It starts as a revolution in America and once it takes hold there, the west will fall into line. I saw a goat run from the west and its feet touched not the ground as it came and smote the ram. In fact, the goat though surviving many seasons in which its power changed and transformed would eventually control the world. After an exchange of horns from the one great horn it brought forth from this Grecian power, a little horn. This is the West today whose guiding power is in its little horn that has eyes of a man and a mouth and speaks great things against the Most High. Greek philosophy is the belly of the beast. That beast weaves the thinking of Greek philosophy into Christianity for which the West is denoted. It would be ok if we were able to leave it there but the little horn has a thirst for absolute power and world domination and will stop at nothing, murder, assassination, wars, deceit to achieve its goals for the greater good while presented a veneer of Christianity and offering peace. This is in essence part of the meaning of Daniel 8 and the reality of the world today.

A battle is being fought for who shall control the New World Order and it is through this Universal power that the anti-Christ, that is Lucifer shall enter the world- the second greatest event to hit this planet. God has a distinguishing mark for understanding on whose side each person and power is on. The same standard as given for candidates to heaven, the Ten Commandments.

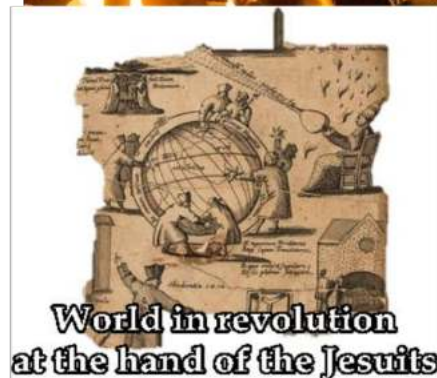

Thoughts from the vision of Daniel 8.

'How busy, how persevering, how active are the powers of darkness! The mystery of iniquity, the powers from beneath, are stirred to bring about the crisis in compelling the churches to show honor to the spurious Sabbath. Secret meetings are held, secret councils convened. Plans and devices are framed to be executed. The watchmen are not sounding the warning.'

Chaz the American Revolution

Afro Americans and indigenous people have been often been caught in a cycle of poverty and with it comes drug abuse and crime. What does it mean for a nation when you fuel that fire of discontent for political purposes? The US is fighting and policing other nations and still doing so as the corruption hits home. Wars without and within. Democratic states let the whole thing go accompanying their attempts to come back into office. But really this was a Jesuit revolution.

An autonomous zone was set up in Portland. The area was declared the Capitol Hill Autonomous Zone - or Chaz, for short. It was to be a police-free, self-governing utopia. A few days later, in an interview with CNN on 11 June, the city's Democratic mayor Jenny Durkan said the zone could herald a 'summer of love'.

Even in Canada they were massaging the rhetoric with Trudeau bowing the knee for Black Lives Matter.

What started in Portland was the result of a lawsuit for a 'an indigenous and black' family to keep their own house with an ongoing legal challenge since 2018. When the Kinney family finally lost those challenges, they stayed and people who supported the family camped outside the house. There were at least 80 complaints in 3 months with fights, shooting and theft. The police came to arrest the family and protestors others came to their aid and assaulted police. Police fearing an escalation retreated.

It was day 50 of the ongoing siege by demonstrators outside the federal courthouse in Portland, Oregon. One journalist sympathetic to the demonstrators dubbed her "Naked Athena" and a legend was born.

After France had renounced the worship of the living God, "the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity," it was only a little time till she descended to degrading idolatry, by the worship of the Goddess of Reason, in the person of a profligate woman. When the goddess was brought into the Convention, the orator took her by the hand, and turning to the assembly said: "Mortals, cease to tremble before the powerless thunders of a God whom your fears have created. Henceforth acknowledge no divinity but Reason. I offer you its noblest and purest image; if you must have idols, sacrifice only to such as this. . . . Fall before the august Senate of Freedom, oh! Veil of Reason!" {GC 276.1}

"The goddess, after being embraced by the president, was mounted on a magnificent car, and conducted, amid an immense crowd, to the cathedral of Notre Dame, to take the place of the Deity. There she was elevated on the high altar, and received the adoration of all present."--Alison, vol. 1, ch. 10. {GC 276.2}

This was followed, not long afterward, by the public burning of the Bible in France.

Likewise, a peaceful protest in Portland turned destructive over the night as protestors burned Bibles and the American flag. And to add insult with US crowds chanting 'death to America,' something you would expect from the Ayatollah Khamenei. Democratic states encouraged rather than silence the destructive protests while criminals lived without law. Opportunist criminals brazenly vandalizing and burglarizing businesses. Business such as cafes and jewellers decided it wasn't worth doing business anymore in Portland because of crime.

The revolution in the USA that will affect every once free nation of the West.

Pictured the recent burning of cathedral of Notre Dame 15 April 2019, the place where martyrs died and the God of Reason replaced Deity all the work of the Jesuits.

In 1793 the Notre Dame de Paris cathedral was turned into a "Temple of Reason" and, for a brief time, the Goddess of Liberty replaced the Virgin Mary on several altars. Here is its shared symbol as a gift from France to the United States.

Now this prophecy from the early 1900s begins to make a lot of sense. The Lord calls for His people to locate away from the cities, for in such an hour as ye think not, fire and brimstone will be rained from heaven upon these cities. Proportionate to their sins will be their visitation. When one city is destroyed, let not our people regard this matter as a light affair, and think that they may, if favorable opportunity offers, build themselves homes in that same destroyed city. . . . {LDE 95.3}

__Let all who would understand the meaning of these things read the eleventh chapter of Revelation. Read every verse, and learn the things that are yet to take place in the cities. Read also the scenes portrayed in the eighteenth chapter of the same book.--MR 1518 (May 10, 1906). {LDE 95.4}

‘US President Donald Trump stands against defunding or abolishing the police, the White House said, after he tweeted about it and accused ‘radical left Democrats’ of being insane for entertaining the proposal.’

‘Defunding the police is an extremely dangerous idea. I think it makes for a popular hashtag on Twitter, and you have a lot of Hollywood elites who are jumping in on this.’ Every nation has its laws, which command respect and obedience; no government could exist without them; and can it be conceived that the Creator of the heavens and the earth has no law to govern the beings he has made?

Suppose that prominent ministers were publicly to teach that the statutes which govern their land and protect the rights of its citizens were not obligatory,—that they restricted the liberties of the people, and therefore ought not to be obeyed; how long would such men be tolerated in the pulpit? But is it a graver offense to disregard the laws of States and nations than to trample upon those divine precepts which are the foundation of all government? {GC88 583.2}

It would be far more consistent for nations to abolish their statutes, and permit the people to do as they please, than for the Ruler of the universe to annul his law, and leave the world without a standard to condemn the guilty or justify the obedient. Would we know the result of making void the law of God? The experiment has been tried. Terrible were the scenes enacted in France when atheism became the controlling power. It was then demonstrated to the world that to throw off the restraints which God has imposed is to accept the rule of the cruellest of tyrants. When the standard of righteousness is set aside, the way is open for the prince of evil to establish his power in the earth. {GC88 584.1}

Social benefits at the hand of the King

“Paris became one vast almshouse, and it is estimated that, at the breaking out of the Revolution, two hundred thousand paupers claimed charity from the hands of the king. The Jesuits alone flourished in the decaying nation, and ruled with dreadful tyranny over churches and schools, the prisons and the galleys.” {GC88 279.1} This is the picture of the western world as they encourage socialism while destroying small businesses. Image of the Black and white Pope together.

One Jesuit school statement in California says: ‘the United States was founded upon and its white citizens have prospered from 400 years of oppression of Africans and people of African descent in so many guises.’ (Santa Clara University CA USA) This is Liberation theology talk!

Yet it failed to say in their statement that the United States was founded upon separation of church and state as refugees fled the destruction and persecution of the Papal rule where millions of people were murdered and came to the United States for sanctuary from the church’s oppression.

That the Jesuits heavily participated in slave labour to build their own wealth and supported the confederate side of the war in revolution against the North. The Jesuit Georgetown university used slave money for its university funds but has promised restoration by increasing student fees.

The church has used racial tension to ignite a new American civil war in 2020. Let’s not also forget the church is guilty of highly organised paedophilia like has never been seen in this world’s history.

The Magna Carta and rational being tested

England was plunged into civil war after the Pope declared the charter Magna Carta invalid in the 1200s. This charter is echoed in the US declaration of independence and the universal declaration of human rights. It is an international symbol of liberty. Independence was sort by refugees from the tyranny of church and state which founded the United States.

'The legal basis of the right to protest in western nations is the common law right to peaceful assembly, which can be traced back to the Magna Carta. The right is further protected by the Australian Constitution under the implied freedom of political communication.'

