s why, when they made the point, ‘we’ve got to act and do things quickly,’ we did.” Rep. Paul Kanjorski.

It’s a debt based system that never builds for the future that is currently based on confidence and is currently being driven straight over the cliff by the monsters in the Fed.

H1H1 swine flu

In 2009 Chinese detects the H1H1 swine flu. Fauci reports to the US congress and vice president Joe Biden says to avoid confined public spaces. The council of Europe health chief in Brussels accused major pharmaceutical firms of creating an atmosphere of panic and unduly influencing World Health Organisation decisions. The World Health Organisation lowered the threshold for a pandemic declaration under Dr Margaret Chan which meant governments had to pre-prepare contracts with vaccine manufacturers. While the chairman and the those of the Council of Europe Health subcommittee, stopped and questioned what was transpiring in 2009, Dr Wolfgang Wodarg comments would draw future criticism from German scientists and media outlets during the covid 19 epidemic. Millions of doses of swine flu vaccinations were discarded. In England around 90,000,000 doses were ordered with less than 4,000,000 being used. This would not happen second time round.

Global warning: New Climategate leaks

AFP Photo / Adrian Dennis © AFP

The Climategate scandal is back, as more emails between leading climate scientists are posted online. The latest leak from the Climatic Research Unit at the University of East Anglia has re-ignited the wrangle around manmade climate change.

Much like the scandal of 2009, Tuesday's leak comes just days before UN climate talks, set to kick off in Durban, South Africa on 28 November. Critics who have long accused climate scientists of cherry-picking their data to prove that manmade climate change exists, might feel vindicated by some messages. One email from a climate researcher identified as Overpeck reads: "The trick may be to decide on the main message and use that to guide what's included and what is left out." Another scientist expressed his fears regarding potential data manipulation: "Observations do not show rising temperatures throughout the tropical troposphere unless you accept one single study and approach and discount a wealth of others." The scientist went on to stress a "need to communicate the uncertainty and be honest." It appears that various government bodies have put pressure on climate scientists to justify their own policy initiatives, ranging from restrictive environmental taxes and regulations, switching from fossil fuels to alternative sources of energy, to re-appropriating farm land for profitable biofuel schemes. Speaking of the governmental influence on climate change policy, one scientist said: "I can't overstate the HUGE amount of political interest in the project as a message that the Government can give on climate change to help them tell their story. They want the story to be a very strong one and don't want to be made to look foolish."Based on the

In November 2009 a server at the Climatic Research Unit at the University of East Anglia was hacked and thousands of emails and documents published on line revealed the climate record figures had been 'cooked'. Scientists used dendroclimatology to measure tree rings which estimate temperatures over the past 7000 years and apparently suggest temperatures have fallen since the 1960s. Climate gate came just prior to the Copenhagen climate summit which temporarily set back the globalist agenda. Note also the timing with the events of the financial crisis of 2008. Hacking occurred again just before climate conference at Durban, south Africa. This prevented the climate summits from cementing a political agreement. Kevin Trenberth of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change in his email said "the fact is that we cannot account for the lack of warming at the moment and it's a travesty that we can't." The IPCC is directing governments around the world on global warming. This information may also have helped to change Australian politics with a change in Prime Ministers from Turnbull to Abbott.

So, we see the same line up of events that sort to control world affairs in 2008 & 9 waiting another decade.

PRISM

In 2013 Edward Snowden reveals the NSA PRISM and TEMPORA surveillance programs which watches and records everyone's movements even if you are doing nothing wrong. A suspicion can mean the spooks can go back in time and go through all your data and attack you on that basis. Anyone can be painted in the context of a wrongdoer using their personal information.

They are looking at emails, phones, chat and videos and tapped in servers of 9 internet companies taking everything, including google, facebook, youtube and more. This was instigated by the 'Protect America Act' of 2007. It was also revealed that the NSA can activate a device to spy on a person even when the phone or computer is turned off. Snowden was working for a private company Booz Allen Hamilton with work contracted out from the NSA.

The 5 eyes- USA, Australia, Canada, UK, New Zealand, were spying not only on their own citizens through echelon but every conversation around the world.

We are losing the information war!

2011- War declared on information as secretary of state Hillary Clinton says the US is losing the battle. Western media had a monopoly on world news but things have changed. Clinton stated the US is losing the global information war to alternative media. This was the message to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs who were questioning the state department's $47 billion budget. Clinton was seeking more money to setup propaganda efforts abroad while crafting laws to deal with media such as WikiLeaks. Said Hillary, 'During the cold war we did a great job in getting America's message out and after the Berlin wall fell, we said fine enough of that.' The importance of this statement is particularly relevant to the 2016 when the Vatican met with all the media heads and the events of covid that followed.

Send in the marines: First Jesuit Pope elected

In 2013 Jorge Mario Bergoglio was sent in to clean up the mess the church now found itself in with unprecedented sexual abuse, mass graves found in different continents, scandals in the Vatican Bank and a diminishing Catholic congregation in the Americas, which saw Pope Benedict step down to make way for Pope Francis something that had not occurred in over 400 years of Papal history. Popes tend not to step aside which gives them a deity status in the public eye.