'The United States' First Amendment grants the absolute right to protest, such a right to protest may be a manifestation of the right to freedom of assembly, the right to freedom of association, and the right to freedom of speech.'

These rights are being aggravated and attacked by violent assembly and using Covid 19 to overrun the basis of western constitutions. There is always a balance and middle ground. At stake are western liberties which Popery abhors. An example of this was a mother arrested during protests in Sydney, Saturday 6th June 2020. The protest is about individuals exercising rights during coronavirus pandemic. NSW Police said the woman was arrested after for failing to give her details. They said the group were not complying with social distancing regulations. This right will be further tested in court as fines are placed on organizers.

Demonstrators in Melbourne held signs about 5G, China and the Murray-Darling River while chanting 'arrest Bill Gates'. Various speakers claimed Covid-19 was a conspiracy orchestrated by 'globalists', while one of the main organisers of the rally, Fanos Panayides, told the crowd he promised his father he would never be microchipped.

'Victoria Police are continuing their crackdown on social media users supporting coronavirus protests, arresting another person accused of incitement on Friday. James Bartolo was arrested at his home after police broke through his front door and tackled him to the floor.'

In the US the 'arrest Bill Gates' chant was started by far-right conspiracy theorist Alex Jones at a protest in Austin, Texas. More than 10,000 COVID conspiracy theorists gather in London to demonstrate in the 'Unite for Freedom rally'(August 2020) - which started at noon in the capital - called for an 'end to Government lies' and the restoration of all freedoms as they marched past Downing Street towards the Houses of Parliament. Likewise, around the globe in western countries people are waking up to freedom that have been swept from under their feet and protests are gathering strength. But the real issue at stake is yet to be clearly understood worldwide.

In Australia not only were people charged and forced into quarantine, any form of protest against the Covid restriction allowed officers to use a search warrant and forced entry into the premise to seize computers and phones as evidence to be held against that person. Such laws came on the back of anti-terrorist laws during the Howard government when Jesuit trained politicians were steadily increasing in numbers as reported by the Sydney morning Herald Oct 2013. 'The rise of Jesuit-educated politicians in Australia is a remarkable conjunction in political leadership: a situation so rare that it may even be a first in the Western world.'

Prophetic Dream a future reality

We were ourselves refreshed by the Spirit of the Lord. That night I dreamed that I was in Battle Creek looking out from the side glass at the door and saw a company marching up to the house, two and two. They looked stern and determined. I knew them well and turned to open the parlor door to receive them, but thought I would look again. The scene was changed. The company now presented the appearance of a Catholic procession. One bore in his hand a cross, another a reed. And as they approached, the one carrying a reed made a circle around the house, saying three times: "This house is proscribed. The goods must be confiscated. They have spoken against our holy order." Terror seized me, and I ran through the house, out of the north door, and found myself in the midst of a company, some of whom I knew, but I dared not speak a word to them for fear of being betrayed. I tried to seek a retired spot where I might weep and pray without meeting eager, inquisitive eyes wherever I turned. I repeated frequently: "If I could only understand this! If they will tell me what I have said or what I have done!" {1T 577.2}

I wept and prayed much as I saw our goods confiscated. I tried to read sympathy or pity for me in the looks of those around me, and marked the countenances of several whom I thought would speak to me and comfort me if they did not fear that they would be observed by others. I made one attempt to escape from the crowd, but seeing that I was watched, I concealed my intentions. I commenced weeping aloud, and saying: "If they would only tell me what I have done or what I have said!" My husband, who was sleeping in a bed in the same room, heard me weeping aloud and awoke me. My pillow was wet with tears, and a sad depression of spirits was upon me. {1T 578.1}

The work which the church has failed to do in a time of peace and prosperity she will have to do in a terrible crisis under most discouraging, forbidding circumstances. The warnings that worldly conformity has silenced or withheld must be given under the fiercest opposition from enemies of the faith. And at that time the superficial, conservative class, whose influence has steadily retarded the progress of the work, will renounce the faith.--5T 463 (1885).

Pope writes article for New York Times

By November 2020 the pope's opinion piece is published in the New York Times, Pope Francis: A Crisis Reveals What Is in Our Hearts, calling for a change of direction from capitalism to inclusive capitalism- that is Marxism. That which the Jesuits had fomented in the French revolution, can be seen in the US and worldwide through US influence today. The New York times was heading the front on change- 'The current system has led to profound inequality. To fix it, we need businesses and executives to value purpose alongside profit.' Mr. Benioff is the chairman and co-C.E.O. of Salesforce. Half-truths are always the way of deception.

Did anyone comment or bat an eye lid? It was unprecedented action, showing the depth of the problem and Jesuit involvement in another sovereign nation.

The only beneficiaries to the insanity of the French revolution were the Jesuits.

'inclusive capitalism'

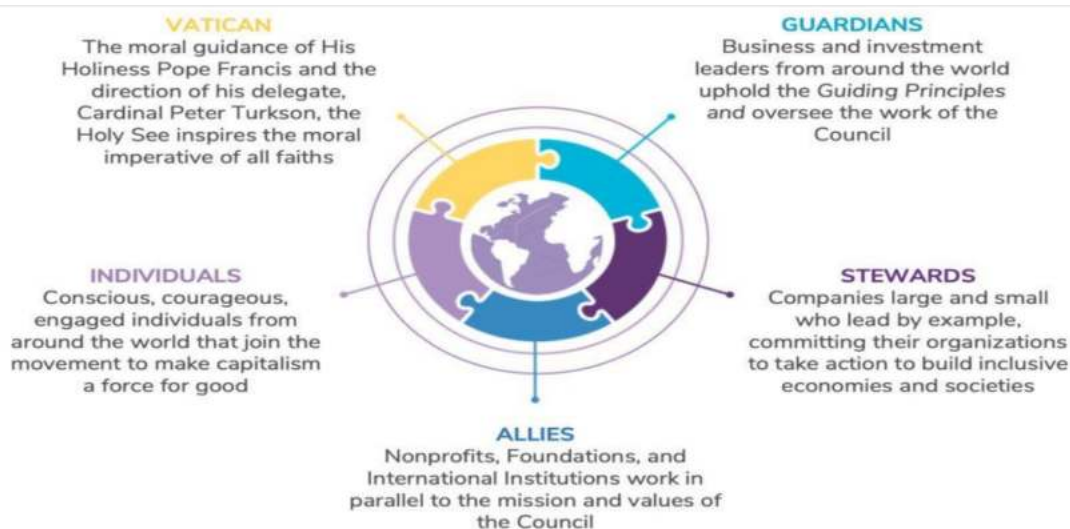

'Inside Pope Francis' mission to make capitalism work for the common good' Jesuit magazine, America.

In December of 2020 the ones behind US deep state announced 'The Council for Inclusive Capitalism with The Vatican, a New Alliance of Global Business Leaders' is Launched. The Council for Inclusive Capitalism with The Vatican is a global non-profit organization established under the auspices of the Vatican with the moral guidance of Pope Francis." Bank of America Newsroom. Some of the more notable names include: Mastercard, Allianz, Salesforce, Dupont, International Trade Union Confederation. Rothchild's, Johnson & Johnson, Bank of America, Guardian Life Insurance Company of America, The Rockefeller Foundation, Ford Foundation. December 8, 2020

'Capitalism has created enormous global prosperity, but it has also left too many people behind, led to the degradation of our planet, and is not widely trusted in society,' said Lady Lynn Forester de Rothschild, Founder of the Council and Managing Partner of Inclusive Capital Partners. 'This council will follow the warning from Pope Francis to listen to 'the cry of the Earth and the cry of the poor' and answer society's demands for a more equitable and sustainable model of growth.'

The article title 'What in God's name?' by RT News expressed it best 'Known as the Guardians for Inclusive Capitalism – I kid you not – these 27 devout and morally outstanding individuals all hail from the golden one percent. Let's call them the Pope's 27 billionaire disciples. Really outstanding people, such as President of the Rockefeller Foundation Rajiv Shah, CEO of Mastercard Ajay Banga, and CEO of Salesforce Marc Benioff, will now behave like Good Samaritans, carrying out the will of the Holy See around a ravaged, lockdown-wearied planet. And here is the catch: there is not a single Vatican cardinal or even a deacon on the list of Guardians. So, who will guard over the guardians?'

Yes, the corporate elite themselves!'

'The Vatican has always enchanted princes and presidents, but Pope Francis is the first leader in the Catholic Church's 2,000-year history to engage frequently with a more modern type of ruler: chief executive officers.

More than any previous pontiff, Francis has been lobbied by C.E.O.s to soften his skepticism about capitalism, and he in turn has pressed them to better serve the poor and the planet. The list of companies whose leaders have made a pilgrimage to Rome reads like a Harvard Business Review index: Apple, Bank of America, BlackRock, Exxon, Facebook, Google, McKinsey and News Corp, to name only a few. The Vatican has also met with pension fund managers to help them invest more ethically, worked on redesigning the curricula of business schools at Catholic.' America Magazine January 21.

Press titled God and the World to Come. The Pope states 'The world will never be the same again. But it is precisely within this calamity that we must grasp those signs which may prove to be the cornerstones of reconstruction. We can heal injustice 'by building a new world order based on solidarity, studying innovative methods to eradicate bullying, poverty and corruption. This new world order will be based on eradicating inequalities and attending to the environment' the pope affirms.

Pandemic treaty/digital ID

The WHO To Discuss Global Pandemic Treaty At World Health Assembly May 22-28

National and international data-sharing

"The aims were clear: To bring countries together, to dispel the temptations of isolationism and nationalism, and to address the challenges that could only be achieved together in the spirit of solidarity and co-operation – namely peace, prosperity, health and security."

Covid 19 was just an appetizer for bigger things to come which is the climate lockdown and the digital surveillance world. The pandemic treaty would be the framework for governments to all have access to information about an individual- the global citizen and information sharing which was already happening in Europe.

personal information. This is coming from the UN, the World Economic Forum, the European commission and of course governments.

Dakota Gruener executive director of ID2020:

the UN 'sustainable goals cannot be met without first closing the identity gap'. The idea is forwarded by the UN and digital ID2020 is that to prove your identity is a human right. You will need to prove your ID in the physical world and online.

ID2020 partners include Microsoft, Rockefeller foundation and Gavi the vaccine alliance. Gavi is an alliance cofounded by Gates between the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, the World Bank and the World Health Organization to partner with vaccine manufacturers, an alliance to distribute vaccines around the world.

Bill Gates at the Financial Inclusion Forum, December 1, 2015 was pushing digital identity in the year the Pope presented his encyclical on climate change, in the year of the Paris Agreement adopted by the UN.

Once the world digital system is created you won't be able to travel, access services, cross borders without this, 'so to prevent misuse we have to make sure no one is left behind'. Dakota Gruener also notes that the system can be misused by cataloguing people for genocide. But before they go genocide, they will take your assets and freeze your funds. This has already happened best known in the Canadian vaccine passport blockage.

That's when Thompson's thoughts turned to helping solve the problem of people with no legal ID. One of the issues they face is registering the birth of a child. Women without legal ID face particular obstacles where laws require the father's ID to be used when a birth is registered.

"We've got projects in Tanzania where we had the first baby in the world born on the blockchain," says Thompson. "The mother who gave birth – she owned the data for the child. So she was building a data credit profile. She could prove she got the right medicine."

Finance cabal

The corporation realising that nation's natural resources can become monetarized have made a pact with the Vatican.

The kings of the earth are committing fornication with the whore {Revelation 17:2}

I will take no bullock out of thy house, [nor] he goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest [is] mine, [and] the cattle upon a thousand hills. (Psalms 50:9.10)

The earth is not theirs to take. They have stepped over the line for the earth belongs to every single person who is born into the world. The talk of the United Nation is that they are moving on behalf of the people because of climate change when in reality they are monetarizing the planet for one world governance.

'Over 160 firms with $70 trillion in assets have joined forces behind a common goal: steer the global economy towards net-zero emissions and deliver the Paris Agreement goals.' United Nations is backing a multilateral banking system – GFANZ Global Financial Alliance for Net Zero. Michael Bloomberg, UN Special Envoy on Climate Ambition and Solutions, and Mark Carney, UN Special Envoy for Climate Action and Finance, are Co-Chairs of the group. Michael Bloomberg was former mayor of New York. In the 2019 Forbes list of the world's billionaires, he was the ninth-richest person; his net worth was estimated at $55.5 billion. The importance here of GFANZ is the move to privatise natural resources of the nations such as land and water.

Glasgow 2021 The pact is the first climate agreement explicitly planning to reduce unabated coal usage. A pledge to "phase out" coal was changed to "phase down" late in negotiation, for coal in India and coal in China and other coal reliant countries. The west is phasing out coal through the pressure of the world bank and IMF, while China is accelerating construction of coal powered power plants.

‘Satan has a thousand masked batteries which will be opened upon the loyal, commandment-keeping people of God to compel them to violate conscience.’ EG White written 1892. This is a move to end individual wealth, resources away from private hand and freedom.

Vaccination requirements for US–Canada cross-border travel

Full vaccination was required for truckers moving across the border from Canada to the USA by January 15, 2022 as recommended by the CDC. At the federal level, dialogues were undertaken with G7, the World Health Organization, and the International Civil Aviation Organization regarding passports—'reliable and secure' 'proof of vaccination credentials.'

This resulted in the longest truck convoy protest in history, lasting from January 22, 2022 – February 23, 2022. The Jesuit trained Justin Trudeau Prime Minister of Canada said 'a small fringe minority of people who are on their way to Ottawa who are holding unacceptable views that they're expressing, do not represent the view of Canadians who are following the science and stepping up to protect each other.' A joke right?

A convoy of trucks 43 miles long travelled across the nation. "After a week-long drive across Canada, a convoy of big rigs has arrived in the national capital Ottawa to protest vaccine mandates and covid 19 measures."

It was difficult for the media to squash such a record-breaking protest with such public support from many cities and towns as they drove across the country.

GiveSendGo and GoFundMe froze accounts mid-protest as the government stepped in. Some of the $24 million was returned while lawyers froze some of that money in law suits. There was an important lesson here and being repeated in various situations. Banks can take groups and individuals out in a moment just like London freezing Russian assets and no one can do a thing about it.

Again and again the Lord has instructed that our people are to take their families away from the cities, into the country, where they can raise their own provisions, for in the future the problem of buying and selling will be a very serious one. We should now begin to heed the instruction given us over and over again: Get out of the cities into rural districts, where the houses are not crowded closely together, and where you will be free from the interference of enemies.--2SM 141 (1904). {LDE 99.4}

Prime Minister Justin Trudeau invoked the Emergencies Act on Feb. 14 2022, arguing its temporary and extraordinary powers were needed to end blockades in Ottawa and at border crossings. The police stepped in and the protest was forced to a close.

One lady had the Mounties turn up after commenting on anti-mandate protest post.

A document summarizing the evidence from David Vigneault, director of CSIS, shows he believed the protest 'at no time' posed a threat to Canada's security and that there were no signs of foreign interference. Foreign interference may well have been present as the USA provided intelligence to end the border dispute.

Members of European Parliament (MEP) publicly condemned Trudeau. German MEP Christine Anderson joined Croatian MEP Mislav Kolakusic in the protest of Trudeau's actions against the overwhelming support Canadians of a peaceful Freedom Convoy protesters. Christine Anderson said this constituted 'violations of human rights, democracy, and the rule of law,' Anderson implied that such actions are far from surprising, as Trudeau 'openly admires the Chinese basic dictatorship.'

Further comparing Trudeau's Canada to China, Anderson accused the Trudeau government of 'trampling on fundamental rights, by persecuting and criminalizing his own citizens as terrorists, just because they dared stand up to his perverted concept of democracy.'

"Trudeau should not be allowed to speak in this house at all!" charged Anderson

'Mr. Trudeau, you are a disgrace for any democracy, please spare us your presence. Thank you,' concluded Anderson in her fiery speech, which was met with applause.

Men and women are wanted now who are as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men and women who will work without having their way smoothed and every obstacle removed. {CEv 57.1}

History of Indigenous rights abuse in Canada..oops

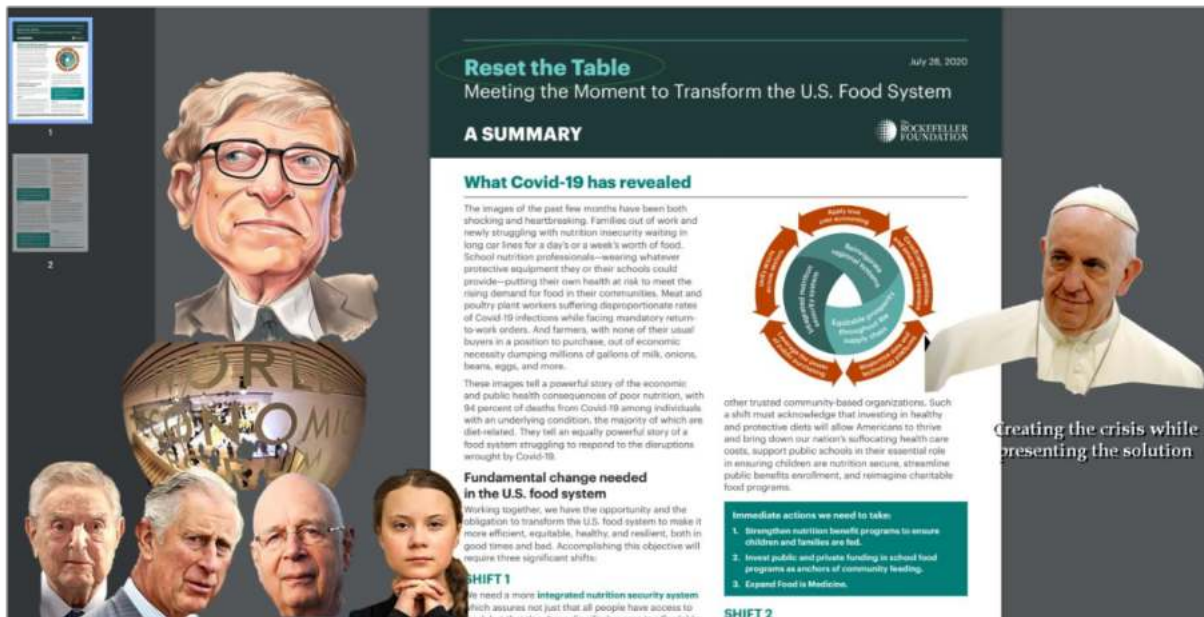

While Pope Francis claims to be an advocate for indigenous rights with policies to return the earth back to its indigenous custodians he had to address again another glaring inconsistency of physical and sexual abuse in Canada.