In Ireland in 2014 'significant quantities of human remains have been discovered in at least 17 of the 20 underground chambers which were examined earlier this year.' Almost 800 children had died there between 1925 and 1961, according to records, but there was only one burial record for just one child. Likewise in Canada the Pope visited to apologize for the Catholic Church's role in residential schools' abuse with 215 children found buried near residential school.

In Rwanda Pope Francis conveyed his profound sadness for the recent genocide that killed 800,000 people in 100 days because of the church's role in that nation. The Pope met the president of Rwanda privately in his office in 2017. The Papacy has always and as long as it exists be complicit in war crimes.

The Italian finance police after the financial collapse put the Vatican Bank under scrutiny. Monitoring transactions MoneyVal the European council on anti-money laundering commission found the Vatican bank was the world's leading banks for dirty cash and was stripped of its ability to issue credit cards. It was lacking transparency and the mechanisms to fight terrorism.

J P Morgan chase in America shut down Vatican bank accounts after 35 years as it suspected the Vatican Bank was being used for money laundering and refused to be transparent on its transactions. J P Morgan would with Barclays and Royal Bank of Scotland be fined $2.5 billion for violating antitrust laws in the USA.

In June 2013 2 months after the pope was inaugurated, Monsignor Nunzio Scarano was arrested in a money-laundering plot involving the Vatican bank. Monsignor Nunzio Scarano, dubbed "Monsignor 500" for his purported favored banknotes, had transferred millions of euros in fictitious donations from offshore companies through his accounts at the Vatican's Institute for Religious Works. He was arrested for trying to smuggle 20 million Euros in a plane with a secret service agent from Switzerland to Italy. Scarano was a Senior accountant in the financial administration at the Vatican Bank. Money was being laundered for the Sicilian Mafia. This was something that highlights what had been the transactions of the Vatican bank had been right from its inception. The church uses offshore tax haven to hide its wealth and to invest in prime real estate using a complex network of companies to hide its business dealings.

Vatileaks

Pope Benedict XVI's personal assistant Paolo Gabriele, leaked the Pope's personal documents to the press in 2012 which alleged widespread financial indiscretion, including the illicit use of funds from donations. This led to the book, 'His Holiness - an exposé into political bribes paid through the Vatican bank.'

Living up to the image that Jesuitism brings. While dealing with the biggest sexual abuse paedophile scandal in history involving thousands of priests, the Pope promoted LGBT rights while protecting priests & signing the nations into the Paris Agreement under his encyclical. Also making apologies, promoting ecumenism, offering himself for peace negotiations & meeting business & media leaders & rearranging theology. He's a pretty busy boy!

The kings of the earth have committed fornication, & the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. Revelation 17:2

'During the trial, he played the «torture card». Paolo Gabriele maintains that he was imprisoned for 20 days in a tiny cell, so narrow that he could not stretch his arms. He maintains that the light of his cell was kept on 24 hours a day. Members of the Vatican Gendarmes Corps are shocked. They treated Paolo Gabriele with kid gloves, and the butler had even thanked them.' He is reported to have died in 2020 at the age of 54 from a long illness.

Possible the biggest problem facing the Vatican was the number of priests involved in sexual abused cases and in the US the Jesuits filed for bankruptcy.

The Northwest's Jesuits declared bankruptcy in February 2009 under a barrage of sex-abuse claims with $25 million in legal claims and faced roughly 200 additional claims in civil lawsuits.

SNAP- the Survivor's Network for Those Abused by Priests says on June 4, 2007, then Archbishop Timothy Dolan of Milwaukee, now Cardinal of New York, sent a letter to the Vatican requesting permission to transfer nearly $57 million dollars from the assets of the archdiocese into a new "autonomous pious foundation" called a "Cemetery Perpetual Care Trust."

Dolan then clearly states his intent for creating the Trust: "By transferring these assets to the Trust, they will be protected by any legal claim and liability."

The Milwaukee Archdiocese was facing a growing number of potential claims for fraud in concealing and transferring known child sex offenders. 'Two and half years later Dolan left for New York and the Archdiocese soon filed for Federal Bankruptcy Protection, the nearly 57 million dollars conveniently and fraudulently off the books and not among the archdiocese assets.' Dolan was named Archbishop of New York by Pope Benedict in February of 2009.

Dolan has answered allegations related hidden money as 'terribly irresponsible, malarkey, and ridiculous and groundless gossip.'

The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: 17:

For she had committed fornication with the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. {Revelation 17:2,4} The woman has literally committed fornication which has been exposed for all to see and yet the kings of the earth become part of that fornication and are legislation the grossest of sins into non-discrimination laws while promoting and legislating sin. This is why he is called the man of sin.

Many in the Vatican curia are gay so promoting gender equality fits perfectly with the priesthood.

'Tales of gays in the Vatican have been told for more than a thousand years. Pope John XII, who reigned from 955 to 964, was accused of having sex with men and boys and turning the papal palace "into a whorehouse." While trying to persuade a cobbler's apprentice to have sex with him, Pope Boniface VIII, who reigned from 1294 to 1303, was said to have assured the boy that two men having sex was "no more a sin than rubbing your hands together." After Paul II, who reigned from 1464 to 1471, died of a heart attack—while in flagrante delicto with a page, according to one rumor—he was succeeded by Sixtus IV, who kept a nephew as his lover (and made the nephew a cardinal at age 17).'