- Pope Francis begged Canada's Indigenous people for forgiveness
- He said the church's role in forcing Indigenous people into schools was a "disastrous error"
- Indigenous leaders say the legacy of abuse is a root cause of alcohol and drug addictions

Covid lockdowns naturally created a food chain crisis with shopping centre shelves empty due to border, shipping and truck problems caused by government policies. During the pandemic to add to the document Rockefeller document 'lockstep' in 2010 came 'Reset the Table' in 2020 as news also comes to light of Bill Gates being the largest farm owner in the USA and 'those fries you are eating at McDonalds are coming from Bill Gates farm'.

Gates was taking the brunt of a lot of criticism as he was one of the media frontliners pushing mandatory vaccination, having a principal role of financing new mRNA vaccines developed initially by the DARPA who turned to Silicon Valley billionaires to finance the new technology.

That which failed in 2008/2009 now got traction causing the breakdown in supply chains with food shortages but the true orchestrators- the Bishop of Rome remains generally unnoticed because it was years in the making and covered in layers of policies and organisations and front men and a complicate media. A series of crisis to create a chain reaction.

Also, in 2022 as if the world had not had enough from Trudeau, he is to become the first world leader to star in the Drag Race television show. He has no morals and no shame!

Trudeau stated: 'For someone to start questioning my own faith and accusing me of being a bad Catholic, is something that I really take issue with. My own personal faith is an extremely important part of who I am and the values that I try to lead with.'

Commonwealth catastrophe

Like Trudeau Jacinda Ardern has been educated as the Young Global Leaders of the World Economic Forum and has a similar response to lockdown, protests and censorship, as have all the commonwealth nations of the 5 eyes.

During COVID, Ardern urged citizens to 'trust the government and its agencies for all information and stated: Otherwise, dismiss anything else. We will continue to be your single source of truth.'

Schools were given notice by the New Zealand Ministry of Education, if a staff member who has not been vaccinated against Covid-19 turned up for work, they would be committing an offence and you can call the police.

Ardern stated to the United Nation leaders, 'mis and disinformation is a challenge as leaders we must address. The weapons may be different but the goals of those who perpetuate them are often the same. To cause chaos and reduce the ability of others to defend themselves. To disband communities. To collapse the collective strength of countries who work together. But we have an opportunity here to ensure that these particular weapons of war do not become an established part of warfare.' When you hear such a statement look to the one speaking as the most probable suspect.

'As leaders, we are rightly concerned that even the most light-touch approaches to disinformation could be misinterpreted as hostile to values of free speech that we value so highly.

How do you tackle climate change if people believe it does not exist? How do you ensure the human rights of others are upheld as they are subjected to hateful and dangerous ideology. Speech can be a weapon of war.'

Are these people naive about fundamental civil liberties or so educated in the thinking of the World Economic Forum philosophies that they think and breathe its very ideas?

The 'the Global Methane Pledge',

The Global Methane Pledge was launched at COP26 in November 2021 to catalyse action to reduce methane emissions. Countries representing 45% of global methane emissions have pledged to reduce their emissions by 30% by 2030 except for China, India, Russia and Australia who will join the pledge with a change to a labor government. Australia's Deputy Prime Minister Barnaby Joyce said the country's farmers would have to 'grab a rifle' and shoot their cattle to curb methane emissions if the government's 'Net Zero' plan did not have a livestock exclusion but the whole policy is part of getting rid of domesticated animals on farm land and returning areas back to the wild. It's a crazy experiment straight from the occult.

Funds are going to China as a developing nation and being above all nations the biggest polluter remains without commitment to the Global Methane Pledge and I don't blame any rational person for not committing to policies that are aimed at limiting farming. When you claim methane is a danger to world climate while ignoring weather modification and wanting to eliminate or mask cows, it really shows how utterly flawed the whole science behind climate change is.

Following strife in the Netherlands Ardern announced farmers will be taxed on the methane emission of cows and sheep. Global warning policies will rob people of food as farmers are put out of business following the methane accord.

Constitution of traditional ownership

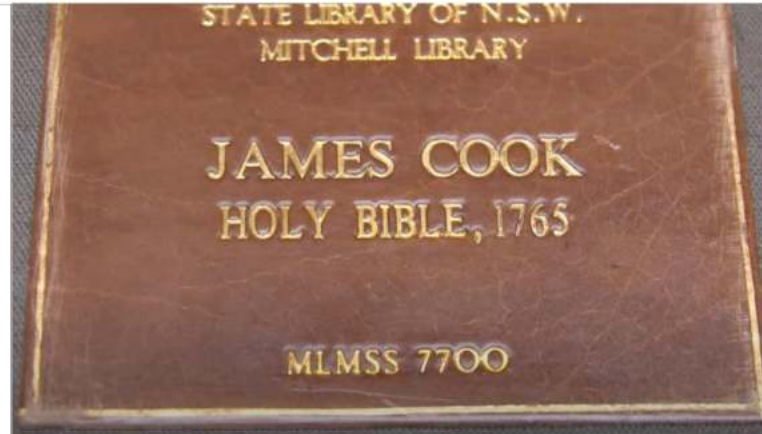

Legal proceedings for the land right in Australia for 'native title' began on 20 May 1982, when a group of four Meriam men, Eddie Koiki Mabo, Reverend David Passi, Sam Passi, James Rice and one Meriam woman, Celuia Mapo Sale, brought an action against the State of Queensland and the Commonwealth of Australia, Mabo v. Queensland, in the High Court, claiming ownership to the Murray Islands. Yet without Jesuit priest Frank Brennan (image right) there would not have been a win. In the high court Brennan's father passed sentence for the first of the land title wins. It was a win not only for Aboriginals but for Catholicism in a country with Protestant roots. There was deeper significance in what had occurred.

Frank Brennan recalls: A year after the Mabo decision, I travelled to the Murray Islands in the Torres Strait and met James Rice and David Passi, the two successful litigants in the case. They signed my copy of the judgment – a treasured possession! Returning by boat to the mainland from the island of Mer in the Murray Islands, the waters of the Torres Strait were exceedingly calm. As the sun glistened on the water, Father David Passi, the Anglican Pastor of the Island of Mer, stood at the back of the speed boat pointing at a small island close to the shore, declaring, 'That's Possession Island.' David smiled broadly as he explained this was the place where James Cook came ashore after his epic voyage up the Australian eastern coastline in 1770, raising his King's flag and claiming possession in His Majesty's name of all he had sailed past. David chuckled, 'Cook had his back to the Torres Strait when he claimed possession.' This is an interesting reflection on James Cook.

The British were in a fierce contest with France and Spain to claim and colonise as much land as possible. Spain had carried the inquisition to the Britain only to be defeated by the direction of Queen Elizabeth I and more importantly by God's providence, for the Spanish navy vastly outnumbered the British. Protestantism was established in Britain with the defeat of the Spanish navy.

Captain James Cook was a Christian and carried a Bible wherever he went. Aboard ship he often conducted services on Sunday. If Australia had become a Catholic nation, then the freedom and prosperity, we have enjoyed would not exist for Catholic nations are rich and poor as is the nature of these countries where the elite enrich themselves as the priests have their ear. Of course, the West is fast becoming the nations of Jesuitism as they adopt her policies. If we were wise, we would protect our Christian heritage that gave our nations the privileges they have enjoyed till the present.

New Zealand and Australia have a Christian heritage based on the Bible. Freedom and property rights came from the Christian heritage. Christianity brought education stability and freedom. This is not the Christianity of the Catholicism which is primarily pagan and hates with a passion liberty, property ownership- capitalism and freedom of speech.

Mongabay Series: Global Forests, Indigenous Peoples and Conservation

Indigenous peoples control one-quarter of world's land surface, two-thirds of that land is 'essentially natural'

by Mongabay.com on 17 July 2018 |

The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People (UNDRIP) was adopted September 2007. Their attention is on ¼ of the world's land mass being indigenous. Aboriginal and Torres Strait people were part of the drafting of this declaration with indigenous people having the right to self determination and not to be assimilated. The idea here is to destroy the national identity of once Protestant nations bringing them under the Catholic umbrella. Of course all people should have rights and not be discriminated against but this is something bigger at play. The idea is to bring the world land and resources under United Nations (UN is a corporate entity working with the world Billionaires including the Papacy) control through native land title.

Interestingly enough 'Native title' claims were made across multiple counties.

In 2022 Ardern Prime Minister of New Zealand is bringing in a co-government that gives the minority Māori population a 50% say on infrastructure such as land and water. In Australia land ownership by Aboriginals is at 30% and could possibly go to 60% under the Labor government. The ABC or government broadcasters are heavily peppered with cancel culture and LGBT promotion. This is something unimaginable as a conservative broadcaster.

The agreement, adopted at the COP15 biodiversity summit in Montreal on 19 December, includes language recognising the role of Indigenous people as 'custodians of biodiversity and partners in the conservation of nature.'

- Effective conservation and management of at least 30 per cent of the world's land, coastal areas and oceans. Currently, 17 percent of land and 8 per cent of marine areas are under protection
- Restoration of 30 per cent of terrestrial and marine ecosystems

3 months before COP15 agreements Australia returned to another 'Marbo win' in which a native title handback covers more than 2,500 hectares of land and more than 2 million hectares of sea.

Behind all these transactions for indigenous right which in and of itself maybe a worthwhile right for marginalise people is UNESCO (a specialised arm of the UN) which is much more than just preserving heritage sites and national parks. On its web site it says it is to bring peace in the minds of the people but only to those that are sleeping. Its about stripping land and sea from national to indigenous title. Educating and empowering youth in global citizenship, gender equality and preventing soft or violent extremism.

Replacement Migration: Is It a Solution to Declining and Ageing Populations?

United Nations projections indicate that over the next 50 years, the populations of virtually all countries of Europe as well as Japan will face population decline and population ageing. The new challenges of declining and ageing populations will require comprehensive reassessments of many established policies and programmes, including those relating to international migration.

Focusing on these two striking and critical population trends, the report considers replacement migration for eight low-fertility countries (France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Republic of Korea, Russian Federation, United Kingdom and United States) and two regions (Europe and the European Union). Replacement migration refers to the international migration that a country would need to offset population decline and population ageing resulting from low fertility and mortality rates.

UN: 'The levels of migration needed to prevent population ageing are many times larger than the migration streams needed to prevent population decline. Maintaining potential support ratios would in all cases entail volumes of immigration entirely out of line with both past experience and reasonable expectations.'

International migration is a key feature of globalization, which undermines the nation state so nationals become a minority in their state thus destroying national identity. It also gives states more control as displaced persons receive social benefits.

Peter Sutherland the UN representative for migration said nations states hiding behind walls is the past. The argument of humanitarian aid would be to help people establish in their own region but this is not the aim. People, skills and business are taken out of one country while unsettling the nation to which they are driven such as Libya with house ownership and a health care system now absolutely ruined by Hilary Clinton's war policies. Another example is Syria a once peaceful nation. Christians once protected in their homeland are persecuted in UN refugee concentration camps.

Italians could be paid for marrying in church

La Liga political party wants to subsidize religious weddings, arguing it will strengthen the family

Young Italians of modest means who marry in a church ceremony could see their nuptials paid for by the government if a bill presented by five La Liga lawmakers on Sunday passes. The initiative seeks to revive the tradition of religious marriages and encourage Italians to start families.

Eligibility for the benefits – which would be divided into five annual payments, presumably so couples can't scam the government with quickie divorce-and-remarriage schemes – would be limited to newlyweds under 35 with combined income under €23,000, making under €11,500 each. Both spouses must have held Italian citizenship for at least ten years, and the wedding must take place in Italy.

The US border program exploded out of control under that puppet Biden with caravans of immigrants coming from South America and other nations such as Africa. The wall Trump proudly spoke of building which was actually George Bush's wall following 9-11 really became meaningless. El Paso, a once prosperous and civilised city prior to Biden's election, just exported the crime and a whole lot of other associated problems from across the border from the crime and poverty ridden city of Juárez, had to declare a state of emergency. El Paso's airport became the scene of a refugee camp. In the US where Catholic church membership is dying Hispanics give life again to the congregation. It has also given Protestant America a catholic dominant population.

New Zealand is considering no cap on migration. Pope Francis says: 'No one must be excluded. God's plan is essentially inclusive and gives priority to those living on the existential peripheries. Among them are many migrants and refugees, displaced persons, and victims of trafficking. The Kingdom of God is to be built with them, for without them it would not be the Kingdom that God wants. The inclusion of those most vulnerable is the necessary condition for full citizenship in God's Kingdom.'

Mass migration is expected with climate change. The question raised, with so many people on the move, will this mean that invented political borders, ostensibly imposed for national security, become increasingly meaningless?

At least two million Ukrainians will migrate in winter – WHO

The ongoing conflict is also taking a heavy toll on the mental health of Ukrainians, a senior WHO official says

This winter may be a "life-threatening" experience for "millions" of Ukrainians, Hans Kluge, the World Health Organization (WHO) regional director for Europe, has warned. Up to three million Ukrainians are expected to migrate "in search of warmth and safety," Kluge said on Monday during a press conference in Kiev.

"We expect 2-3 million more people to leave their homes in search of warmth and safety. They will face unique health challenges, including respiratory infections such as Covid-19, pneumonia and influenza, and the serious risk of diphtheria and measles in under-vaccinated populations," Kluge stated.

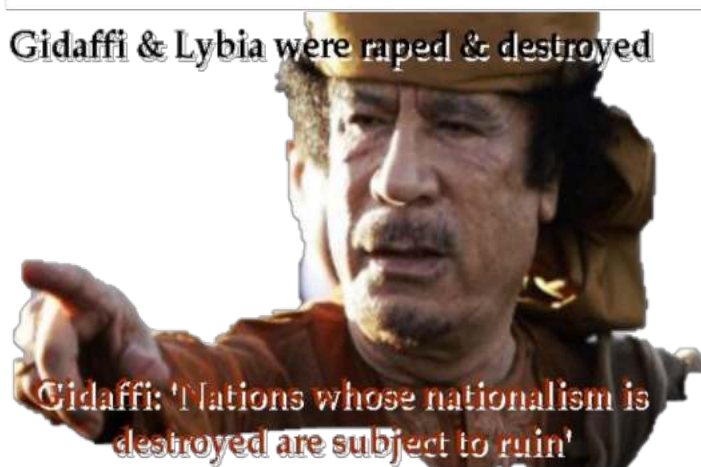

Those who remain at home will likely be forced to opt for "alternative heating methods," the official said, warning that doing things "like burning charcoal or wood, or using generators fueled by diesel, or electric

UN chief urges implementation of peace agreement in Ethiopia

United Nations | Xinhua | UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres has urged parties to the conflict in Ethiopia to take concrete steps to implement the recently signed peace agreement, his spokesman said on Sunday.

A high-level US delegation just returned from Ethiopia, which is arguably America's closest ally on the continent of Africa. How did these two countries become so close?

"This is not an Ethiopia war.

This is clearly and conclusively an African war.

The West is having a strategic agenda to recapture Africa in their competition with Eastern powers.'

Ethiopia is sitting in an important region of Africa called Great Lakes Region, Richard noted, adding that this is the only region in the entire world that is immensely endowed with natural resources beyond what we can ever think about.'

Government stealing farmer's land. Control the food supply, control the people.

Agriculture is the leading cause of biodiversity loss according to the UN endangering 86% of species is the story being told.

The Netherlands longest ruling Prime Minister Mark Rutte said the farmer's protest was 'small' and 'unacceptable' as the Dutch uprising reached new heights of intensity, by lighting massive haybale fires and smearing piles of manure along highways. This led to a complete shutdown of several major roads and required the work of firefighters and government contractors to resolve the issue.

What were the protests about? Taking away people's property for a nitrogen crisis with a potential to shut down a third of the county's farms as the world is bracing for a possible global famine. Dutch farming is one of the most productive farms in the world. Taking the farm land to meet 2030 agenda can be used to reduce methane emissions and to settle new migrants coming into the country.

Dutch city Haarlem becomes the world's first to ban meat public advertisements in an effort to cut meat consumption which was said to contribute to the climate crisis.

In Sri Lanka the scenes were even more dramatic. On April 29 2022, Sri Lanka banned the import agrochemicals and fertilizers with a mandated, immediate transition to organic farming.

Corruption and poor economic policies coupled with United Nations policies lead to disaster. Protestors stormed the president's house as thousands took to the streets from the economic crisis. The president was forced to flee the country. There was a predicted a 50% drop in crop yields, and food prices soared. The army is 'seizing food supplies from traders and supplying them to consumers at fair prices'. Last week, the government declared an economic emergency.

'The dairy industry is incredibly environmentally destructive. The world's top 5 meat and dairy corporations are now responsible for more GHG emissions than Exxon, Shell or BP,' the organization said in a tweet Saturday. Animal farming is THE leading cause of the loss of our wildlife and natural ecosystems.' This talk which is from the UN has very serious implications for the future.

'We NEED a plant-based future now.'

Environmentalists have encouraged the use of dairy alternatives, such as almond, soy, coconut and oat milk, though these too have been criticized.

According to Animal Rebellion, the 'milk pours' took place at eight different locations Saturday, including London, Manchester, Norwich and Edinburgh. 16th October 2022.

I personally am living a plant-based future already but I do not agree with science behind the UN push for climate change- it's a false science exposed by 'climate gate' and irrelevant while countries continue to practice weather modification- which indicates its intentional. The UN idea of health for the planet is control the food and supply alternative meat sources such as insects and buy up the natural resources. Its criminal!

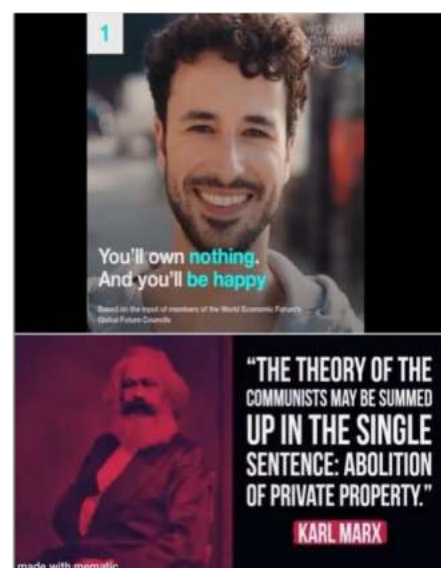

The UN plan is to return large area back to wild to honour mother earth following Gaia and occult inspiration contra to God's plan for mankind.

In 2021 countries dodged being targeted by UNESCO including Venice and the Great Barrier Reef in Australia. However, laws in Netherlands, Canada and Australia restrict human activity in farming and national parks with an aim to have the countries restored to 30% wilderness area where there is no human activity following the 2030, 2050 sustainable development plans.

Says WEF:

- Shifting from fossil fuels to renewables requires huge amounts of critical metals.
- Recycling alone won't be enough to sustain the amount of materials needed
- We need to increase sharing, reuse and a preference for longevity to reduce demand.

According to the projections of the WEF's 'Global Future Councils,' private property and privacy will be abolished during the next decade.

It is too late now to cling to worldly treasures. Soon unnecessary houses and lands will be of no benefit to anyone, for the curse of God will rest more and more heavily upon the earth. The call comes, "Sell that ye have, and give alms" [Luke 12:33]. This message should be faithfully borne--urged home to the hearts of the people--that God's own property may be returned to Him in offerings to advance His work in the world.--16MR 348 (1901).

In Victoria under Dan Andrew an Australian state premier that created major protests through his lockdown tyranny (with Melbourne being the longest locked down city in the world) has now pursued the beginning stages of landlock as predicted by some during the covid lockdown. The new rules, which will affect more than 50 city and regional parks across Victoria, were outlined in the government's proposed Metropolitan and Regional Parks Regulations. Changes include a fine of up to $924 for walking off a park trail. Victorians conducting 'intrusive research' – interfering with 'wildlife, soil, rocks, vegetation or visitors or that contravenes any regulation applying to the park' – could be hit with a $1,472 fine.

But guess what it's the magic of the system as Andrews gets his third term as premier of Victoria in November 2022 after some of the most draconian laws. God help us.

Sky News host Rita Panahi said in August, Victorian Premier Dan Andrews will win the November state election in 'a landslide' because he has no opposition.

In the time of no buy and sell it may be prohibited to be in wilderness areas but may well serve as a God given refuge for God's people. But it is the intension of the harlot woman to hunt down all of God's people by worldwide extermination.

So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And upon her forehead [was] a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. {Revelation 17:3,5-6}

The time is not far distant when, like the early disciples, we shall be forced to seek a refuge in desolate and solitary places. As the siege of Jerusalem by the Roman armies was the signal for flight to the Judean Christians, so the assumption of power on the part of our nation, in the decree enforcing the papal sabbath, will be a warning to us. It will then be time to leave the large cities, preparatory to leaving the smaller ones for retired homes in secluded places among the mountains.--5T 464, 465 (1885). {LDE 121.1}

There is a prospect before us of a continued struggle, at the risk of imprisonment, loss of property and even of life itself, to defend the law of God.--5T 712 (1889). {LDE 150.2}

Covid was a perfect instrument to get into the ordinary person's private life with a QR code on the phone to grant you access to society and the government tracking you everywhere you go and deciding for you what type of vaccine you should take to participate in society. Record inflation and small businesses shut down.

40 new billionaires & medical monopolies grew despite the growing number of vaccine injury reports. Moderna President Dr. Stephen Hoge is the company's latest shareholder and executive to join the "three-comma-club" — with an estimated $1.1 billion fortune. As the governments went into record debt from pre-order vaccines, as recommended by WHO, governments around the world would force vaccine mandates. The number of billionaires CEOs grew dramatically in the medical industry. Taxpayers were to pay the bill for the research and pay the cost for medical lawsuits which have not been publicised and pay the cost of the national debt. Medical tyranny.

The work of the people of God is to prepare for the events of the future, which will soon come upon them with blinding force. In the world gigantic monopolies will be formed. Men will bind themselves together in unions that will wrap them in the folds of the enemy. A few men will combine to grasp all the means to be obtained in certain lines of business. Trades unions will be formed, and those who refuse to join these unions will be marked men. . . . {Mar 182.4 published in 1903}

Pope calls Ukraine conflict a 'global war'

The fight will likely be long as "there are many hands stirring the war pot," the pontiff says

The conflict in Ukraine will likely be prolonged because it's a "global war" with too many interests involved in it, Pope Francis has warned. Russia has been saying that the "proxy war" has actually been waged against it in the neighboring country by the US and NATO.

"I don't see an end [to the fighting in Ukraine] in the near future because this is a global war. Let's not forget this," the pontiff said in an interview with Spanish paper ABC on Sunday.

"There are many hands stirring up the war pot," he said of the conflict, in which Russia is fighting Ukraine. The US and its allies have pledged to support Ukrainian President Vladimir Zelensky for "as long as it takes" for Russia to lose, while insisting they are not a party to the conflict.

24th February 2022 President Putin announced a 'military operation' in the two separatist Ukrainian states of Donetsk and Luhansk. Ostensibly, he claimed this was to demilitarize and 'de-nazify' Ukraine.

Nazis extremist were known to be active in Ukraine since the coup in 2014 which had US backing. a Ukrainian neo-Nazi militia called Azov Battalion was formed to combat Russian separatism. It was then incorporated into the national guard, making it an official part of the Ukrainian military. Azov Battalion received support and training from Canada and the United States. NATO is fuelling a resurgence of Nazism in Ukraine for the sake of a stronger position in its struggle with Russia.

Victoria Nuland, U.S. President Barack Obama's central agent overseeing the coup, at least during the month of February 2014 when it climaxed, was crucial not only in overthrowing the existing Ukrainian Government, but in selecting and installing its anti-Russian replacement.

In 2022 Nuland has said the 'US isn't seeking another Cold War but is calling on Russia to listen to the opinion of the rest of the world in the situation around Ukraine, US Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs.

Russia is 'always prepared for dialogue on the condition that it is based on equality and respect for each other's interests. My response to this is that we tried for months said Nuland, and months and months to talk to Russia, about its security concerns in November, in December, in January and in February, and we are still ready to talk to Russia.'

US Assistant Secretary of State Victoria said "F the EU" as she admitted the existence of biolabs in Senate testimony and stated that the US was working with Ukraine to keep the 'research' at those labs from falling into Russian hands.

Was the re-emergence of Russia from the USSR a surprise to the West or is it just finishing off an already weakened nation and is another red flag operation? I would suggest the later. As noted, the West and East are not as far apart as many may think. Russia and China are committed to the UN and the 2030 agenda for sustainable development.

The fall of the Eastern block wall signalled the end of the USSR. At this time the West worked overtime to get weapons out of Kazakhstan and Ukraine. Ukraine had 1,900 intercontinental ballistic missiles. This was allowed under the treaty signed in 1994 in which Russia and the West signed to protect Ukraine. Russian military is no match for the US war machine and so the US has urged the fight on. Russia is surrounded, with NATO closing in and bordering the nation.

Ukraine, a new and important space on the Eurasian chessboard, is a geopolitical pivot because its very existence as an independent country helps to transform Russia. Without Ukraine, Russia ceases to be a Eurasian empire.

However, if Moscow regains control over Ukraine, with its 52 million people and major resources as well as access to the Black Sea, Russia automatically again regains the wherewithal to become a powerful imperial state, spanning Europe and Asia. Quate Zbigniew Brzezinski

At the breakup of the USSR through the efforts of key players like Zbigniew Brzezinski the US had promised not to advance 1 inch to the east. U.S. Secretary of State James Baker's famous 'not one inch eastward' assurance about NATO expansion in his meeting with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev on February 9, 1990, was part of a cascade of assurances about Soviet security given by Western leaders to Gorbachev and other Soviet officials throughout the process of German unification in 1990 and on into 1991, according to declassified U.S., Soviet, German, British and

Joint Statement of the Russian Federation and the People's Republic of China on the International Relations Entering a New Era and the Global Sustainable Development

February 4, 2022

The sides will strengthen cooperation within multilateral mechanisms, including the United Nations, and encourage the international community to prioritize development issues in the global macro-policy coordination. They call on the developed countries to implement in good faith their formal commitments on development assistance, provide more resources to developing countries, address the uneven development of States, work to offset such imbalances within States, and advance global and international development cooperation. The Russian side confirms its readiness to continue working on the China-proposed Global Development Initiative, including participation in the activities of the Group of Friends of the Global Development Initiative under the UN auspices. In order to accelerate the implementation of the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, the sides call on the international community to take practical steps in key areas of cooperation such as poverty reduction, food security, vaccines and epidemics control, financing for development, climate change, sustainable development, including green development, industrialization, digital economy, and infrastructure connectivity.

Washington D.C., December 12, 2017

Many years prior to the Ukraine conflict RT news had documented the possibility of the US declaring war on Russia and China which seemed ludicrous considering all the wars that the US had fought with smaller nations up to this point.

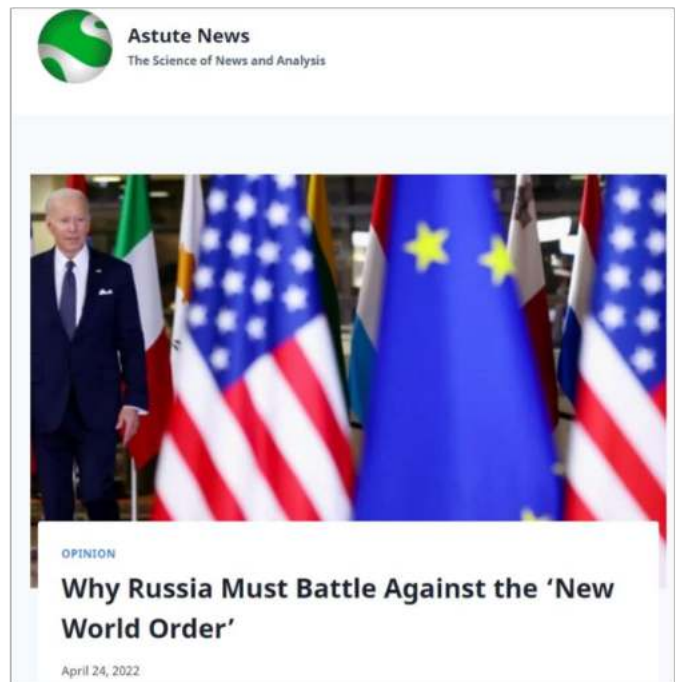

It takes us back to 1990 opening pages of the book 'Keys of this blood' by former Jesuit priest Malachi Martin.

Willing or not, ready or not, we are all involved in an all-out, no holds barred, three-way global competition. Most of us are not competitors, however. We are the stakes. For the competition is about who will establish the first one-world system of government that has ever existed in the society of nations. It is about who will hold and wield the dual power of authority and control over each of us as individuals and over all of us together as a community; over the entire six billion people expected by demographers to inhabit the earth by early in the third millennium.

The competition is all-out because, now that it has started, there is no way it can be reversed or called off.

No holds are barred because, once the competition has been decided, the world and all that's in it - our way of life as individuals and as citizens of the nations; our families and our jobs; our trade and commerce and money; our educational systems and our religions and our cultures; even the badges of our national identity, which of us have always taken for granted - all will have been powerfully and radically altered forever. No one can be exempted from its effects. No sector of our lives will remain untouched.

The competition began and continues as a three-way affair because that is the number of rivals with sufficient resources to establish and maintain a new world order.

No one who is acquainted with the plans of these three rivals has any doubt but that only one of them can win. Each expects the other two to be overwhelmed and swallowed up in the coming maelstrom of change. That being the case, it would appear inescapable that their competition will end up as confrontation.'

Why Russia Must Battle Against the 'New World Order'

'For many decades, the term 'new world order' has been discussed obsessively in the United States, yet few have any idea where the concept originated from and where the individuals who promote this grand vision wish to lead humanity. But one thing is for sure, Russia is having none of it.

November 19, 2022 US Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin declared on Saturday that the outcome of the conflict in Ukraine will shape the geopolitical order of the 21st century. The West's 'stability and prosperity' is on the line, he stressed.

that a pope does is ever coincidental. There is also the ponderous Vatican bureaucracy, which makes the decisions for the pope.

But interestingly, Francis' visit to the Russian Embassy on Friday was not listed in his customary daily program sheet of engagements.

The Dardanelles and the Bosphorus straits which is a key international waterway once controlled by the Ottoman empire and key to its historical prophetic power was once again under dispute. A ship reportedly carrying stolen grain was stopped in Istanbul on route to Syria. Ukraine has repeatedly accused Russian forces of ransacking its grain warehouses since they invaded the country in late February.

Other claims have followed with the head of the UN humanitarian agency on Monday dismissed a Russian claim that a civilian cargo ship carrying Ukrainian grain may have been involved in a drone strike against Russia.

Imagine deploying Russian troops in Mexico. Well, this is US military personnel in Ukraine. The Pentagon has confirmed active-duty U.S. military are deployed inside Ukraine and have 'resumed on-site inspections to assess weapon stocks. My understanding is that they would be well far away from any type of front-line actions, we are relying on the Ukrainians to do that, we are relying on other partners to do that. ... We've been very clear there are no combat forces in Ukraine, no U.S. forces conducting combat operations in Ukraine, these are personnel that are assigned to conduct security cooperation and assistance as part of the defense attaché office', says Air Force Brigadier General Pat Ryder.

So, you can image all sorts of US activities with privately paid mercenary and neo-Nazis present and paid by the US military in Ukraine.

While warning in the news of the rising risk of a global food shortage, food supplies were shut down using PCR tests and exterminating animal food stocks. While COVID-19 positive tests were reducing staff it was also reducing livestock.

For example, here is one of multiple situations that is disrupting the food supply. Rembrandt a US company that has been investing millions of dollars into AI research for egg production found a single positive PCR test which led to the immediate slaughter of 5 million chickens and firing over 300 workers.

Labourers at the one of the world's largest egg factories arrived at the plant in Rembrandt, Iowa, discovered they were about to work themselves out of a job.

Overnight, the factory had begun slaughtering more than 5 million chickens using a gruesome killing method after detecting a single case of avian influenza.

'Right now everybody's worried about the chickens,' said Oscar Garcia, a former supervisor at the plant. 'We get it: it was really inhumane the way they killed them. But chickens are chickens, right? People worked in those barns pulling out dead birds in terrible conditions, feces everywhere, doing 12- or 14-hour days.'

Australia 'ill-prepared' for food insecurity driven by war and climate crisis, former defence leaders say

Australia is badly prepared for food insecurity fuelled by the climate crisis and war, former military leaders have warned.

A new report, to be released on Tuesday, describes Australia and the Asia-Pacific as a "disaster alley" for climate change, but says governments in Covid is linked to animal food sources.

'Based on cases reported by Johns Hopkins University as of May 6, EWG's analysis found that counties containing or within 15 miles of one or more meatpacking plants reported 373 COVID-19 cases per 100,000 residents. That is roughly double the U.S. average of 199 cases per 100,000 in all counties with reported cases.'

The state can step in to force the closure of a food processing plant to the extermination of livestock, from a deer farm in Texas to mink farm in Denmark.

'It's a political disease. They're using it to put deer breeders out of business, that's my opinion' said Robert Williams of Texas. Robert Williams manages Trophy Ranch sits on 1,500 acres in the town of Terrell.

In the same year November 2022, the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has approved a lab-grown meat product as safe for human consumption, making it the first to receive a preliminary green light from the regulator.

The details of what has happened to the environment and food industry over the years or past several years is too vast to document but the difference since covid is the means to end the food industry.

But it doesn't end there.

Food processing plants and distribution centres around the world have been burning in quick succession, which is a peculiar trend that has been growing since 2021.

A Wright Country, Minnesota, egg farm lost quarter million chickens after fire burned down a barn. They delivered approximately 3 million eggs a day to large retailers.

Carbon company buys cattle station to earn carbon credits from fire management

Recently a large cattle property was bought for $28.9 million, in the Northern Territory by , Corporate Carbon.

The Sydney-based company said it would 'work to complement Ban Ban Springs cattle production with a savanna fire management carbon project'.

In September, Corporate Carbon bought the 89,000-hectare Watson River Station in Queensland's Cape York Peninsula for $12 million.

ABC Rural understands Corporate Carbon is close to settling the purchase of a cattle property in Central Arnhem Land.

Since 2010, the company has generated more than 8.8 million carbon credits. So, what does 8.8 million carbon credits really mean? How has this company been able to accumulate this carbon credit since 2010?

'Carbon credits, also known as carbon offsets, are permits that allow the owner to emit a certain amount of carbon dioxide or other greenhouse gases. One credit permits the emission of one ton of carbon dioxide or the equivalent in other greenhouse gases.'

Carbon trading

Carbon trading or offsetting does not reduce the amount of carbon being put into the atmosphere but is a new opening for the banks to profit from what is already projected to be in to the billions. The banks put out the policies put through at a government level who enable the environment policies- they have just grabbed natural capital. Big business can use carbon trading to continue their business despite a heavy carbon foot print or wealthy individual such as those attending Davos will continue to enjoy their lavish lifestyles.

Energy Crisis- an economy structured around energy credits

When you mention the companies Blackrock and Vanguard these are the companies that own almost every other company out there. Blackrock has the power to drive investors away from the energy markets and to buy valuable resources. It was the BlackRock Corporation with its ties to the white house that 'assisted' the clean-up necessary after the US experienced the financial crisis in 2008 through an array of government contracts, BlackRock has effectively become the leading manager of Washington's bailout of Wall Street. Larry Fink, Blackrock's CEO was on the list and expressed his desire to become US treasury secretary with his priorities with Hilary Clinton's election win in 2016.

BlackRock was a founding member of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (the TCFD) and is a signatory of the UN PRI— Principles for Responsible Investing, a UN-supported network of investors pushing zero carbon investing using the highly-corrupt ESG criteria— Environmental, Social and Governance factors into investment decisions.

BlackRock CEO says the crisis in the price of energy is accelerating investment in green energy yet Larry Fink had stated 'Over time companies and governments that do not respond to stakeholders and address sustainability risks will encounter growing skepticism from the markets, and in turn, a higher cost of capital.' He added that, 'Climate change has become a defining factor in companies' long-term prospects... we are on the edge of a fundamental reshaping of finance.'

Net Zero Banking alliance NZBA

NZBA lead to the GFANZ Glasgow Financial Alliance for Net Zero. This is a global coalition of banking institutions formed in Glasgow at COP26 of leading financial institutions committed to accelerating the decarbonization of the economy. Achieving the objective of the Paris Agreement to limit global temperature increases to 1.5°C from pre-industrial levels. 'Fiscal policy' of the banking elite once was debt for economic purposes. Now this will mean going into debt for UN sustainable outcomes enforced by the UN irrespective of economic or current debt level.

Bringing in global banks

The industry-led Net-Zero Banking Alliance (NZBA), convened by UNEP FI, brings together 43 banks from around the world in recognition of the vital role of banks in supporting the global transition of the real economy to net-zero emissions.

The Net-zero Banking Alliance has been accredited by the UN Race to Zero's Expert Peer Review Group. Find the full list of participating banks here:

All banks that have signed the commitment will:

- Transition the operational and attributable GHG emissions from their lending and investment portfolios to align with pathways to net-zero by 2050 or sooner.
- Within 18 months of joining, set 2030 targets (or sooner) and a 2050 target, with intermediate targets to be set every 5 years from 2030 onwards. All targets will be regularly reviewed to ensure consistency with the latest science (as detailed in IPCC assessment reports).
- Banks' first 2030 targets will focus on priority sectors where the bank can have the most significant impact, ie. the most GHG-intensive sectors within their portfolios.
- Within 36 months of joining, banks will set a further round of sector-level targets for all or a significant majority of specified carbon-intensive sectors, including: agriculture; aluminium; cement; coal; commercial and residential real estate; iron & steel; oil & gas; power generation; transport.
- The commitment is designed to ensure that banks engage with their clients' own transition and decarbonisation, promoting real economy transition rather than only financial sector withdrawal.
- Annually, publish climate disclosures and net-zero ambitions in line with best practice and within a year of setting targets, disclose progress against a board-level reviewed transition strategy setting out proposed actions and climate-related sectoral policies.
- Take a material approach to the role of offsets in transition plans.

43 banks launch Net-Zero Banking Alliance as key part of consolidated Glasgow COP climate action

The UN-backed race to zero banking alliance, which is formally endorsed by governments and a global community, with local implementation also supported by country chapters, the first of which will be established by the UK Bankers for Net Zero.

Global tax

Leaders from the G20 group of top economies in 2022 approved a long-anticipated overhaul to the global tax system that will force some of the world's biggest companies to hand over roughly $150 billion in additional tax revenue each year.

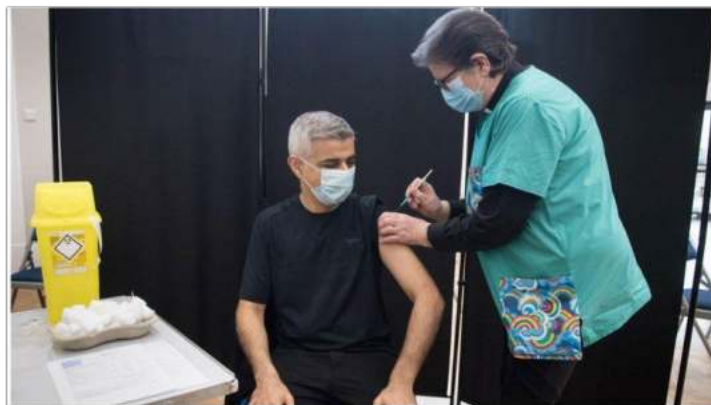

So, all that means is to tax the public through the corporations.

The idea had already been raised at COP27 by UN Secretary-General António Guterres, who called on “all governments” to implement taxes on windfall profits: “Let's redirect the money to people suffering from rising energy and food prices and to countries suffering loss and damage caused by the climate crisis,” Guterres said.

Who will you support?

Sadiq Khan mayor of London and C40 chair: I think there are basically three groups of people and this is linked with covid. Covid deniers, conspiracy theorists and a lot of them are climate change deniers. You had a lot of people who understood what's happening with covid, understand what's happening with climate change, took out the vaccine and want to tackle climate change and there are a lot of people in the middle who aren't sure and so they need persuading. And we need to do as politicians is almost be as teachers. Return to Mount Sinai 2022 COP27

The foundation for the Bible is the 10 commandments which is God's measure of a person's love for Him and their right to enter the Kingdom of God. Though all have broken the commandments we are to repent and keep His commandment as a sign of loyalty to God's kingdom and the mind is to be transformed by God to reveal in the life His thoughts and feelings.

In Daniel 7:25 it says the little horn would think to change times and laws, or God's law. The Christian world is following the man of sin though mostly through a false gospel and ignorance in not obeying God's law but rather man's theology and the laws of men

“The inquisition was founded to prosecute judaizing conversos, namely individuals of Jewish ancestry who were baptized as Christians but continued to practice aspects of Mosaic law such as dietary rules and rituals associated with the Sabbath. To Christian religious authorities, conversos who followed Jewish ceremonies were heretics because they appeared to be practicing two religions simultaneously and hence betraying their baptismal vows. The Inquisition was supposed to find these judaizing heretics and, if possible, enclose them again in the Christian community after eliciting from them an expression of repentance. If the suspected heretic refuse to confess her error and sufficient eyewitness testimony against her, she would be relaxed to the secular arm, a phrase meant released to the secular authorities and burn at the stake. p23,24 The Cambridge Companion to The Jesuits Edited by Thomas Worcester.

'God, we seek your intervention at this sacred place where Moses received the Ten Commandments, we commit to continue taking care of the environment, and we pray that you change the hearts of our leaders to take immediate action on climate change and save lives.'

Jesuit priest Leonard Chiti, also from south Africa and part of 'Earth Beat' said, 'Going to Mount Sinai represents identification with Moses, the liberator of the Hebrew people from slavery.
